Should the amendment be adopted any city that has become "dry" cause it is in a "dry" county, could by vote of its people be made "wet" by an act of the legislature. This would practically set aside the local option, so far as cities are concerned.

The emergency tax law passed both houses today and provides that within the county assessments and levy a state tax at a uniform rate.

The bill carries an appropriation of $5000 to meet the contingent expenses of the board, which may find it necessary in the process of its task to summon several of the county assessors to their assistance.

Certain Portland banks have renewed their old fight to restrict to themselves the use of the word "Trust," in the titles of firms and corporations. A bill introduced by Senator Bailey, and now gone to the house, forbids any of the numerous abstract and mortgage and agency companies the use of 'Trust' in their business. Instead they must use "Trustee."
