George Rodman arrived in town from Culver with her two year-old horse who had the misfortune to cut the middle toe of his right foot with a nail yesterday. The horse was commiserated. Dr. Helknap attended the horse and packed the toe back on. He says he has no doubt in his mind that the horse will again take up connection with the rest of the body and that it will soon grow back almost as new.—Prineville Journal.

Sherrod had the misfortune to lose and several sets of harness in his place last Sunday. He had some trash near the barn, when shifting of the wind blew the fire into barn and set fire to the harness. Sherrod was away from home and nothing in the barn was saved. It was a piece of good fortune that the harness were not burned also, for they were hatched in the barn a short time ago. When Mr. Sherrod started to go to a neighbor, he turned the harness and had no insurance and the harness destroyed was a complete

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE
 Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty to remove from our midst by death our esteemed brother, Ed Kutcher, who has for many years occupied a prominent rank in our midst, and who has been an energetic and faithful member of the Farmers Union since its organization in this county, maintaining under all circumstances a reputation above reproach. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the members of the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union of America, of Mad Springs local No. 8 of Crook county, Oregon, that in the death of Brother Kutcher we have sustained the loss of a friend whose fellowship it was an honor and a pleasure to enjoy; that we bear willing testimony to his many virtues and stainless life; and that we offer to his bereaved family and mourning friends, over whom sorrow has long her sable mantle, our heartfelt condolence and pray that Infinite Goodness may bring speedy relief to their burdened hearts and inspire them with the consolation that hope in futurity and faith in God give even in the shadow of the tomb.

RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting; that a copy be mailed to the bereaved family; that a copy be published in the Madras Pioneer, and that a copy be published in the Pacific Farmers Union.
