Frank Strout, formerly a resident of the Antelope neighborhood but who is now the real estate business at Beaver, was in town Monday.

Lawrence, receiver of the Roseburg office, passed through Madras Monday morning on his way to where he goes to look after his business.

Rice and family this week left for the vicinity of Madras, where they will locate. Mr. Rice informs us that he plans to plant a five acre tract to potatoes in the Antelope Herald.

Mrs. Grant Mays, Misses Prineville and Bessie Eddon of The Dalles and Mrs. Frank O'Connor of Madras were in Madras last Friday on Mr. Mays' touring car. They were returning from a visit to the Mays ranch on Ochoco 30 miles South of Madras.

Stewart says that grain has been taken to the mill from the ranches this week. Several farmers having finished their Spring work. Among those who are making deliveries this week are J. Healy of Haystack, Thomas of Madras and Willie Gibson, of the Gibson ranch Northwest of Prineville Journal.

Large Thomas car which is making a round trip between Shaniko and Prineville, a distance of approximately 100 miles, last Saturday, making that during daylight. The car passed Madras at 11 o'clock Saturday on the way to Bend, and was in on the return trip before 5 o'clock Monday.

Clerk Brown has secured blank fishing licenses and is ready to issue them, although the law goes into effect until May 23. All persons over 16 years of age are required to take out license. The fee for the license is $1, the same as for the license, and both are necessary to avoid trouble with the fish and game wardens.

from Eugene says that Abel Stearns, a resident of Camp Creek, died Monday of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. He was kneeling at prayer. He had been at the Camp Creek attending revival meetings and returned home, accompanied by the pastor. They were kneeling at prayer when the old man suddenly expired. Mr. Stearns is the father of John C. Trotter.

Mrs. Jesse Stearns of Portland, accompanied by Mr. Stearns' mother, returned to town last Monday on their way home, where they expect to spend the summer. Questioned regarding railroads in Portland, Mr. Stearns said there was nothing new except the approval of the right-of-way in the Deschutes for the first 40 miles, but the opinion was general among the interests of Portland that the people were in earnest about the Deschutes road, and that it would start as soon as all right-of-way could be adjusted.

William Farrell and wife were in town yesterday from Life Gap district, accompanied by Fred Wild and Mrs. M. W. Areyson.

Mrs. Howard Turner, who has been in poor health for some time, left Tuesday afternoon for Portland, where she will enter a hospital for treatment.

E. A. Jenkins and wife, who have been visiting in this locality for a month or more, left Tuesday morning for their home at Chico, California. Just before leaving Mr. Jenkins disposed of his land South of this place. The sale was made by C. O. Lee to a man at Independence, whose name was not learned.

Much interest is being manifested in the series of revival meetings which Evangelist Samuel Gregg is conducting at the Christian church in Madras, and large numbers are turning out to hear him. Elder Gregg is a logical and forceful speaker, and the meetings which he is conducting promise to be very successful.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. McCully of Joseph, and J. H. O'Neil, traveling passenger agent of the Harriman lines, were in Madras last Friday on their way to the railroad. They were traveling in the large 60 horse power Thomas car which Mr. McCully is putting on a regular passenger run between Shaniko and Prineville. Mr. O'Neil, who came direct from Portland, says preparations are going ahead rapidly in the Harriman offices on the plans for the construction of the Deschutes railroad, and he made the prediction that actual construction work would begin in 10 days. Mr. O'Neil's visit to this section was not official, although he was making some inquiries as to the passenger traffic which could be expected when the Deschutes road is built.
