

ings at Madras.

Lytle of Haystack was in town Tuesday. Henderson was in town Tuesday. H. Osborn and Robert Osborn were in town Tuesday. the wife of E. N. Gillam Saturday, 1909, a daughter. Father was in town last Saturday on Yamhill Flat. C. Landon and family were in today from their home near Cul

Packet of Vancouver, Wash., on last Friday looking after business in this section. He has been on Agency Plains. Luedemann returned Sunday from Wamspring, where several days last week visiting Edward Chaloupka.

Wetherham, who has been spending more in this locality looking various business interests, today for his home at Butler.

Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Linna B. went to the agency Saturday to see Madras ball game, returning the evening.

V. Warren, a farmer from the country, was in town Monday. says his crop of grain this year is the best he has ever had since he moved in the county.

Mrs. E. A. Gillett, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. C. C. Healy left last Saturday for the hot reservation, where they expect a few days camping out.

Wyneta Taylor, who has been in the local school at Wamspring, is now in this place, where she will teach next year at the school.

Members of the German Methodist have arranged for a big picnic on the home tract of Rev. J. W. Turner, who is in town today.

W. Turner went to the reservation to meet Mrs. Turner, who is returning from an extended visit, where she has been receiving medical attention. Mr. and Mrs. Turner returned yesterday.

William Branstetter and wife, who are spending the winter at Medford, are on their way back to Madras, driving across the mountains by the new route, with George Hurt, expected here today.

Blanchard was the first man in this section to see the color of Harriman. Within half an hour of the time of way agents reached town last week they had secured a deed from the land.

Blanchard and wife, who have been in the Willamette valley for several years, arrived Tuesday at their home on Opal Prairie. Mr. Blanchard is very dry in the valley and the commonly backward there this

A Long and family will occupy the Loucks residence, which they have just purchased. Mr. and Mrs. Loucks are out to the ranch of their son, Dr. Long's father, who recently returned from Missouri and joined the Medford, will reside with him.

Stinke, who was injured in a recent accident here several months ago, has been undergoing treatment. He has almost fully recovered from the effects of his injuries, and is more serious than was thought when the accident occurred.

Hobson, supervisor in this road, has had prepared a number of boards for the county roads in this section, and they are now being erected. The boards indicate direction and distances to other roads, which the roads lead, and they are a great convenience to travelers in this section. J. B. Eddy and P. A. Worthright of way agents for the Deschutes, practically completed their section by the first of the former left for the upper portion of the line along the Deschutes, but nothing remained here for several days to wind up a few matters. It was little difficulty in securing way from owners, who could be with one or two exceptions, and fair offer was refused. Mr. Eddy's condemnation suits would have been at once. With only a few right of way has been secured by all the way through from the agency ranch to the mouth of the Sam A. McConnell was in town yesterday from his homestead near Crooked River.

John L. Campbell has rented the Madras Meat Market and will combine the two shops at this place. He moved into his new quarters yesterday.

George Rodman, I. V. Limbaugh and John Peck, and their families, returned last Tuesday from Hood River, where they have been spending several weeks during the berry season.

Louis Rising, who was formerly government farmer at the Wamspring reservation, has been employed as storekeeper for W. H. See & Co. at the agency. E. Chaloupka, who is a member of the firm and has conducted the business, expects to quit the agency in the next two weeks, and he and Mrs. Chaloupka will return to their old home in Michigan for a visit. Later they will return and settle somewhere on this coast.

The people of Upper Willow Creek in the vicinity of the Compton & Dee saw mill are arranging a good old fashioned Independence Day celebration. The celebration will be held Monday July 5, and games and sports of all kinds will be indulged in. There will also be dancing, and a platform 45x75 feet is being built for that purpose. An invitation is extended to the people of this section to participate in the celebration, and a good time is promised.

At the next meeting of the County Farmers' Union, which will occur at Madras the second Wednesday in this month, the question of securing government aid in irrigating this section will be taken up. It is understood that an open meeting will be held while this matter is under discussion, and the business men of the town will be asked to cooperate.

A strong movement should be organized and prompt action taken, in order that the matter may be called to Secretary Ballinger's attention during his presence on this coast. It is understood that the Secretary will be invited by prominent irrigators of Portland to visit the Deschutes country, in which event he will pass through this section.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

POPULAR MADRAS-COUPLE WEDS

Sunday evening, June 27, 1909, at the home of the bride's parents six miles South of Madras, Mr. Anders D. Anderson and Miss Effie A. Taylor were united in marriage, the wedding ceremony being performed by Rev. G. R. Moorhead of the Madras Methodist church. The wedding was a quiet home affair, only the relatives of the bride being present to witness the solemnization of the happy event.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

Mr. Anderson is a prosperous and progressive young farmer on Agency Plains, having been among the early settlers of that section. He is also active in the farmers' organization in this county, being secretary of the County Union, and is deservedly popular among all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. W. Taylor, and has been the popular teacher of the Mud Springs school for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their hosts of friends. They will continue to reside in this locality.

A party of business men of Prineville composed of Jake Boone, Guy Lafollette, C. M. Stroud, Omar Claypool and one or two others whose names were not learned, spent several hours in Madras last Sunday looking over the town.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the Baptist Church of Madras, wish to extend our thanks to the citizens of Madras and vicinity for their kind aid and assistance in caring for the delegates to the Middle Oregon Baptist Association, which recently met with us. We heartily appreciate the excellent attendance, and the numerous courtesies shown us by members of other denominations. Respectfully, I. D. Brown, Moderator; S. P. Loving, Clerk.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in our sudden bereavement, and our appreciation of the heroic efforts of those who generously assisted in the search for the body of our dear son and brother.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kidder and Children.

SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH
Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Epworth League at 7:15 p. m.
Services in the morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 8.
Talk to the Children at close of Sunday school.
A cordial invitation is extended to all.
Window sale next Saturday afternoon at B. S. Larkin's store.
Ice cream will be served.
G. R. MOORHEAD, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST SERVICES
Services in Odd Fellows hall.
Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Preaching at Lamona Saturday at 8 p. m. and Sunday morning at 11. Preaching at Grizzly Sunday evening at 8.
You are invited to attend these services.
B. E. W. PITMAN, Pastor.

Opportunity--
CALLS--DON'T NEGLECT
Best Soil--Best Climate--Best Water
We are ready to locate parties on
DESERT LAND WITH WATER RIGHT
Enables you to get Irrigated Lands at Low Cost. These lands will sell for $50 to $80 per acre WHEN RECLAIMED.
FOR PARTICULARS, SEE
JOSEPH C. HOUSTON, MADRAS

McTAGGART & BYE
MADRAS, ORE.
GROCERIES, HARDWARE
== IMPLEMENTS ==
Fishing Tackle
We can furnish you with a fine outfit
FLIES, LEADERS, Etc., Etc.
UNIVERSAL
STOVES--RANGES

Edward C. Pease Co. Inc.
THE SHANIKO STORE
New Spring Goods
We are receiving daily our Spring line of new and up-to-date
DRY GOODS, SHOES
MEN'S AND WOMEN'S FURNISHINGS
An elegant line in all departments
FISHING TACKLE
WE HAVE A COMPLETE AND ENTIRELY NEW STOCK
Telescope Rods, Bamboo Rods, Jointed Bamboo Rods, Bamboo Poles--long and short, Reels, King Fisher Trout Lines, Black Spanish Leaders, Imported Leaders, Etc.
Everything Needful For A First-Class Fishing Outfit
CALL AND SEE US AT OUR SHANIKO STORE
The Chief Study of This Store Is to Satisfy Its Customers

Blacksmithing
Plow Repairing, Wagon Work. A Specialty Of HORSESHOEING
W. B. CHILDERS
(Formerly The McELROY SHOP)
MADRAS, OREGON

FARMS, TOWN LOTS,
& PERSONAL PROPERTY
HANDLED BY
D. W. BARNETT
MADRAS, OREGON
Office at Residence, South Main St.
LIST WITH ME

SUMMER RATES EAST
During the Season 1909
Via The
OREGON RAILROAD & NAVIGATION CO.
OREGON SHORT LINE AND UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
From
Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, Walla Walla and all points on The O. R. & N. line
To OMAHA and Return.....$60
To KANAS CITY and Return $60
To ST. LOUIS and Return..... 67 50
To CHICAGO and Return..... 72 50
And to other principal cities in the East, Middle West and South, correspondingly low fares.
On Sale June 2, 3; July 2, 3; August 11, 12
To DENVER and Return, - $50
On Sale May 17, July 1, August 11
Going transit limit 10 days from date of sale, final return limit Oct. 31. These tickets present some very attractive features in the way of stop-over privileges, and choice of routes, then by enabling passengers to make side trips to many interesting points enroute. Routing on the return trip through California may be had at a slight advance over the rates quoted. Full particulars, sleeping car reservations and tickets will be furnished by any O. R. & N. local agent, or
WILLIAM McMURRAY, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon

LIVERY
The best in Shaniko
Good Stock, Careful Drivers
Best of Hay and Grain Fed
At Very Reasonable Prices
D. A. Howell, Shaniko, Or.