

Arrivals at Madras.

James Read and wife and Mrs Perry Read of Culver were in town Tuesday.

B. F. Cook of Portland, one of the owners of the townsite at Redmond, was in town last Thursday on his way to Redmond.

Mrs. M. E. Percival came in from her ranch Monday and on Tuesday offered final five year proof on her homestead, before Commissioner Turner.

Mrs. Ed McGreer of Antelope and her children arrived in Madras Tuesday afternoon and will visit with her mother, Mrs. G. R. Moorhead for several days.

C. O. Lee was in town Wednesday from his home near Haystack. He was accompanied by his son, Carter Lee, who arrived Tuesday evening from the valley for a visit with his parents.

Emil Falkenhagen went to Shaniko on Tuesday, taking in a large wagonload of hogs for Davenport & Stroud, who ship their hogs into Shaniko by wagon in preference to driving them through.

Albert Moore and wife of Lamonta were in town Tuesday. Mr. Moore brought in with him some exceptionally fine specimens of oats and wheat grown on his place near Juniper Springs this year.

S. E. Gray and family returned last Thursday afternoon from a month's outing at Belknap Springs. Archie Isham, who has been visiting in the valley for some time, joined the Grays at Belknap Springs and returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Larkin have the sympathy of their many friends in the community, in the loss of their infant daughter. A baby girl was born to them last Friday morning at their home North of Madras, but the little one only lived a few hours.

Rev. J. G. Moehring, pastor of the German Methodist church in this locality, left Monday for Seattle to attend the annual conference of the church of this conference district. Mr. Moehring has a flourishing church in the Methodist Hill district, and he will doubtless be returned to this charge.

George Palmer Putnam, "war correspondent" for the Portland Oregonian at the scene of the fight between the Hill and the Harriman construction forces in the Deschutes canyon, was in town Tuesday on his way to Bend. He has been sending his paper a number of good news stories that make interesting reading here in Central Oregon.

BENJAMIN BROWN DEAD

Benjamin A., the eldest son of Elder and Mrs. I. D. Brown, died at the home of his parents at this place Monday morning at one o'clock after a long illness. Death was due to tuberculosis of the bones, from which he has been suffering for some time and for more than a year past the young man has been bed ridden. He was taken to a hospital in Portland last year for an operation, but his relief was only temporary and his condition became so critical that death has been expected for some time past. Interment was held Monday afternoon in the Madras cemetery, the funeral service being conducted by Elder C. A. Waterhouse.

Deceased was a native of Oregon, having been born in Umatilla County, November 26, 1886. Besides his parents he leaves three brothers and three sisters to mourn his loss.

Rev. and Mrs. Brown and their family have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in this locality, in the great sorrow which has overtaken them.

NEW TEACHER ARRIVES

E. M. Tiffany, who has been elected a teacher in the Madras public school for the ensuing year, arrived here Monday morning from Marshfield, where he has been teaching the past year. Mr. Tiffany's home is in Eastern Kansas and he is a graduate of Baker College of that state. He comes to the Madras school highly recommended and the directors of the school are fortunate in having secured his services. He will have charge of the high school grades.

In this connection it is understood that the 11th grade will be taught in the Madras school this year. The 9th and 10th grades were added last year, and although there were several pupils who finished the 10th grade at the Spring term, it was at first decided not to add the 11th grade this year. It has since been decided to do so, however, in order that these pupils may continue their work in the Madras school.

Davenport & Stroud of Primeville, who have made a number of shipments of hogs from this locality, have been in town during the past week gathering up another shipment. They are shipping to the Portland market and have bought quite a number of hogs in this vicinity.

William Blair and daughter were in town Monday from Youngs. Mr. Blair has been appointed postmaster at Youngs and informs us that the office has been removed from its old location at Youngs store to his residence. Mr. Blair has had considerable experience in conducting the postoffice and will doubtless make a satisfactory official, although it is understood there was some opposition to the change of location for the postoffice.
