

Arrivals at Madras.

Howard W. Turner is visiting his parents at Culver.

Mrs. Henry Windom of Culver is in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Parish of Haystack is in town last Saturday.

Mrs. A. Robinson and Mrs. Linna are several days visiting at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Huston arrived in town yesterday from Tetherow Bridge.

Don P. Rea, who has been at Portland for the past two months, returned to Madras yesterday.

John E. Woodbridge made final proof before Commissioner Turner upon his homestead South of this place yesterday.

James Kaas, who went on an outing to Crescent Lake, near the head waters of the Deschutes, returned home Sunday.

He reports excellent fishing and a pleasant trip, but killed no deer, though the indications of them were many.

Rev. G. R. Moorhead, pastor of the M. E. church at this place, expected to leave Tuesday to attend the annual conference which meets at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, this week, but at the last moment found that it was impossible for him to leave.

He has built up a strong church at this place and there is a unanimous wish that he be returned to this charge for another year.

Mr. Moorhead preached his last sermon in the present conference year at the Madras church last Sunday.

Robert Rea returned Thursday afternoon from Portland. He says that all one hears on the outside is "Central Oregon" and the railroad war now raging in the Deschutes canyon.

Mr. Rea attended the trial of the injunction suit between the Deschutes Railroad and the Oregon Trunk Line, and says that in Portland the decision in favor of the Hill road is considered one of the most important ever rendered in the state, in the bearing it will have upon the development of interior Oregon.

Frank Forest, wife and daughter were in Prineville from their home on Crooked River near O'Neil. Mr. Forest informed a Journal reporter that operations were shortly to be resumed at the Grizzly oil well.

The work is to be in charge of John Moore, the well known well driller. The well is down to a depth of a little over 500 feet, no work of any consequence having been done on the property for the past three months.

Promoters of the prospecting feel sure that with perseverance their labors will be rewarded with valuable discoveries. At present a drill bit is lodged in the bottom of the hole and the first thing in order will be to fish it out.

Special tools for this purpose are now on the road—Prineville Journal.

ARNEY-JACKSON WEDDING

Walter D. Arney of Madras and May E. Jackson of The Dalles secured a license to wed from County Clerk F. R. Angel Saturday and were united in marriage later the same evening by Rev. D. V. Pollog, pastor of the Congregational church.

The newly married couple left for their home near Madras Monday. The bride is well known in this city, where she resided for many years. The Optimist extends congratulations.—The Dalles Optimist.

The news of the marriage of Walter Arney and Miss May Jackson came as a pleasant surprise to the many friends of the young couple in this locality, where they have resided for a number of years.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, and she and the groom both have homesteads on Agency Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Arney returned last Thursday to their home on the plains, where they expect to reside.

PLEASANT CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT

A very pleasant entertainment and social was given by the members of the Madras M. E. church at Sanford's hall last Friday evening.

Some time ago members of one of the classes at the Methodist Sunday school were each presented with a quarter of a dollar, which they were expected to use in the most profitable manner for the purpose of raising a fund for certain of the church's projects.

The entertainment last Friday evening was for the purpose of hearing reports from each of those members upon how they had used their "talent." There were 16 members in the class, and the reports showed that the talents had been used so advantageously that a total of about $30 was turned in at the meeting.

A very entertaining program consisting of songs, instrumental music and recitations was also rendered, following which ice cream and cake was served by the Ladies' Aid.

The evening was a pleasant one, and a comfortable little sum was realized for the church.

A Good Position

can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy.

Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country, there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance for advancement. The National Telegraph Institute, of Portland, Oregon, operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

Mr. Roy Joslin and Miss Ruby Moore, both of Haystack, were united in marriage last Thursday afternoon in Madras.

Rev. I. D. Brown of this place performing the ceremony. The happy event occurred at the residence of Dave W. Barnett in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends from Madras and Haystack.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moore of Haystack and the groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Joslin, is a young rancher of that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Joslin left Thursday afternoon for Haystack, where they will make their home on the William Joslin ranch.
