

Madras And Madras Country

the Lamonta merchant, was Tuesday.

the wife Ira McCormick on September 8, 1909, a son.

Red and George Rankin were on a Crooked River fishing party.

William Malone, sheepman, was in town last Friday.

McLennan drove over from Antelope with Miss Sossie Brogan, returned Monday.

Waldner left last Friday for Canada. He will spend several weeks over the Alberta country.

Livingston and wife left last Saturday for the hot springs on the reservation where they are spending several days.

Loren, who has been working at the new residence of Thomas Brogan, returned to his home last Thursday.

Sharp moved his family to Madras Tuesday. He is associated with a hotel in a soft drink establishment at Prineville Journal.

Robinson and family have taken residence in the cottage they recently bought of Max Lueddemann, who was in town Friday of last week.

Mrs. Mansel Wheeler were in town from Grizzly last Saturday. Wheeler being on the way to his home in Washington state.

Hammer of Albany, who owns a tract of land in the Haystack, is spending some time in this locality after his business interests.

Hilda Sondquest, who has been in town for Billy Moore at the Hahn home several months past, left last Friday for the home of her parents in Prineville.

Sossie Brogan of Antelope arrived in town Sunday for an extended stay in the city having accepted a position in the general merchandise store of J. C. & E. Robinson.

Duchien and family of Haystack Tuesday in town. They were accompanied by Miss Jennie L. Bishop, who decided to locate on a home near Haystack.

Eva J. Smith, who has been in town the summer at the home of her mother, B. S. Larkin, left for Prineville Monday morning, where she is to attend the public school this winter.

Booth, president of the Crooked River Bank, and Mayor D. F. Stewart, of Prineville, were visitors in Madras Sunday and were looking over this part of the country. Mr. Booth had been in this locality for several years and the development in this vicinity is greater than he expected to see.

Samuel Gregg, who closed his meetings at Prineville a few days passed through town Monday for Portland. He was accompanied by Mr. Gregg has been the pastor of the Christian church at Prineville, but it was not learned if he has decided to accept the position.

Haddock, division engineer for the Deschutes Railroad Company, was in town Saturday to meet his wife and children, who expect to spend the winter in Central Oregon with Haddock. He has located his family at Prineville, where his headquarters will be present, as his division on the road extends from Madras to Prineville.

Grewell and E. DeHaven were in town Saturday from their ranches near Trout Creek. Mr. DeHaven has his home on lower Trout Creek near Grewell and Koscoe Gaid, the latter each securing 80 acres.

DeHaven tract is an attractive piece of land, Trout Creek running through the portion of the land being under consideration. Mr. DeHaven expects to go to the tract where he will probably make a home.

Smithers, known in this part of the country as the bustling telephone man, is repairing and reconstructing the phone lines in and around Madras.

Smithers says it is the intention of the phone company to establish a phone company in Madras, and that these will be the first in the country which will be established at this point, and that the rates will be reasonable so that all may have a range of phones in their homes.

The intention of the company to establish a phone company in Madras, and that these will be the first in the country which will be established at this point, and that the rates will be reasonable so that all may have a range of phones in their homes.

The intention of the company to establish a phone company in Madras, and that these will be the first in the country which will be established at this point, and that the rates will be reasonable so that all may have a range of phones in their homes.

The intention of the company to establish a phone company in Madras, and that these will be the first in the country which will be established at this point, and that the rates will be reasonable so that all may have a range of phones in their homes.

Jack Church of Haystack was in town several days this week visiting friends.

Professor Riley Cook was a visitor at Prineville this week, returning home Tuesday.

Warren Smith, the genial barber of Madras, spent the first part of the week at Lamonta and Prineville.

The new addition to the A. C. Sanford store is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Milton Shatt and wife and Mr. Jefferies of Topeka, Kansas, arrived in town the first of the week for an extended visit at the home of I. F. Shatt.

Miss Myrthena Taylor, daughter of H. K. W. Taylor, left last Thursday for The Dalles to take up her duties as teacher in the Thompson Addition school.

Dave Peck and family, who have been at Hood River and other Columbia River points for several months, have returned to Madras and vicinity to spend the winter.

Miss Ethel Klann, of the Rimrock school district on North Agency Plains, went to Prineville last week, where she will attend the county high school the coming year.

Dr. William Kettle, division surgeon for the Deschutes Railroad, had the pleasure of a visit last week from his father of New York. The senior Mr. Kettle departed the first of the week for his home, visiting other scenic points in the Northwest on the way.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fields died yesterday at 9 a. m. The funeral will be held at 1 p. m. today in the M. E. church. The little form was laid at rest in the Madras cemetery. The community sympathizes most sincerely with Mr. and Mrs. Fields in the loss of their baby.

Miss Clara Horney departed last Saturday afternoon for Walla Walla, where she will attend school the coming winter. Miss Horney was awarded a scholarship for highest honors won at the Crooked River high school in Prineville fifteen months ago and now goes to avail herself of the gift. Miss Horney taught the primary department in the Madras public school last year, and her work was most satisfactory to the patrons of the school.

NEW BANK WILL SOON OPEN

In a message from J. M. Conklin of Portland, yesterday, it is learned that he expects to return to Madras not later than the 20th of this month and that the new bank will be ready to transact a general banking business before October 1. Mr. Conklin states that he has purchased one of the latest and most modern vaults to be used in connection with the bank, which gives assurance that the schemes of crackmen and like craft will be of no avail against this institution.

The incorporation papers are being prepared and all the necessary arrangements will be attended to by Mr. Conklin while in Portland, and as soon as he returns to Madras there will be a meeting of the persons who desire to take stock in the institution, a board of directors elected and the final arrangements completed at an early date.

REV. MOORHEAD CONTINUED AT MADRAS

At the recent meeting of the Columbia River Conference of the M. E. church, which was held at Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, Rev. G. R. Moorhead was returned to the Methodist charge of Madras and vicinity, which is pleasing news to the people of this community, as Mr. Moorhead is carrying on a good work here, and his friends will be glad to know that his efforts are appreciated by the conference.

Dr. Walton Skipworth was also re-elected as superintendent of The Dalles District, this office formerly being known as the presiding elder. Dr. Skipworth is an able and versatile minister, and it is with much satisfaction that his many friends learn of his being retained in this district.

POULSEN BABY DIES

Paul Emil, the three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Neils Poulsen, died at their home Saturday, September 17, 1909, at their home on Agency Plains. The funeral was held from the residence at 2 o'clock and from the M. E. church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. G. R. Moorhead. Interment was had in the Madras cemetery.

There was a large assemblage at the funeral of the baby and the little casket was covered with a bank of flowers, a pretty tribute from the many friends and neighbors, who sympathize most sincerely with Mr. and Mrs. Poulsen in the loss of their child.

CARD OF THANKS

In this manner we extend to our many friends and neighbors our heart felt gratitude and thanks for the many acts of kindness and deep sympathy shown us in our recent bereavement.—Very sincerely, Mr. and Mrs. Neils Poulsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lueddemann, who have made their home in Madras for the past four years, departed from this place last Friday for outside points, they having not decided in what locality they will eventually make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Lueddemann were prominent in business and social circles of Madras, and their absence will be felt in the community.

The Madras public school will begin the Fall and Winter term next Monday, the 20th, with the following corps of teachers: Professor W. R. Cook, principal of Madras; Professor E. M. Tiffany of Kansas, Miss Verna Howard of Prineville, and Miss Nellie Reynolds of Butte. The new schoolhouse will be occupied at the opening of school, Contractor Magness having completed the building in good season. The directors announce that on account of the non arrival of the seats for the 9th and 10th grades, school will not commence until Monday, the 27th. The Madras school is now well equipped for work and a most successful school year is expected.

CHURCH OF CHRIST SERVICES

Services in Odd Fellows hall. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Sunday, Sept. 19, preaching at Grizzly at 11 a. m. Services at Lamonta Sunday evening at 7:30. Sunday school at Lamonta every Sunday at 10 a. m. You are invited to attend these services. B. F. W. PITMAN, Pastor.

MENNONITE SERVICES

MADRAS—Second Sunday in each month at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. in Free Methodist Church. OPAL PRAIRIE—Every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. in Opal Prairie Church. Union Sunday school every Sunday at 10 a. m. JUNIPER BUTTE School House—Every Sunday at 3 p. m. Union Sunday school every Sunday at 2 p. m. MOUNTAIN VIEW School House—First and 2d Sunday of each month at 4:30 p. m. Union Sunday school every Sunday 3:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to these services. ARTHUR and MINA CREASEY, Pastors.

SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH

Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Epworth League at 7:15 p. m. Services in the Madras M. E. church next Sunday morning, Sept. 19, at eleven o'clock. Everyone cordially invited. G. R. MOORHEAD, Pastor.

BAPTIST SERVICES

Preaching at Madras the 4th Sunday of each month. Union Sunday school at 10 a. m. every Sunday. Blackboard and wall roll exercise for the children. I. D. Brown, Superintendent. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

Edward C. Pease Co. Inc.

THE SHANIKO STORE

Sole Agents

Sole Agents

It is with great satisfaction that we announce our Sole Agency in Shaniko for the LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

PATTERNS EXCELLED BY NONE: the most economical, unquestionably the leaders in originality, and faultless as to fit.

PATTERNS 10c & 15c each

A Guide Chart given free with each pattern, which tells the exact quantity of material used and full instructions in cutting and fitting same. Send us your name and address

A monthly style book mailed free to each customer on request to be put on our mailing list.

New And COMPLETE STOCK OF GENERAL HARDWARE

A fine line of the famous Diamond Edge CUTLERY

TRY OUR DIAMOND EDGE RAZORS The best on the Market

TIGER HEAD TAILORING

500 HUNDRED snappy and atractive sample of all-wool worsted and fancy suitings for Fall. The cream of the ROYAL TAILORS' stock in Chicago has just arrived, and now ready for your inspection. Suits made to order in latest styles and every suit guaranteed to fit and hold its shape until worn out. Try us for your Fall suit. Prices from $18.00 up.

$25 REWARD

A reward of $25 is offered for information leading to the conviction of any person or persons guilty of the offense of cutting the lines, destroying or removing the poles, or interfering in any way with the property of the Pioneer Telegraph & Telephone Co.

Pioneer Telegraph & Telephone Co. MADRAS, OREGON

Blacksmithing

Plow Repairing, Wagon Work. A Specialty Of HORSESHOEING

W. B. CHILDERS (Formerly The McELROY SHOP) MADRAS, OREGON

FARMS, TOWN LOTS,

& PERSONAL PROPERTY HANDLED BY D. W. BARNETT MADRAS, OREGON Office at Residence, South Main St.

LIST WITH ME

LUMBER

A large stock of Seasoned Rough, also a good assortment of Dressed and Finishing lumber of all kinds at the company's mill. Call up by phone or address

GRIZZLY LAKE LUMBER COMPANY Lamonta, Oregon

Scientific Farmers

All advocate DISCING your land immediately after the crop is removed, preparatory to Fall plowing. This conserves the moisture already in the soil, and prepares the land to retain the moisture occasioned by the Fall rains. You need one of our

DISC HARROWS

for this class of work. Prices reasonable for a standard article. BUY ONE AT ONCE.

GROCERIES--HARDWARE--IMPLEMENTS--STOVES--RANGES

McTAGGART & BYE

Madras, Oregon

Rest - Romp - Recuperate

At The Seashore

NORTH BEACH

Is a delightful resort and a happy combination of pleasure ground possibilities. An ideal climate, diversion of recreation—perfect bathing—boating—fishing—riding, driving and exploring, make NORTH BEACH the most charming and popular play ground on the North Pacific Coast.

The O. R. & N.

HAS A Special Summer Excursion Rate To NORTH BEACH Points Of $12⁰⁰ From SHANIKO

Remember this will give you the pleasant daylight ride on the Str. T. J. POTTER down the Columbia River

Ask For Booklet, "OUTINGS IN OREGON"

E. J. WILSON, Agt., Shaniko

WILLIAM McMURRAY, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon

LIVERY

The best in Shaniko

Good Stock, Careful Drivers Best of Hay and Grain Fed At Very Reasonable Prices

D. A. Howell, Shaniko, Or.