Stanton Black of Blizzard Ridge was a business visitor in Madras yesterday. Mrs. Warren Smith is visiting relatives and friends at Prineville this week. Miss Verna Howard spent last Sunday at Culver, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Windom.

Luther L. Boone from Crooked River was in Madras Tuesday and offered final proof upon his homestead. E. Groat of the Opal Prairie country made final proof upon his homestead before Commissioner Turner Tuesday.

C. A. Whitsett was in town Monday from Opal Prairie acting as witness in the homestead proofs of Elon Groat and L. L. Boone. "Few people here realize what the real valuation of Crook County property is," said City Recorder P. B. Davis today. "I was at Prineville recently and examined the records and saw that the assessment rolls show that the valuation of property is over $5,000,000 and the assessment rate there is lower than it is here. Several people, whom I have asked to guess on the amount Crook County has been assessed, have guessed around $1,000,000, and that seems to be the general opinion. The country but there is a wonderful one and the railroads are going to do wonders for it, opening up a very productive and resourceful land."—The Dalles Chronicle.
