PREPARE FOR IT NOW

In view of the excellent showing made by the Deschutes exhibit sent to the Dry Farming Congress at Billings, Montana, this Fall, for which the largest international silver cup was awarded the Deschutes Valley...

The advertising gained from these shows is of the best quality, and the farmers and business interests of this section should begin now to see that we are represented with a creditable exhibit at the Spokane congress next year.

TO DEVELOP OREGON

President Stevens, of the Oregon Trunk Line, again announces that the new road now building through Central Oregon will not be extended to California. Portland would much prefer to believe that this announcement were final and conclusive...

MADRAS PUBLIC SCHOOL REPORT

Table with 2 columns: Item and Value. Rows include: Report of school district No. 22 for the month ending Nov. 5, 1909; No. days taught during month; Whole No. days attendance; Average No. pupils belonging; Per cent of attendance.

The school work is progressing nicely in all the departments.

There has been a large number of absences during the past month, which interferes with the school work, and I trust that we may have the assistance and cooperation of the parents in overcoming this difficulty.

W. R. COOK, Principal.

G. Springer was in town today from Culver. Mr. Springer is very enthusiastic over the showing made by the Deschutes country at the dry farming congress, and is very anxious that this section send a creditable exhibit to the Corn Show at Omaha next month.

John Malone of Antelope was a visitor in Madras over Sunday.

The Misses Brogan of Antelope arrived in Madras Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Max Lueddemann, who has been in Madras for a couple of weeks, left Monday for Spokane.

Frank Forrest, president of the Madras Oil & Gas Co, was in town today looking after business affairs.

BAPTIST SERVICES
