

MADRAS And The Madras Country

Hess has sold his driving team to Clark.
 to the wife of Gus Loveland Saturday, January 8, 1910, a son.
 Lulu Osborn of Culver is visiting home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Sharp.
 Sam Farrell was a visitor in town Saturday from his ranch near Sagebrush.
 McTaggart left Friday evening for Portland, expecting to be gone about two weeks.
 Joslin and wife of Grizzly visited several days this week with D. W. Barnd and his mother.
 Contest case of Roy Newell vs. the head entry of Martha M. Allen was in Madras yesterday.
 F. Carter, resident engineer for the Deschutes Railroad in Porter Spring canyon was a visitor in town last Friday.
 W. Wooley, traveling salesman for the Wells Hardware Co., was in town Tuesday calling on the merchants.
 H. Hammond, who has been in town several weeks in Madras with Rea, left this morning for an extended visit at Cline Falls.
 McBurn McPherson was in town this morning from Haycreek. He had an accident the other day caused by a wagon breaking and fell out on the frozen ground, bruising his face very painfully. See the Journal.
 G. Ruddock, who has been resident engineer for the Deschutes Railroad at Madras for several months, was called to Portland this week and will be transferred to another station. Mr. Ruddock and family left this morning for Shaniko.
 Announcement is made that the Crags drugstore, conducted by A. Crags, will open for business in the new building about February 1, with a complete line of drugs, patent medicines, toilet articles, etc. Dr. G. S. Edmondson of Portland, who has recently moved in Madras, will have his office in the new drugstore.
 The Howard and Z. M. Brown, who have the contract for supplying beef for the Porter Bros., were in town the latter part of the week, and are making arrangements to build a large slaughter yard near Madras. They have leased a piece of land east of town and will begin the construction of the buildings as soon as material can be placed on the ground.
 A mass meeting of citizens will be held tomorrow (Friday) evening for the purpose of nominating men to fill the various city offices which will be voted on at a meeting to be held Monday, January 11. All legal voters should make it a point to be present, as it is of the utmost importance to the welfare of the city that representative citizens take an interest in the matter.
 H. Edmondson, a rancher of the Madras neighborhood, stopped over in Madras the first of the week while on his way to Portland. While in town Mr. Edmondson renewed his subscription to the Journal. He says the railroad work on the Deschutes is a great boon to the people in his section of the state, as the head camps have created a market for the farm products.—The Dalles Journalist.
