"You brainless cad!" exclaimed the man with the lofty dome of thought. "Ha!" retorted the man with the pale, scholarly cast of countenance, regarding him with immeasurable scorn: "you colossal ignoramus, if I am 'brainless,' where do my sensory nerves register their impressions?"

"Exclusively in your spinal cord!" was the crushing rejoinder.

Troubles of the Ancients.

Hercules had killed the Erymanthean bear. "It was a case of necessity," he pleaded. "I was absolutely out of meat."

Worms

"Cascarets are certainly fine. I gave a friend one when the doctor was treating him for cancer of the stomach. The next morning he passed four pieces of a tape worm. He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape-worm 45 feet long. It was Mr. Matt Peck, of Millersburg, Darlington Co., Pa. I am quite a worker for Cascarets. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood."

SEAL HUNTING.

Eskimo Methods in Dealing with the Wary Creatures.

Writing of far northern hunting methods, Harry Whitney thus describes in Outing how Eskimos kill the wary seal:

"Many seals were seen on the fresh made ice, and Eliseyov, my head man, expressed a desire that I take charge of his dog team while he stalked some of them. Seals are extremely shy, and great caution must be practiced in approaching them. The Eskimos use a blind in the form of a miniature sledge, about eighteen inches in length by six in width, with bearskins tacked on the runners. Fore and aft are two upright crocheted sticks, upon which the rifle rests and to which it is lashed. On the front of the sledge a cross-bar sustains two long perpendicular sticks, over which a piece of white cloth is stretched, or when that is not attainable hareskin is substituted. Through a hole in this cloth screen the muzzle of the rifle protrudes.

"Holding his blind before him, he was enabled to walk within 300 or 400 yards of a seal without startling it. Then he dropped on his hands and knees and pushed the little sledge before him. Thus hidden behind the cloth screen, which so blended with the ice as to arouse in the seal no suspicion of danger, he approached within fifty yards before shooting. Seals always lie close to their holes, and it is necessary to hit them in the head or under the shoulder and have the bullet penetrate the heart and kill them instantly; otherwise they will flop into the hole and sink before it is possible to reach them."

Legal Information

A riparian owner is held, in Trullinger vs. Howe (Or.), 97 Pac. 543, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 545, to have no right to store the water of a floatable stream by means of splash dams, and suddenly release it to facilitate the floating of logs, to the injury of lower riparian owners.

Accepting a plea of guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentencing the accused to death, without cautioning him as to the gravity of his admission, or taking evidence as to the circumstances of the crime, is held, in State vs. Johnson, 21 Okla. 40, 96 Pac. 26, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 463, not to be according to the forms of law.

The relation of carrier and passenger is held, in Lockwood vs. Boston Elev. R. Co., 200 Mass., 537, 86 N. E. 934, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 488, to be established when, in obedience to a signal, the motorman stops a street car, and, with the knowledge of the conductor, the intending passenger steps and stands upon the running board, on his way to a seat.

A labor union is held, in Lohse Patent Door Co. vs. Fuelle, 215 Mo. 421, 114 S. W. 997, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 607, to be guilty of an illegal boycott by notifying, in pursuance of a conspiracy to injure the business of one against whom a strike has been declared, customers of such person that its members will not handle material furnished by him, and that any attempt on their part to force them to do so will cause a strike to be called against them.

One Jacob Woodring, addicted first to drink and as a consequence thereof to violence, was sold liquor, whereupon, following his natural bent, he became intoxicated, quarrelsome, vindictive and abusive, and his mental powers became deranged to such an extent that he made an unprovoked and deadly assault upon one Grosjean, who struck him so violently that his death ensued. In Woodring vs. Jacobino, 103 Pacific Reporter, 809, the minor child of decedent sued the seller of the deranging elixir for damages for her father's death. The jury found that appellant had conducted a saloon; that he had sold liquors to Woodring, which intoxicated him, causing him to become involved in the disastrous altercation with Grosjean; that the liquor was purchased from appellant under circumstances which would have led a man of ordinary intelligence to believe intoxication would probably result therefrom; and that respondent had sustained loss in her support and maintenance in the sum of $400. The Washington Supreme Court refused to disturb the judgment of the trial court.

Learning the Elements.

The editor of the Atlanta Constitution, Mr. Clark Howell, tells a good story about a former janitor of the Constitution office, who lost his place through overindulgence in liquor, and who afterward secured a position as an assistant in an automobile garage in that city.

"He had been working around the garage as a handy man for about six months," said Mr. Howell, "and happening to meet him on the street one day, I asked him how he was getting along in the automobile business.

"Fine," said he.

"I suppose you know everything about an automobile now, Tom?" I said to him.

"Yes, sir, Mr. Howell, I know a lot about dem cars, for I's been working under dem and over dem and all around dem ever since I left de Constitution office. But dere is just one thing about dem automobiles dat puzzles me," said Tom.

"What's that?" I asked.

"Well, sir, Mr. Howell, I can't get it into my head how they make 'em go without hitchins a horse to 'em."

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.

"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands and arms. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured, and today he is a fine healthy boy." MRS. INEZ LEWIS, Baring, Maine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all blood diseases. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatals. 100 Doses $1.

This Lawyer Was Young.

Old Lawyer (to young partner)—Did you draw up old Moneybag's will?
Young Partner—Yes, sir, and so tight that all the relatives in the world cannot break it.

Old Lawyer (with some disgust)—The next time there is a will to be drawn up I'll do it myself.—New York Sun.

Unreasonable Woman.

Wife—Now, see 'ere, Jim: If yer don't provide for me better I shall quit—so I warns yer.

Husband—Provide better? Well, I like that. Why, ain't I got yer three good jobs o' work this last month?—London Sketch.

How Did He Know?

An ancient Egyptian moralist, writing to his son, says: "If thou takest a wife, try to make her happier than any of her women friends; she will be doubly bound to thee if the tie is sweet to her—accord her what pleases her—she will appreciate the effort."

Delicacy.

Tubb—Old boy, I want to congratulate you on your speech at the banquet last night.

O'Sudds (after waiting a moment)—I know you do, pard, and you're awfully sorry you can't do it truthfully. I appreciate the effort, just the same. Nasty weather, isn't it?

Pinches All 'Round.

She—My new gown is just lovely; it's a perfect fit!

He—Satisfied on that point, eh?

She—Yes, I know it's a good fit, because it pinches me so—

He—Well, it doesn't pinch you half as much as it does my pocketbook.—Catholic Standard and Times.

All Who Would Enjoy

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aright. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

Why He Quit.

"Why did you throw up your job at old Spotchash's store?"

"Well, to tell the truth, I didn't like his position on the labor question."

"What was his position?"

"Why—the last time I saw him he was sitting in his chair looking sternly at me, and pointing straight to the door."—Chicago Tribune.

Had Nothing on Noah.

Noah was inspecting the animals as they trooped into the ark.

"I don't claim to be a faunal naturalist," he said, "but I'm making T. R.'s Smithsonian Institution collection look sick."

In due time, moreover, he sailed away with the greatest aggregation of living wild animals ever seen in captivity.

Her Playing.

Mrs. McDuff—This paper says that mice are attracted by music, but I don't believe it.

McDuff—Why not?

Mrs. McDuff—Because I never see any mice around when I play the piano.

McDuff—Well, that's no reason for doubting the paper's statement.

Microscope Mechanism.

Mymedice, an ancient carver, was so proficient in microscopic mechanism that he made an ivory ship, with all its decks, masts, yards, rigging and sails, in so small a compass that it might have been hidden under the wing of a fly. He also made a chariot with four wheels and as many harnessed horses, which took up scarcely more room than the ship.
