As Sometimes Happens.
"You'd like to have me give this a notice, I presume," said the literary editor.
"Indeed, I would," answered the author of the book; "the best in the world."
But the conscientious literary editor, after reading it, classified it as one of the worst in the world.
A Matter of Necessity.
"Papa, why don't you close your store on Christmas?"
"Why, child, mine's a cigar store. People have got to have their amusements on Christmas, same as any other day."

Her Indorsement.
"I want to get this check cashed," said the fair young matron, appearing at the window of the paying teller.
"Yes, madam. You must indorse it though," explained the teller.
"Why, my husband sent it to me. He is away on business," she said.
"Yes, madam. Just indorse it—sign it on the back, so we will know and your husband will know we paid it to you."
She went to the desk against the wall, and in a few moments presented the check triumphant, having written on its back:
"Your loving wife, Edith."

Hamline Wizard Oil will knock the spots off a sore throat. It's use makes tonsillitis, quinsy and diphtheria impossible. It is simply great for the relief of all pain, soreness and inflammation.

To Be Sure.
"I see," observed the boarder who was looking over the newspaper, "an item here to the effect that wood pulp is likely to be used soon in the making of soups and plum pudding."
"Well, why not?" said the argumentative boarder. "Nothing is impossible to science. Don't you know that the Saratoga chip of commerce is made from basswood, shaved thin across the grain?"

"Yes," replied the other. "Most of them were personal and somewhat profane."—Washington Star.

Catching On.
"Euphorbia," he groaned, "after all these years of devotion on my part are you going to close the door of hope into my face?"
"Yes, Aigy," she said; "but I'll open it when you—er—ring."
Aigy understood. He brought a suitcase the next time he came.—Chicago Tribune.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good, but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and black-heads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am of land which was formerly a street, continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets." Fred C. A TEXAS PIANIST.
Houston Girl Scores a Great Success in Berlin.

Helena Lewyn, a Texas girl, is one of the latest of the American "Invaders" to make an impress on music-loving Germany. After four years of study in Berlin, supplementing her work since childhood at her home, she made her professional debut and scored a distinct success, which she has accentuated since by her concert. So favorable were the criticisms that she has been offered a number of professional engagements in Europe, which would occupy three years, but she has declined them to accept an invitation from Prof. Damrosch to play with his orchestra in New York at his spring festival in the next April. She has been the pupil of Godowski and has studied composition under Stillman Kelly, an American.

Fortunes of War.
"But, Senator," asked the reporter, "how is to pay the cost of placing the country on a complete war footing and keeping it there?"
"My dear boy," said Senator Lotumun, "it's a tossup between our posterity and the posterity of some European or Asiatic power, and really doesn't interest us. Try one of these imported perfectos."

straightforward.
He—You mustn't believe every beggar who comes to your door. She—But this was no common beggar. He was a sea captain who had lost everything in a shipwreck. He—How do you know he was? She—He told a straightforward story about how his ship went to pieces on the coast of Switzerland.

Amended Version.
Alexander had defeated and captured Forus.
"How do you wish to be treated?" he asked.
"Like a king!" answered Forus, with dignity.
"Good!" exclaimed his conqueror. "I was thinking of using you as a plaster."
For already he was beginning to be stuck on him, as it were.

Does Not Color Hair

Ayer's

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, does not stain or color the hair even to the slightest degree. Gray hair, white hair, blonde hair is not made a shade darker. But it certainly does stop falling hair. No question about that.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Indeed, we believe it will stop every case of falling hair unless there is some very unusual complication, something greatly affecting the general health. Then you should consult your physician. Also ask him about the new Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
