A Carlyle Retort.
An empty headed duke once said to Thomas Carlyle at a dinner:
"The British people, sir, can afford to laugh at theories."
Carlyle, scowling, replied:
"The French nobility of a hundred years ago thought that they could afford to laugh at theorists too. But a man came and wrote a book called 'The Social Contract.' This man was Jean Jacques Rousseau, and his book was a theory and nothing but a theory. The nobles could laugh at his theory, but their skins went to bind the second edition of the book."

Mr. Kajones, who had happened to step into the parlor while looking for a book, was just in time to see somebody slip hastily off somebody else's knee.

"Old chap, where are you going for your vacation?"
"All over the country. In fact, I'm taking it now—reading summer resort literature."
"You should insist," said the doctor, "on your boy's accustoming himself to cold baths."
"I don't have to insist," answered the worried father. "He'll be out skating before the ice is an eighth of an inch thick."—Washington Star.

Military Rats.
An old military dictionary tells us that rats were sometimes used in war for the purpose of firing powder magazines by means of lighted matches tied to their tails. We cannot offhand recall any historical instance of this, but presumably it did occur, seeing that Marshal Vauban laid down special rules for contracting it. Anyhow, the dodge is as old as Samson, who, you may recall, used foxes in a similar way for a somewhat similar purpose.
As to the royal rat catcher, we may add that he had a special official livery. According to Pennant's "British Zoology," it consisted of a scarlet costume, embroidered with yellow worsted, in which were figures of mice destroying wheat sheaves. By the way, rats were not the only animals honored with a special catcher. Leicester, for instance, used to pay a yearly salary of £1 15s 6d to its municipal mole catcher.—London Standard.

How Would You Appreciate $1518 in One Year on an Investment of $325?

If it is possible to frame up an absolutely safe, sane and conservative investment, and at the same time give the investor big returns on his money, we have found it—read the following and judge for yourself.

No chance to lose, and you cannot help making a big profit. Here is our story:	6036 acres at $50 per acre	$301,800	SUBSCRIPTIONS TO PURCHASING SYNDICATE.
Last week a client of ours read our advertisement for lands for colonization purposes. He thought he had what we wanted and came to see us. He brought with him a description of 6036 acres. It reads as follows:	Subdivided into 20 and 40-acre tracts at $100 per acre	$603,600
Situated in a level valley, 40 miles wide and 90 miles long, completely fenced, 640 acres under plow, 3500 in hay and 1896 acres virgin soil, completely equipped for irrigation, all main ditches completed and lateral ditches sufficient to irrigate every acre except the virgin land, and water can be put on every 40 of the virgin land for a cost not exceeding $25 each 40. The owner has a perpetual and exclusive water right; sufficient supply of water to irrigate the entire 6036 acres, and a surplus sufficient to supply another tract equally as large.	Gross profit of	$301,800	With subscription
The property is ready for subdivision.	Cost in commissions, etc., to market this land, not less than	$150,000	June 10, 1910
The proposition looked so good to us that we took a 30 days option at $50 per acre, including water rights.	Making net profit of	$151,800	Sept. 10, 1910
OUR PROPOSITION.	This land can be purchased on the following terms:		March 16, 1911
We propose to form a syndicate to buy this land, and immediately thereafter to put it on the market.	March 16, 1910	$32,500	March 16, 1912
	June 10, 1910	29,300	March 16, 1913
	Sept. 10, 1910	20,000	March 16, 1914
	March 16, 1911	30,000	March 16, 1915
	March 16, 1912	30,000	March 16, 1916
	March 16, 1913	30,000	March 16, 1917
	March 16, 1914	30,000	March 16, 1918
	March 16, 1915	30,000	Total
	March 16, 1916	30,000	$3,018
	March 16, 1917	30,000
	March 16, 1918	10,000
	Total	$301,800

IT IS NOW PROPOSED
To organize a Purchasing Syndicate with capital stock of $301,800. This capital stock to be represented by 100 units of the par value of $3,018; that the Union Bank & Trust Co. shall have the management of the syndicate, cause the title of the property to be placed in the name of the Union Bank & Trust Company as trustee, and at once take the necessary steps to subdivide the land into tracts of 40 acres each; to sell the 40-acre tracts at $4,000 each, payable $800 down, $800 in one year, $800 in two years, $800 in three years, and $800 in four years.

Respectfully submitted,
