John Moore, the Buick auto man, spent Wednesday in Madras.
Mrs. G. R. Moorhead returned home Tuesday morning from a visit at Arlington and Antelope.
Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Marten of LaGrande are visiting at the home of Mrs. Marten's father, Charles Ortpan on Agency Plains.
A social dance will be given at Sanford's Hall next Wednesday evening June 15, for the benefit of the Madras baseball club. Everyone invited.
James Carthon, formerly employed at the Hatten blacksmith shop in Shaniko, a horse shoer by trade, is now employed at Gray & Son's shop.
W. H. Hess has accepted a permanent position with the Cornett Stage and Stable Co., as third agent at Madras, and is now in charge of the local office.
A. Segal is expected home soon from a ten day trip to Spokane where he visited his mother. He returned by way of Portland to see some of the Rose Show festivities.
James Maddron is building a new blacksmith shop near Hood & Stantons livery barn and will open the same in a few days for general blacksmithing and horseshoeing.
A second-story porch has been constructed across the front of the Central Oregon Mercantile's company store building, making a marked improvement in the appearance of that establishment.
J. W. Bones who lives on the Ed Kutcher place east of Madras is in town today. He says the ranchers in his neighborhood are making war on the injurious weeds in the fields there at present.
Issac Homer, a railroad laborer, aged about 50 years died in this city last Saturday June 4th, from putrid bronchitis and pulmonary ailments. The remains were buried in Madras Cemetery Sunday evening.
Mrs. Billy Hannon and little sons, Huston and Wallace, accompanied by her brother Ray L. Jackson, left yesterday morning for The Dalles where they will spend a week or so visiting friends and relatives.
Loveland's drilling outfit this week sunk a well on D. W. Barnett's new residence property on south Main street. The drill went down 71 feet, when a strong flow was struck and the water raised 40 feet deep in the well.
Roth E. Clark who for the past three weeks has been laid up with a sprained ankle caused by a horse throwing itself which he had been breaking to ride, was in town this morning, it being the first time he has been out since he was hurt.
Mayor H. W. Turner writes from Portland that he has been looking over suitable fire fighting apparatus for the present needs of Madras. One chemical extinguisher which seems to him to meet the requirements here could be purchased for $450.
City Marshal Culp has had a dog house built for the impounding of stray dogs. It's away down on "yan" side of the Madras Addition next to Willow Creek. Better pay your dog tax now, or the marshal will get him. The marshal is required to keep stray dogs 48 hours before killing them.
A baseball game between teams from the Oregon Trunk Line forces and the Madras Club is announced for next Sunday afternoon on the local diamond. The Pioneer has been announcing games that do not materialize so much lately that we do not guarantee this game to come off, although that is the plan n.w.
Claude C. Covey, superintendent of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation, arrived home from an official trip to Washington, D. C., yesterday. He was met at Madras by Dr. C. J. Laffin, the agency physician. Mr. Covey's visit to the head offices of the Bureau of Indian Affairs was in connection with a grievance which the Indians desired to lay before the Department regarding the repeated encroachments upon the Indian reserve by contracting the boundaries from time to time. He was accompanied by several of the most influential Indians on the reservation.

Van Tassel Land Co.
Culver, Oregon, June 1, 1910

Van Tassel Land Company, Madras, Oregon,
Gentlemen:—In reply to your favor of recent date, I can only give you my experience and opinion. I have grown alfalfa on my farm near Culver 16 years without irrigation or reseeded. The yield per acre has been from 3 to 3½ tons. For the past five years I have cultivated heavily in the spring with a disc harrow, under which treatment the stand is improving. I have no doubt but that the same may be profitably grown as a seed crop if planted in drill rows and cultivated. Yours very truly, G. SPRINGER.
On my dryer ground where I cut only once I frequently have a fine quality and good yield of seed, but I have never grown seed for the market.—G. S.
