the W. C. T. U. and are paid for at advertising rates.
A Federal License No Protection to The Bootlegger
A license issued by the Federal government, being merely a form of taxation, does not authorize the holder to sell liquor without a license required by the state laws.—Combast v. Commonwealth, 125 S. W. (Kentucky) 1062, March 4, 1910.
The curse of strong drink brings mourning instead of rejoicing; tears instead of laughter; rags instead of clothing; disease instead of health; insanity instead of strong mind; crime instead of law and order; death instead of life.—Robert B. Glenn, ex-Governor North Carolina.
The most dangerous anarchy today is the anarchy of the saloon! It is shrewd, devilish and of infinite resource. It tramples on all law that does not favor it, and the ordinary effects of the business are such that no man with any large measure of human sympathy can long engage in it.
When ordinary law-breaking will not serve, the saloon does not hesitate at extraordinary outlawry.
All this has been shown times without number in the past. But worse things are to come. As the moral sense of an aroused people puts more and more restrictions on the saloon, its friends and servants will become more than ever desperate. They will spend money without measure. They will buy every purchasable voice and vote.
They will use with more frequency and less restraint the weapons of the fire-bug and the assassin.
But they will fail. The saloon can not live without defying the law, and the people of these United States have made up their minds that unless it keeps the law it must die.
No anarchy can be tolerated on this soil. Whether it takes form in a man or in an institution, the spirit of anarchy cannot live in this free air.
And that fact spells doom for the saloon.

CULVER

The Junction City of the Deschutes

The Railroad Town of Central Oregon

Has a Remarkable History—A Great Future

Placed upon the market but one month ago, yet the interest shown by the general public the sale of lots and especially the railroad development in and for Culver has made it imperative that the townsites owners, in order to protect their own interests must almost immediately advance the price of lots. We believe that sufficient time has already been allowed those who were anxious to secure lots at first cost, however, these prices will be held open for a short time longer and if you wish to embrace this opportunity to secure a choice selection at introductory prices we urge you to lose no time.

What Is Doing at Culver?

The machinery is on the ground and work begun on the well which is to supply water for townsite purposes until the development of the town will warrant the installing of a gravity system of waterworks.
The new $3500 hotel is nearing completion and shortly will be ready to offer the traveling public good, neat, clean service.
Practical tests of available material are being made preliminary to the establishment of a brick manufacturing plant in Culver.
The Post Office Department has issued orders for the old Culver post office to be moved to the new town on the railroad.
As soon as material can be secured for the purpose a number of business buildings are to be erected in Culver for the housing of various industrial enterprises.
That Culver is the railroad town of the Deschutes Valley is beyond question now. The new railroad plat of Culver Junction shows four tracks through the town—one main line, two long sidings, and an industrial track facing the warehouse sites, which are laid out by the railroad company and extend from the junction point entirely through the townsite.
Besides being the junction of the Hill and Harriman main lines Culver will also be the junction of the branch road which will be built to Prineville at no remote period. We are not prepared to state if this road will be an electric line built by Prineville capital and maintained by the power company which owns the power site west of Culver in Crooked river, or if Harriman interests will extend the Deschutes road from Culver Junction to Prineville, or yet if L. W. Hill has designs on this splendid route to Prineville, but that this line will surely be built we are reasonably certain.
In the meantime Culver is the distributing point for Prineville and other towns of less importance and will be the terminus of the main line for freight and passenger traffic for several months until the bridge is completed over Crooked river.
Call upon O. C. Young at our Culver office, Harmon Cook at our Laidlaw office or Henderson Investment Company at Prineville and see the official Oregon Trunk Railroad Plat of Culver showing trackage and warehouse sites.
