J. E. Dean, formerly of Haystack, has been residing in Portland, in Madras the first of the week. He plans to remain here this winter.

Services will be held at the M. E. church next Sunday, Aug. 28, this being the service of the Conference Year. cordially invited to attend. G. R. Lead, pastor.

Frankie Barnes, a teacher in the school, who has been visiting her home of her uncle, George Osborn, returned through town Wednesday on her return to the city.

Clare Thomas, resident engineer of the Deschutes Railroad, has finished his work here and left Wednesday for Grass Lake. Other members of the engineering crew departed last Saturday.

Mr. Serier, who homesteaded a quarter section on Agency Plains and proved it several years ago, arrived here Tuesday from Shawano, Wisconsin. He expects to spend a week or two here looking after his property.

Mr. Farris, representing the Ajax Engine Company of New York, arrived in Madras accompanied by his wife. Farris is trying to interest the city in the purchase of another engine.

Engineer H. E. Brandon of the Deschutes Railroad today said that within a few months all of the grading and tunneling on the Deschutes road will have been completed and ready for tracklaying. The Dalles Chronicle.

and Mrs. Gus Loveland, John Bell and Charley Egles are home from their hunting and fishing trip in the mountains. They caught plenty of deer and found an abundance of berries. They meant to kill and eat the woods.

Pugham and wife of Opal Prairie returned to leave the last of the week for their old home at Lincoln, Ark. Pugham has not seen some of his sisters for 23 years. They returned by way of California, traveling by from Portland, and will probably stay for three months or longer.

Mr. Forest and family will start this week for their Madras ranch where they will spend the winter. They returned to the Crooked River ranch to Lazen & Co. Their sons, Earl and Mark, will each drive an auto overland a stop of several days will be made at Crater Lake.—Crook County Recorder J. H. Jackson left Tuesday for Portland, where with others, he is present to Senator Chamberlain in connection with the proposed plan of irrigation in the district which are under consideration by Rounds & Rogers. Mr. Jackson has taken a very favorable interest in the project and no man is better qualified to explain the situation.

Velva Sanford, the three year old daughter of A. C. Sanford, who went to Portland with the family, wandered out into the streets and got lost the other day. She was lost for three hours and the neighborhood and a number of men joined in the search. The home is on East 8th street, and she was finally found on East 16th.

McCallister, who formerly owned the Orchard, makes frequent trips to his ranch now since he has moved to live on his Atlanta ranch near Prineville and when he gets to harvest some delicious peaches or other fruit, he hops into a wagon and spins down to the orchard. He doesn't stop at the head of the grade but drives his machine up and down the grade without much concern.

BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

Mike Mayfield, the cattleman from Upper Crooked River, was here Tuesday.

Lewis C. Glover and his mother, of Sisters, were here yesterday, buying supplies.

Mrs. L. J. Rising of Warm-spring was in the city several days this week, having dental work done.

Ora VanTassel and family have gone to Crane Prairie on the upper Deschutes for a camping trip.

G. V. Stanton was summoned to Sisters today on account of the serious illness of his wife, who is camping out there.

Louis Falkenhagen went to Portland yesterday on a vacation trip. He will also visit other points in the Willamette Valley.

R. W. Pattengill, representing the R. G. Dun & Co. commercial agency of Portland, was in Madras this week making financial ratings of local people.

Miss Bertha Horney is dangerously ill with typhoid at her home five miles southwest of town. Dr. Belnap was called from Prineville today to consult with Dr. Long.

M. W. Bennett arrived home Sunday from Iowa, where he was called by the dangerous illness of his mother. The lady is somewhat improved but there is not much hope of her recovery.

H. O. Lively, of the firm of McCargar, Bates & Lively of Portland, was in Madras Saturday. His company holds considerable land in this part of the state and he was here looking into general conditions.

T. M. Baldwin and wife, Miss Fay Baldwin and M. E. Brink and wife, of Prineville, visited at the Cove Orchard last Sunday. They rode down from the county seat by auto to the top of the hill and finished the trip on foot.

W. F. Magill was up from Wamic for a few days the latter part of the week. Mr. Magill has one threshing outfit in operation and he expects to have another in Shanks soon. He will bring it in and make a run on Agency Plains this fall.

Al. Parkey was in Monday from his home on Agency Plains where he has been assisting in running the combined harvester of H. Links. He says grain has turned out remarkably well this year. Al. thinks the combine is the right way to harvest the grain.

J. A. Coulter of Agency Plains announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for sheriff of Crook county. Mr. Coulter will make the campaign upon the issue of enforcing the local option laws, and has the endorsement of the Law and Order League forces.

Rev. and Mrs. G. R. Moorhead started Monday on a trip to Redmond, Bend and Laidlaw by private conveyance. The prohibition people of this part of the county expect to publish a four-column, four page weekly paper, the first issue to be put out early in September, and Mr. Moorhead will solicit support for this enterprise while on this trip. The paper will be printed in Portland and its mission will be, of course, to fight for prohibition.

L. F. Rice and family returned home from Portland last week, where they went to visit friends and at the same time have an operation performed upon one of their little daughters, Dorothy, for adenoid growth in the nose. The operation was entirely successful and the little girl is getting along splendidly. Mr. Rice and his family expect to go to the Squaw-Creek irrigated district in a short time to live on the land the recently filed on there.

The hot weather is bringing on the fruit very rapidly at Wm. Boegli's Cove Orchard. There are tons of peaches ripe there now and the help about the place is rushed to handle them. Watermelons, too, are making some business. Mr. Boegli says he is thinking of becoming a Seventh Day Adventist, so as to get a little rest. On Sunday the people flock down to picnic and fish and buy fruit so that Sunday is his busiest day. It's a mighty nice place to spend a day or to camp over night.

Through its general immigration department, the Great Northern Railroad has offered to post prizes consisting in each instance of two cups and 100 first and 100 second prize ribbons for five agricultural fairs to be held in Oregon this year. The offer has been made to the officials of the State Fair at Salem and managers of the fairs at Prineville, Burns, Lakeview and Eugene. For the State Fair the conditions imposed are that the two silver cups, which will be worth at least $50 each, shall go to the best collection of wheat, grasses, oats and vegetables exhibited by a chamber of commerce, Commercial Club or other society of not less than 12 members. The conditions governing the awards of the cups at the other four fairs are left largely to the fair managements.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Items under this heading are furnished by the W. C. T. U. and are paid for at advertising rates.

Emil Seidel, the Socialist mayor of Milwaukee, is making a remarkably fine record. We quote from the New York Evening Post: "As a German and a Socialist, he was expected to interpret the laws 'liberally.' Yet under his control the total number of saloons has been cut down considerably by the refusal of licenses to a long list of places which have been notoriously allowed to break the excise regulations with impunity in the past. Last week a hundred of these 'protected' places closed their doors in despair. Mayor Seidel is strictly enforcing the liquor laws in the restricted districts, a feat which was supposed to be impossible. He has just now made it clear that the Johnson-Jeffries fight pictures will not be tolerated in Milwaukee. In many ways he has bettered conditions in his city. Yet his methods are far from militant. 'I don't like to issue orders,' he declares, 'I prefer to ask for co-operation. And I think that will generally accomplish the desired results.' If this be socialism, make the most of it!"

DO SALOONS HELP A TOWN?
They say saloons help a town. Did you ever see a real estate man put in his circular something like this: "This town has two smelters, two brick factories, gas and electric plants, a Carnegie library, Y. M. C. A., fourteen churches and ten saloons?" If saloons draw people to a town, why do not the towns advertise the saloons more?—Canon City (Colorado) Record.

All the big saloons and cafes require their bartenders and other employees to take the pledge against intoxicants. The reason? Because tipping bartenders loose money and "hurt the business." What about hurting the other fellow's business?

ALL APPLICANTS PASS EXAMINATIONS
Of the 18 teachers who took examinations for county papers last week all were successful in passing. The highest grade was made by Miss Thursday Kent of Culver, who received 100 credits in each of six studies, and made a final average of 98 and 2-11 per cent. Her lowest grade was in spelling which was 96 per cent. Superintendent Ford says that this was the hardest in spelling he ever saw as there were 100 test words given with no options.

Other high grades were won by Miss Theresa Cassidy, Mrs. Ada Strotts, Miss Flossy Berry, Miss Boyd, Miss Mary Davies.

Mr. Ford says that while the supply of teachers is short, they are more plentiful than last year, and if all come from other places who have promised, the schools will all be supplied.—Prineville Journal.
