CHANGE IN FORM OF P. O. MONEY ORDERS

Careless and forgetful people who patronize the money order department of the postoffices will be compelled to reform their habits after September 1. On that date a new form of money order and a changed system of recording them will be established. Receipts will continue to be issued, but if the customer loses the stub and forgets the number or date upon which it was issued there will be no way by which the order may be traced. The books of record will show only the number of the money order, its date and the amount for which it was issued.

Paying offices will have a record of the order if it has been paid, otherwise they will know nothing of it.

The point is to keep the receipts until all danger of the loss or miscarriage of the money order has passed.

The new form does away with the duplicate system, which was operated by use of a carbon sheet. It will consist of a long sheet of paper upon which there are apparently two money orders exactly alike and a receipt stub. The purchaser is expected to detach the stub and fill in such data on the back as may be of value. The remaining two forms are placed in the letter of transmission. The person receiving them carries both forms to the postoffice upon which it is drawn, and the paying postmaster detaches one form to send to Washington with his reports and files the other in his office for future reference.
