For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

How about matrimony?

Remedies for Seasickness.
Among curious remedies for sea-sickness is that which is popular among the mariners in the Levant—the daily swallowing of iron rust, which is obtained by scraping it off the anchor or anchor chain. But this is only part of the necessary treatment, for a small pouch containing roasted salt and flowers of thyme must be tied upon the abdomen as firmly as can be borne—this being considered to counteract the effects of the internal disturbance caused by the rolling of the vessel.

Loss of Appetite
Is loss of vitality, vigor or tone, and is often a forerunner of prostrating disease.
It is serious and especially so to people that must keep up and doing or get behindhand.
The best medicine to take for it is "That thermometer I bought is a fraud. It hasn't brought on an ex-wrong idea, Peleg. A thermometer won't act like a lightning rod."

Betty and the Kitten.
Betty is only four, and often in her excitement she makes very odd remarks. The other day she cried out:
"Oh, mother, there's a dear mauline kitten all curled up in the corner!"

WHY THEY CHANGED SUBJECT
Discussion Over Sweet Little Honeysuckle-Covered Cottage Is Dropped Abruptly.

"Yes," said he, "life is so lonely."
"It is lonely sometimes," she answered.
"Wouldn't it be sweet to have a little cottage covered with ivy and honeysuckle and roses?"
"Oh, wouldn't it?"
"And when a fellow comes home tired from business to have a nice little wife to meet him at the door with a kiss?"
"Ye-ee-ee!"
"And then the winter nights, the blazing fire in the cosy parlor, and you—I mean a wife—at the piano singing in the gloaming. It would be lovely."
"I think it would be sweet!"
"And then—"
At this point a careworn woman came round the corner with a pair of twins in a perambulator. A dead silence fell upon the pair; the air—Then they changed the subject.

Studies of the Vernacular.
"Sayiz, hoozat?" said the girl at the notion counter.
"Hoozat?" queried the girl at the glove counter.
"Jessa ziffew diddeno!"
"Lookeermin, wotcha mean?"
"Fewdernt knowiz, wotchablushin-bout!"
"Aintablushin!"
"Tartoo!"
"Minjones yunobetter!"
"Swat yar!"
"Hoojoo mean, anyhow?"
"Fellerspoke wennyass choorcounter."
"Diddunee anyfeller."
"Diddunteerim, either, didja?"
"Coursenot."
"Awkumoff!"
"Sayookids," interrupted the floor-walker, "quitcheerchinner I'll reproch!"

Caesar's Lament.
The wild beasts gnashed their teeth and roared like a circus callopie; the gladiators shouted hoarsely; the arena was knee-deep with gore.
In the amphitheater the pleasure-seeking populace clamored tumultuously.
"More blood! More death!" they yelled ferociously.
Great Caesar in his private box heard their cry and sighed.
"Would that I might grant their prayer," he muttered. "If only—" and imploringly he raised his eyes heavenward—"I could pull off an automobile cup race!"
Great Caesar wept.
For with all his boasted power he was unable to hasten the flight of time.

AN IMPORTANT CONSIDERATION.

Caroline—So you do not believe in early marriage? You think a man ought to have made his way first, I suppose.
Hobart—To tell the truth, what weighs chiefly with me is that the later one marries the less time one has to outlive one's illusions.
Reason for Ajax's Madness.
Ajax had defied the lightning. "However, there's very little in it for me with nobody wanting the picture rights," he sighed discontentedly.
It was by such advanced ideas, though he held them but vaguely, that he at length got himself considered mad.—Puck.

Charitable.
"I'd have you know, sir," snorted the loud-voiced individual, "that I'm a self-made man."
"Oh, very well," retorted the other, calmly, "I'll accept your apology."

Costly Articles.
The most costly book in the world is a Hebrew Bible, owned by the German government, which a few years ago refused the Pope's offer of $125, 000 for it. The most costly medicine a few years ago was metallic gallium, which sold for $150,000 a pound; but radium is now the priceless gem of the mineral world, selling for more than that price an ounce.

Human Life as National Resource.
The gradual lowering of the death rate is one of the great achievements of science and civilization. Conservation of life is the most important of the many current projects for conserving national resources. But human life is still held far too cheap and methods of checking waste are still more or less rudimentary.

Anxious Father's Advertisement.
A Frenchman's advertisement, in a Boston paper, ran in the following singular strain: "Lost, last evening; a child about five years old; whoever will return him to his home, in Fore street, shall be handsomely rewarded by his afflicted father, Jean Baptiste, who likewise deals in French brandy."
—From a London Newspaper, 1807.

Bulls Haul Street Cars.
Four miles of street railway and some bulls are making a rich man out of a resident of Daet, in the Philippines. The little railroad runs from Daet to the port, and has no lack of passengers or of freight traffic. The cars are of the small street railway type, and they make the four miles uphill from the port to Daet in twenty-eight minutes, although the bulls who draw the cars do not exert themselves unduly.

"you was wrong when you said that Mr. B Jones wouldn't have time to talk to me. Why, he hadn't read that letter of interfection you gave me half through before he told me to call a-gain. Yes, sir, he seemed to want me to come and see him real often.

invited me to call again at least six times. And I'll bet I wasn't there more'n an hour!"

Strange Hobby.
William James, probate court deputy, tells of a peat extraordinary that comes about that office. She is a woman, a middle-aged, heavy jawed person, who comes around shortly after she has read in the paper of the death of a prominent man. And she comes because she wants to read the dead man's will as soon as it is pro-bated. She has no hopes of receiving a bequest in any of the wills. She just likes to look them over. Reading wills is her hobby.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Liberia.
Liberia, the West African negro republic, was founded mainly through the efforts of American quakers, organized under the title of the Pennsylvania Colonist society. The chief bar to the development of Liberia is a law by which white men are not allowed to hold property in the country. Capital has, therefore, gone elsewhere and Liberia possesses none of the resources of modern civilization.

keep the bowels in good condition.
They are very nice to eat."

REPEATING RIFLE

We are just as proud of the REMINGTON .22 Repeaters as we are of the Remington Big Game high power rifles—for just as good reasons. No other make of the .22 class is built to as high a standard.

The features that place the REMINGTON .22 in a class by itself are the real big REMINGTON features—Hammerless and Solid Breech. You clean the barrel from the breech—not forcing the dirt back into the working parts as in other .22's, insuring life-time usefulness and maintaining constant shooting condition.

There is perhaps a greater difference between the REMINGTON and other .22 Re-peaters than is to be found between rifles of any other class.

A REAL RIFLE—the REMINGTON .22 Repeater. Shoots without adjustment. .22 short, .22 long or .22 long rifle cartridges.
