the facts in regard to the manner in which the election was carried on.

The parties to the proceedings were represented by E. Bergland, for Councilman Cook, and G. L. Barner for Prineville, for Mr. Stanton. Several witnesses were called and sworn to show different points of the election law that had not been properly complied with, and to carry out plaintiff Cook's contentions, which were as follows:

1. "That I believe and have been informed, that I received a larger number of legal votes at the last city election, for the office of Councilman or Alderman, and that I received a majority of the legal votes for the office above mentioned.

2. That the said City election, held December 6, 1910, as above stated, was an illegal election, and that, as I have been informed and believe, persons voted at said City election of Madras, Oregon, who were not legally entitled to vote at said City election."

After several witnesses had been examined by the attorneys, and the attention of the Council was called to the fact that the election board had failed to comply with the requirements as to the marking of the ballots of the persons who had sworn in their votes, so that they could be identified, and also failing to mark the name on the poll books, of these persons, a motion was made by Attorney Bergland for a dismissal of the case and that the council declare the election null and void on account of irregularities perpetrated at the election held December 6, 1910. Counsel for Mr. Stanton objected to this motion but was overruled by the city council and the motion carried by roll call vote.

In view of the condition of the affairs and the opinion of the attorneys it is thought at this time that it will be impossible for the Council to call a new election, as the charter under which the City of Madras is incorporated, specifies that the regular election shall be held on the date above mentioned, or to call a special election, which would be necessary only in case of the resignation of the members of the Council, and that the present officers will hold their positions until the next regular election to be held in December, 1911.

New Townsite Being Platted

Another new townsite is being surveyed and platted in northern Crook County, being located on the land owned by Ora VanTassel, just below the Campbell place on the Deschutes River. Mr. VanTassel returned from Portland Sunday where he has been making arrangements for the preliminary work, and other matters in connection with the new townsite, which will be called "Vanora." The surveying is under the supervision of Engineer Scott L. Gordon.

MRS. LULU JENKINS DIES

Word has just been received here that Lulu, the wife of Alvin E. Jenkins died at her home at Sacramento, Cal., December 12th.

A telegram was sent to her brother about that date, which was not received by him for some time owing to his being away from home at the time, the message lay in the office until his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins were former residents of this section, about two years since removing to California, for the benefit of Mr. Jenkins' health.

The deceased is a daughter of W. S. Hale of the Haystack country, and besides her father leaves a husband, three children, one sister and three brothers, Oria, the only one living in this county.

R. A. Merchant and family of the Culver country were in the city today doing Christmas shopping.

The Privilege of His Rank. In the early days of the Philippine insurrection Captain M.'s company had been for some time garrisoning a small town in Mindanao, where the social life consisted mainly of evading the festive bolo knife wielded by the little brown brother. Therefore he seized upon the occasion of his birthday to vary the monotony by brewing a punch and invited his two lieutenants to assist in its consumption. At a late hour the party broke up, and after some maneuvering Captain M. piloted his junior subaltern to his room, where he found the first lieutenant peacefully sleeping on the floor beneath his bunk. Shaking him violently, he roused him at last and said:

"I GET LOWER ONE."

"Get up into your bed!" The senior subaltern shook his head, looked very grave and answered indignantly:

"No, sir; no, sir. You let shecond lieutenant take upper berth. I'm a first lieutenant, and I get lower one." And he peacefully turned his face to the wall again.—Lippincott's.

Knocking. A word and a lift for your fellow Is better than knocking his play, And if you can't speak to him kindly Be square and have nothing to say.

A dollar or two to a creature Far down in the depths of despair Is better than knocking on morals And preaching a lot of hot air.

A hope for the glory of heaven Is better than doubting the plan Or knocking the plea of salvation Established for God given man. —J. A. Joyce.
