Council Acquits the City Marshal

A meeting of inquiry was held by the Madras City Council Tuesday evening to conduct an investigation of the complaint filed against City Marshal F. M. Loveland for striking and beating A. J. Weston over the head Jan. 4. The complaint follows:

"That F. M. Loveland, City Marshal of Madras, said county and state, then and there being, did exceed his authority as such City Marshal by striking and beating about the head and face of one A. J. Weston with a policeman's club and thereby exceeded his authority and conducted himself in a manner unbecoming an officer of the City.

The prosecution was conducted by J. H. Parkley and the defense was represented by E. Bergland.

A number of witnesses both for the investigation and defense were examined and upon conclusion of the testimony Councilman Tucker moved, seconded by Councilman Gray, that the matter under inquiry be decided by ballot; the motion carried. By ballot the council unanimously acquitted City Marshal Loveland.

Motion was made and seconded that F. M. Loveland be reinstated as City Marshal; motion carried.

Motion was made and seconded that a report and findings of the inquiry be published in the Madras Pioneer. Motion carried. Council adjourned.

Central Oregon's Ideal Climate

The Madras country would be an ideal winter resort for the people in the eastern and central western states who are experiencing extreme cold weather and getting an unlimited amount of snow this winter.

It is all different here. So far this fall and winter, the weather has been all that a person could desire. No extreme cold or heavy snow, or unusual rainfall.

A slight fall of snow came in November, but did not remain on the ground but a day or so. While the nights are chilly, and generally freezing ice about an inch thick, the days are warm and balmy, and no where can a better climate be found than right here in this section of Oregon.

When the eastern people realize what a glorious climate we have here they will get a quick move on themselves to reach this section. People from the east who have been here on a visit this winter have been loud in their praise of our mild winter climate, and instead of finding the Madras District a cold, barren section in the winter time have found it in the garden spot of the coast.

New Officers Are Installed

The Madras City Council met in regular session Tuesday evening and the new officers elected at the city election Dec. 6, took the oath of office, except F. M. Loveland, elected as city Marshal who refused to qualify. J. W. Robinson was elected by the council to fill the office of city marshal.

The council instructed the city marshal to notify all saloon keepers to close their places of business at 12 o'clock Saturday night and remain closed until 12 o'clock Sunday night.

An ordinance licensing and regulating wholesale liquor dealers was passed by the council, the license being fixed at $250 per annum.

On account of so much other business the application of the Lamonta Telephone Co. to run a telephone line into the city was laid over until the next meeting.

The matter of a new charter was taken up and it was moved and seconded that the Mayor appoint a committee to draft a city charter. C. E. Roush, A. W. Culp and G. V. Stanton were named as such committee.

A complaint by A. J. Weston against F. M. Loveland, after consideration, was laid upon the table by a vote of 4 to 2. Council adjourned.

STEBBINS-HOLDSHIP.

Tuesday, December 27, 1910, a quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holdship of Collingswood, Washington, when their daughter, Eva F., was united in marriage to Mr. W. J. Stebbins of Madras, Oregon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. R. Hagger.

The bride was attired in a very becoming gown of duchess satin and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins will make their home upon the farm of the groom near this city.

Nicholas Monner of north Agency Plains was in the city today and made application for final proof.
