

Roots Harks Herbs

Have great medicinal power, are very efficacious, for their highest efficiency, for their enriching the blood, and for their combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla...
Wearing of the Hood. England the hood was not first worn until the early part of the 17th century. The "great velvet" worn by the mayor of London in 1632, is a record of the kind of hood worn by the nobles and even by the gentry in that early day.

Refreshing Disinfectant. This is a refreshing disinfectant for sick room or any room where an unpleasant odor pervades. Add some fresh ground coffee to some fresh ground coffee in a tumbler and in the center place a piece of camphor gum, which with a match. As the gum burns, the coffee to consume with it, the perfume is pleasant and being far superior to pasted disinfectants.

A Use for Salt Bags. There is a use for the little cotton bags which salt comes in. I wash them very carefully to get the letters, then put them away for use. When I take poultry, as chickens, ducks, geese, I make some kinds of dressings, stuff one of these bags full, sew it up, and bake it in the oven. It makes a roll of salt which will cure the most stubborn life.

Don't Tell Everything. Don't tell everything, even to a friend. When you undertake great work, do it in but few. Never love a man; he will not reveal you. Do not share what he has to do. To go good to the base is to go bad. The mean are the most common. One silly conceals all his secrets. Comrades in feasts are plentiful; not in serious matters.

Sheep Flocks Diminishing. Sheep need such extensive range to graze on that it is difficult to get enough to eat. Flocks are uniformly diminishing in all countries, even in Argentina, where sheep farming was believed to be the best source of wealth. The immense area of pasture is out of proportion to the available for tilling it can sheep at a profit.

Knowledge. Knowledge is indeed that which gives the virtue, truly and essentially, and above another. It finds the half of the human soul. It is being pleasant to us, fills the mind with entertaining views, and adds to it a perpetual series of new ideas. It gives ease to solitude and readiness to retirement.—Ad.

Making Babies Gradate. The portrait of Indian mothers and a beautiful baby basket are featured. The general design depends on the customs and traditions of the race and the materials used are determined by the natural resources of the region inhabited; but the ornamentation is dictated by the imagination of the artist.

Fabric from Woins. Woins are manufactured from the fiber of a filamentous plant from the Siberian mines which is so durable a nature that it is practically indestructible. The material is soft to the touch and pliable in the extreme. It is applied only to be placed in the hands of the absolutely clean.

Long as the Steam. The state of Sao Paulo, in the Republic of Brazil, says L'Etiole du Sud, has a river, published in Rio de Janeiro, which carries one of the most beautiful names of any stream in the world. The name is of Indian origin and is "Tamanduaety," and is derived without saving anything from the "River of the Great Ta-

The Best Way. You resist the temptation to go your way, don't go too far and meet your way. Some people have a disposition that they are sure. The best way is the way—let people alone as long as possible.—Atchison Globe.

Are Like Chestnuts. Christians are like chestnuts. Chestnut nuts, but inclosed in prickly burrs, which need various instruments and her grip of nature and the kernel is disclosed.

WHERE HE GOT INSPIRATION

Former District Attorney Sullivan Tells Eloquent Story of Battle as Fought at Warren.

Former District Attorney John J. Sullivan was the principal speaker at a reunion of old soldiers a few years ago. He had all of his wonderful command of pathos and eloquence in full working order that day, and as he concluded his oration tears glistened in the eyes of many of the veterans, says the Cleveland Leader. One of the old boys in blue came up to Mr. Sullivan, pressed his hand and said: "Your description of the scenes on the field of carnage during a fight was beautiful. You must have been in the thick of a battle some time. Where did you have your most thrilling experience?"

"At Warren," replied Colonel Sullivan. "At Warren? Why, I never knew there was any fighting there." "Probably not," replied Colonel Sullivan, "but if you had been behind the bat for Warren the day we beat Youngtown 1 to 0 you would have known you were in a fight and a mighty warm one, too," and the colonel extended his gnarled and twisted fingers to prove his assertion.

TOLD IN CONFIDENCE.

Caller—The man who wrote that poem you printed yesterday didn't know what he was writing about.
Editor—Of course not. Otherwise it wouldn't have been written.

On the Move.

Cityman—We talk of "journeymen carpenters" and "journeyman bricklayers" and all that; I suppose after a while we'll begin to speak of "journeymen."
Suburb—It wouldn't surprise me. It certainly should be proper to speak of "journeymen cooks." They merely journey from place to place.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Failed to See the Connection. "Tommy, what was the preacher's text this morning?"

"He didn't have any regular text. He said his sermon would be on the subject, 'Charity Beggins at Home,' and he didn't say a word about her. All he talked about was lovin' your neighbor an' doin' good."

Much Difference.

"One essential difference in our system and the British style, is clearly not one of words."
"What do you mean?"
"Here we are content to be ruled by our fellows, while over there, they are growling about being governed by their peers."

The Mean Thing!

Ashley—"When I was a justice of the peace I was the cause of making several poor fellows serve life terms at hard labor."
Seymour—"I didn't know justices of the peace had that power."
Ashley—"Oh, yes; the law permits 'em to marry people."

No Cause to Complain.

"Father says you really must not stay here later than 11 o'clock, after this."
"Pshaw! Why should he care? He owns stock in the electric light company, and probably gets reduced rates."

The Only Joy There Was In It. He—Let us keep our engagement a secret for at least six months.
She—A secret? The only reason I got engaged to you was that I thought it would be nice to have my picture on the society page.

A Decided One.

"Has your neighbor Blink any particular bent?"
"Not that I know of, and yet he must have one."
"Why so?"
"Because he is naturally crooked."

Not At All Frivolous.

"Don't you suppose he ever gets off his dignity?"
"No, indeed. Why, he never was known to even splash the water out of his bath tub."

Nearly Always.

"Have you ever tumbled?"
"To what?"
"That the people who are howling because they don't get justice are really howling because they do?"

A Sign of Prosperity.

"Is he prospering?"
"He must be. He's started to write checks."

CAP and BELLS

MERRY "LAUGH OF A CHILD"

Rendition by Elderly Boarder Caused Landlady to Announce Dinner Half Hour Ahead of Time.

"Did any of you ever hear the song," asked the elderly boarder, "entitled 'The Laugh of a Child'?" It appeared that nobody present ever had heard it.

"It was very popular fifty years ago," he said, "but I don't suppose it's in any of our modern collections of music. It was a great favorite of mine."
"How does it go?" timidly inquired the new boarder.

"I don't remember it all, but a part of it goes like this."
Clearing his throat, he sang:
"O, the lah-bah-hah of a ch-h-h-h-hild So wi-h-hild and so free-ee-ee, In the meh-heh-her-hest sow-ho-ho-ho In the wuh-buh-huh-hurd to me!"

"Dinner's ready!" gasped the landlady, although it was a full quarter of an hour earlier than the regular time.

The Fresh and the Sweet.

"Have you some real nice chocolates?" he asked in a familiar manner.
"We have," replied the sweet-faced girl behind the candy counter.
"Are you sure they are sweet and fresh?"
"Sure."
"Have you any as sweet as yourself?"
"Yes, but none as fresh as yaa."—Brooklyn Life.

One of Its Consequences.

General Sherman had just uttered his memorable definition of war. "In fact," he added, after a pause "war is even worse. Down there, as I have every reason to believe, they don't have any triumphant music!"

For the brass bands had begun already to fire "Marching Through Georgia" at him.

AT THE MUSICAL.

Katherine—There's the bicycle face, the automobile face and the bargain-hunting face, why not the violin face?
Kidder—It's the people who have to listen to the playing who make the faces.

His Reputation.

"Every one in town knows that Blank is wretched pay."
"Is that so?"
"Yes; why, whenever he gets on a trolley the conductor stops and demands Blank's nickel before he will go on."

Explanatory.

"What's the worst you can say about him?"
"He hasn't an honest hair in his head."
"Well, that's bad enough."
"Oh, not so bad as you think, he means he wears a wig."

Had Him Guessing.

"Why do you look so worried, Tom?"
"I went around today to ask your father for your hand in marriage."
"Did—did he refuse?"
"No. He wanted me to put it in writing."

A Forlorn Hope.

Critic (casually)—What do you think of this rural drama with its plot turning on an egg?
Theoplan (cautiously)—I hope it is not rotten.

Couldn't Tell a Lie.

"Are these socks all wool, young man?" queried the old gentleman.
"—er—don't think so, sir," replied the new clerk. "They are marked 'half hose' on the box."

Strange Birds!

My two little nieces had a bird given to them and were very anxious to see it bathe. On seeing it get into the water for the first time, the three-year-old child exclaimed: "Why, I declared it isn't getting right into the water with all its feathers on.—The Doll-eater."
