

LOCALS and PERSONALS

Born to the wife of William Crews on Agency Plains, Saturday, March 4th, 1911, a boy.

Ora Van Tassel left Tuesday morning for Portland and may continue his trip into Washington state. Mr. Van Tassel is negotiating a large buy of real estate for the Van Tassel Land Co., and his trip below is in this connection.

Jay Corbett of Madras and Miss Pearl Benton of Wasco county were married at the Congregational parsonage Friday morning by Rev. D. V. Poling. The groom is employed by the Oregon Trunk Railway company and the young couple expect to make their home in Madras.—The Dalles Optimist.

(Mr. Corbett is the new station agent at Madras, and he and his bride arrived in the city last week to take charge of the station here.)

The first organized party of settlers to come to Central Oregon by the new railroad now in operation into the interior arrived during the past week and took possession of the B-lwin ranch of 30,000 acres at Haycreek, which they have bought. There were 25 in the party, which traveled in special car from the East. The newcomers will begin the development of their property at once and the big ranch will be cut up into small farms in order to bring it up to the maximum of production.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, February 3, 1911. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Amer L. Houghaling, contestant, against homestead Entry, No. 06116, made March 11, 1910, for section 6, tp 10, r 13, e. w. m. by Benjamin F. Rippeteau, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Benjamin F. Rippeteau has wholly abandoned said tract for the six months last past; that said abandonment still exists; that claimant never established his residence on said place; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on March 15, 1911, before H. W. Turner a Notary Public at his office in Madras, Oregon; and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m., on March 22, 1911, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit filed December 27, 1910, set forth facts which show that after due diligence, personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication. C. W. Moore, Register.
