

Personal and Local

McTaggart was a passenger on the train for Portland Monday morning, where he will spend several days.

Lewis of Grizzly, was in town Monday and Tuesday for a load of merchandise for the Grizzly.

Engineer Scott E. Gordon is in town for Portland, where he will spend several days looking after business matters.

W. D. Barnes of Grizzly, a former resident of this section, who has been visiting at his former home in Illinois, returned to Grizzly Tuesday evening.

F. Fleck of the Mud River district has returned to the Willamette Valley points, where he spent several weeks with his friends and relatives.

Hammond president of the Madras Townsite company, has been spending a couple of days in Madras, returned to Portland yesterday.

King and Wm. Pancake of Grizzly were in town Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. King, after a large shipment of lumber that came in over the Oregon Trunk Line to Madras, is looking after the material and lumber contracts he has under way in Grizzly.

Montgomery of Grizzly, on the train Tuesday evening after spending the winter at home in Portland. Montgomery says that it is very strange to ride into Oregon on the train after spending the past forty years in the mountains to even see a railroad. Being one of the oldest settlers he has lived through a new epoch in the development of this section of the state.

to relieve the situation in regard to sleeping quarters for the number of tourists coming to Central Oregon and desiring to stop off at Madras to look at the Madras Townsite, many have shipped out of Madras 60 complete beds, which will be placed in the Sanford Hotel, until such time as the new hotel is completed.

F. E. Dayton of Laidlaw, spent several days in town the latter part of this week, unloading some sawmill machinery, which he expects to use in a new mill which he is establishing west of Laidlaw.

W. D. Barnes of Laidlaw, stayed over night in town Tuesday, being on his way home from a ten days visit in Salem.

Wm. W. Esselstyn of Adams, Oregon, arrived in Madras Saturday, and will have charge of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company's yard at this place. This company has succeeded in getting in several car loads of lumber over the Oregon Trunk Line, and they still have several cars on the road between Madras and the Columbia River.

Building material and lumber is beginning to arrive in quantities and sizes sufficient to accommodate the present demands. However, many buildings contemplated, cannot be commenced owing to sizes needed. The Central Oregon Lumber Company have established a yard just north of the stock yards, and this week commenced unloading lumber for the local demand. J. H. Scritsmier has charge of the business at this point.

L. E. Doonar, manager of the Pioneer Telephone and Telegraph Company with a party of linemen have been in Madras several days this week, installing several new phones, and increasing the efficiency of the service generally.

W. H. Taylor, owner of the Railroad Addition to Madras, is having the streets graded and the land cleared, also arrangements are being made to supply the whole area in the vicinity of the depot with water from the new system now under construction by the city.

T. F. McAllister of Crooked River brought in another large band of mutton sheep Tuesday evening, they were loaded on the cars yesterday to be shipped to the Portland market. Mr. McAllister has made several shipments of sheep from this point and also has about 2500 head more that will be ready for shipment in the next few weeks.

I. Segal made a business trip to Bend and Redmond the latter part of the week.

C. E. Roush and wife left Sunday morning for Portland, where Mr. Roush expects to purchase a large quantity of summer merchandise.

C. K. Loucks and wife were passengers out Sunday morning on the train for Portland, where Mrs. Loucks will be under the doctors care for a short time.

Musicians Organize Brass Band

Consistent with the other city habits and ways, which Madras is putting on this summer, it will be but a few weeks before the Gateway City can boast of a brass band. F. F. Fine, of this city, is at work on the organization, and has already secured the services of a number of persons who have worked in bands before, in addition to quite a few who have played instruments, but have never had any actual experience in an organization. The necessary instruments which are not already owned by the fellows have been ordered from a large eastern house, as have band books, and within the next fortnight, actual practice will have been begun. Prof. Fine says that they will be ready to furnish all the music necessary for any kind of July 4th. celebration which the people might call for.

The present roster of the band follows: F. F. Fine, director; Charlie Baker, Roscoe Crosby, T. B. Tucker, Charlie Eagle, C. E. Roush, Dr. Long, Earnest Smith, Max Wilson, Fred Zell, John Baker, Ed. Dunn, S. D. Percival, L. R. Hammer and R. Steel, J. Campbell and J. R. Southman. In addition to these it is expected that others will join as soon as the organization is a little further advanced, and actual practice has begun. It is expected that there will be over 20 pieces. Prof. F. F. Fine, who will direct the band, is a musician of some note, having conducted bands of his own in Reno, and was for a time, a member of the famous 7th Regiment Band of Los Angeles, in which there were over 50 pieces. He will take personal charge of the Madras band, and doubts bring it to the front as rapidly as any director who could have been chosen.
