PROPOSE LEAGUE OF COMMERCIAL CLUBS

All Central Oregon Organizations May Unite

WORK FOR COMMON GOOD

To Get Country Settled Is Object of All Localities—No Occasion For Rivalry

Following the suggestion made by F. W. Graham of the Great Northern Railway while on his recent visit to this county, the plan for a Central Oregon league of commercial clubs is now being agitated by members of the different organizations and the project is having the assistance of C. C. Chapman, manager of the promotion committee of the Portland club.

Realizing that there is nothing to be gained in factional strife and that the time has come for all the people of Central Oregon to get together and work for the general development of the whole empire, the proposal to form a league seems to be meeting with approval in all of the towns of this county which have commercial clubs.

It is the aim to form the organization somewhat after the lines of the Southwest Washington Development League and bring to bear all the influence of a united community interest upon the various subjects within the scope of industrial development.

While in Portland last week J. E. Sawhill of Bend said in an interview given to the Oregonian:

"We need in Central Oregon," said Mr. Sawhill, "just such an institution as is suggested. We all have one common purpose, the settlement of the unoccupied area, and being the newest in railway communication we are of course entitled to the best help we can get. We shall need all the help Portland can give us. Naturally we lean on Portland because our territory is essentially within the trade zone of Portland. If we can accomplish an effective Central Oregon league we shall have made an important step. There is no occasion for rivalry along the lines of railway that have just been built in our section. We should all work to get settlers. Once they come we should do everything that we can to hold them. I find that when the man from the east comes into our section he is hard to convince and being unused to our climate and our method of treatment of the soil he is inclined to get cold feet before he is there very long. As soon as he learns how to handle the soil of Oregon to produce crops, he becomes one of the most enthusiastic of citizens.

"The league as suggested will do us a great deal of good in that it will have a tendency to unite all factions and all communities and create a brotherhood for the common good."

Construction of the Oregon Trunk into Bend will be complete by August 15 and it is expected that by September 1 all will be in readiness to handle traffic there. Louis W. Hill, President of the Great Northern has expressed a desire to drive the last spike as the rails enter the town of Bend. It is understood that arrangements to this effect will be made.

RANCH PAYS FOR ITSELF YEARLY

Gibson Ranch Near Prineville Makes Good Money

What can be done with a ranch in Central Oregon is shown by the following from the Crook County Journal of Prineville. When a ranch located sixty miles from rail transportation can be made to clear approximately $10 per acre each year for a period of six years it is good evidence of a good country:

H. Gibson, who sold his place near Prineville last winter to Mr. Sherwood for $25,000 leaves the ranch this week for good.

Mr. Gibson says that he is sorry to part with the ranch. There is 920 acres in it and he has made it pay between $9,000 and $10,000 clear every year that he has worked it. There is no guesswork about the income, Mr. Gibson says. The money was put in the bank. He owned the ranch six years and made more than the amount he paid for the place every year. He does not expect to find such another money maker. He is not looking for it. Thinks he is old enough to enjoy a rest and is going to take it. Mr. Gibson was in the sheep business in this county when Crook county was part of Wasco.

From Prineville Journal

Theo. Mingers of Lamonta, has opened a plumbing shop in one of John Morris' buildings.

Roy Howard, who won the $1000 prize offered by the Portland Commercial Club for the best article on the resources of Oregon has been employed by the Northwestern Pacific Railroad to write up the country tributary to its lines. The Northwestern is a Canadian road.

The fame of Tillman Reuter has reached Hettinger, North Dakota. A Journal subscriber thinks Tillman could land some of the big prizes offered by the American Land and Irrigation Exposition at Madison square Garden, New York City, next November. We put the matter up to Mr. Reuter.
