Madras,

A. S. Phillips Here
A. S. Phillips who formerly owned a large tract of land on Willow creek adjoining the townsite on the east, and resided there for several years with his family, was in Madras this week from Ashcroft, B. C., where he is now located. Mr. Phillips has a tract of land leased near that place and conducts a livery stable in the town. He is apparently well satisfied with his new home and says the climate there is very similar to that of this section. Mr. Phillips was called here on business. His daughter, Mrs. Pinkham, who is now with family at Ashcroft is said to be much improved in health.

Beans Number 6911
Mrs. James Sears and Merton Mortimore tied on the nearest guess to the number of beans in the jar at the Blue Front Grocery, each making the guess of 7000, while the number of beans was 6911. The beans were counted by a committee composed of J. H. Ballard, H. P. Andrus and Jesse Eads. Mrs. Sears bought the interest of Mr. Mortimore in the handsome clock given as a prize and is now the possessor.

R. F. D. Meeting Saturday
Those who are interested in getting a rural free delivery route established from Madras north and east should not forget the meeting that is to be held next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of getting an organization of the patrons formed so that the proper presentation of the matter can be made to the department.
