HAYCREEK RANCH PUT ON MARKET

Famous B. S. & L. Sheep
Ranch Subdivided

OFFERS HOMES FOR MANY

Rich Tract of 20,000 Acres Tributary to Madras Contains Cream of Irrigated Land.

Offering what can be made into beautiful homes for upwards of 1000 people, the famous Haycreek ranch formerly owned by the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company, 12 miles east of Madras has been placed on the market in tracts from 40 acres up. This tract, much of which is irrigated alfalfa land contains 20,000 acres, and there is little doubt that it will be eagerly purchased by land seekers with means for investment, as embraced in this ranch is some of the cream of Central Oregon real estate.

R. V. Jones, president of the Base Line Land Company, which has the disposal of the property, was here the first of the week making arrangements for selling the land, and a sales office has been opened in this city in charge of L. S. Weeks, until recently in the employe of the Oregon and Western Colonization company.

The Haycreek ranch is one that has a world wide fame, and up until a year or more ago when the property changed hands was operated as a blooded sheep ranch, carrying the largest flock of the finest Rambouillet Merino sheep in the world. Shipments of these famous sheep have in years past been made in large numbers to South Africa, Australia and other distant points where the sheep industry is carried on extensively. At times the Baldwin Sheep & Land company run as high as 40,000 head of sheep but in later years this number was reduced somewhat on account of the curtailment of government range.

The announcement that the land is to be parceled out to homebuilders is an important one to Madras from a business standpoint as this city is the nearest and natural shipping point for that neighborhood, and its settlement is a matter that will directly affect local trade. It will mean that eventually several hundred new homes will be established tributary to this city and that too, by the most desirable class of settlers.

Double Wedding

Rev. D. V. Poling pronounced the words, Saturday evening at the parlors of Hotel Dalles, which united two couples in marriage and made four hearts most happy. Samuel and William Mitchell, brothers, who reside near Madras, were the grooms, while the brides were Miss Alice Murdock late of Canada, and Miss Mary Tosh, who arrived from Ireland on the day of her marriage. The witnesses of the double ceremony were James and John Patterson, uncle and cousin of the bridegrooms. The brides were becomingly gowned in white and carried carnations. The newly weds left Sunday for their future home.—The Dalles Chronicle.

From Prineville Journal

Joe Matheny, charged with stealing a horse belonging to Dick Vandevent, was tried before Judge Kennedy last night and bound over to the grand jury. His bonds were placed at $250 and were promptly furnished.

Earnest Robinson, who shot Lewis McCallister at Howard, was arraigned last evening before justice Kennedy. Robinson pleaded not guilty and waived examination. He was held with out bonds to appear before the grand jury.

The following ladies will attend the grand lodge of I. O. O. F., at Portland next week: Mesdames Cyrus, McDowell, Young, Templeton.
