

Close Boarding House
Mr. and Mrs. Perry Read who have for the past year been conducting a boarding house in the A. C. Sanford building, have closed the house, as Mr. Sanford's family expects to return from Portland to make their home here again after the close of the Rose Festival. The house has had a large patronage since its opening under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Read, and there are a large number of bachelor boys about town bemoaning the loss of their happy home. Mr. Read expects to go to Hood River next week to get a supply of strawberries. He and Mrs. Read are somewhat undecided as to what they will do in the immediate future.

Andrew Morrow was in town from his home on Willow Creek the first of the week looking after business matters.

Dissolution of Partnership
