

Tum-A-Lum Lumber COMPANY

Having completed our lumber sheds we are now in shape to carry all the different grades of kiln dried flooring, ceiling, rustic and shiplap. We aim to carry a complete stock in every detail found in a retail lumber yard. Dimensions in all size timbers, sash, doors, mouldings, shingles, lime, cement, posts, wood and coal.

When it comes to roofing we have one that has stood the test for years, Malthoid, which needs no introduction. We are here to accommodate the people and would be pleased with a share of your patronage.

Personal and Local NORTH BEACH

Jerry Ackey was in town from Lamonta Wednesday.

J. H. Doan of Culver was looking after business here Monday.

Mrs. Marie L. Brooke was here from Grizzly Monday attending to land business.

Born, at Madras, to the wife of R. T. Olson, Saturday, August 5, 1911, a son.

J. L. Dehuff arrived the latter part of last week from Spokane and is now assistant cashier in the Madras State Bank.

Mrs. Isa E. B. Crosby desires to state that she does not make examinations of eyes, but sells glasses over the counter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Northey, of Sunnyside, Wash., the mother and father of Otto Northey, arrived here last Sunday to make a visit to their son.

Dwight Roberts of Culver made final proof on his homestead entry before Commissioner Turner last Tuesday. Walter Ruble and J. R. Mendenhall were his witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clingan, who formerly resided at Madras and who had been divorced, were remarried at Bend last week. Mrs. Clingan had resumed her maiden name of Maude E. Lovelace.

Born, in Portland, Thursday, August 3, to the wife of William Osborn, formerly of this place, a daughter. Mr. Osborn was resident engineer for the Oregon Trunk at this place during the past year.

M. Fitzmaurice, editor of the Condon Times, spent Tuesday in Madras, returning from a visit to his daughter at Bend, Mrs. C. M. Redfield. Mrs. Fitzmaurice and Miss Essie are still at Bend, where they will visit for some time.

Fred Zogg left today for a business trip to Shaniko. Upon leaving he remarked that he intended either to sell or lease the Hotel Madras—or get married. Further details were unobtainable and the reader will have to draw his own conclusions.

F. W. Woolley, the well known traveling man, accompanied by his wife and son, and Mr. Gates and family, passed through town the first part of the week in automobiles on their way to Crane Prairie and other points on the upper Deschutes for an outing.

O. A. Pearce, cashier of the Madras State Bank, expects to leave next Sunday for Page, North Dakota, to accompany his wife and children to their new home at Madras. Enroute he will visit Seattle, Bremerton, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and will be away about three weeks.

J. W. Baker's express team bolted this morning from the public water station, where Mr. Baker had their bridles off to give them a drink. Hitched to the express wagon they made a wild flight to Main street and landed with force against a telephone pole near the Central Oregon Mercantile company's store. The harness was broken in some parts and the tongue of the rig smashed, but otherwise no damage resulted.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third of the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by M. E. Snook.
