

Tum-A-Lum Lumber COMPANY

Having completed our lumber sheds we are now in shape to carry all the different grades of kiln dried flooring, ceiling, rustic and shiplap. We aim to carry a complete stock in every detail found in a retail lumber yard. Dimensions in all size timbers, sash, doors, mouldings, shingles, lime, cement, posts, wood and coal.

When it comes to roofing we have one that has stood the test for years, Malthoid, which needs no introduction. We are here to accommodate the people and would be pleased with a share of your patronage. Phone at your service.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Fred Zogg is home from his trip to Shaniko.

Robert Rea has gone to Portland and Astoria on a visit.

Born, to the wife of James E. Boyd, at Madras, August 17th, a girl.

Miss Bessie Tylor of San Francisco is here the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. F. Owen.

A well known Des Moines woman after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by M. E. Snook.

A card received from J. H. Douthit announces the arrival of a girl at their home on the 8th

Luther Melton and wife of Lamonta were in the city Saturday and Sunday visiting friends.

A. V. Warren was in town Monday from his home at Hay-creek attending to business matters.

S. J. Sellars, J. C. Robinson and E. E. Echelberger returned Sunday from their fishing trip to Odell Lake.

The fire house has been moved from the Lueddemann lots on Main street to the rear of the Red Cross drug store.

M. W. Bennett and family and W. H. Hess and wife returned this morning from an outing in the Upper Deschutes country.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sweiter, who have been assisting in the management of the Hotel Madras, left this week for Bend and other points south.

G. E. Jackson has rented the Key rooming house and is now in charge of the same. He and his family make their home in the lower story of the building.

W. R. Cook returned home last Thursday from a trip into the Bend and Redmond districts, where he went to look up insurance business for the National Life.

C. O. Lee arrived last Sunday from Independence and is looking after the harvesting of his crop on the land held by him near the A. W. Boyce ranch south of town.

S. D. Percival and family left week by team to cross the Cascade mountains by the Santiam route and visit friends about Independence and other valley points. They expect to go as far north as Centralia, Wash., before returning home.

McTaggart & Bye, who have been busy the past few weeks remodeling their building for a hotel, expect to open the place to the public next Sunday. The dining room and kitchen will occupy the lower story, while the upper story will be occupied by rooms.

F. M. Bigelow, expert for the Landis Harness Machine company of St. Louis, was here Wednesday and set up the new Landis machine in Fred Davis' harness shop. The way Fred and Dan will make harness now won't be slow. Come in and see what it will do.

Andrew Larsen, jr., who has been teaching in the Indian school at Simnasho for the past several years, has departed for his old home in Minnesota, accompanied by his wife and children, and expects to spend at least a year in the east. He was in Madras the last of the week looking after business matters preparatory to leaving.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank all those who so kindly assisted me in the recent voting contest held by the Madras Pioneer.

AILENE SANFORD.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third of the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by M. E. Snook.
