VANORA NEWS NOTES

Ora VanTassel of the townsite company has bought the old Warmspring ferry located just below here and during the week calculates to move it to the John Dizney ranch, where it will be operated until a bridge is built.

C. E. Owen has his new blacksmith shop open here and is sweating like a nigger at election to keep up with his work.

Tom Dizney and Bert Widener are engaged in clearing the rocks from the two county roads leading from Agency Plain down to this place.

Bert Widener of West Plains, Mo., is a new arrival here and is stopping with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dizney.

J. T. Hardy, of the freight department of the Oregon Trunk was here a few days ago on business and fishing.

Frank Dunn of the Deschutes railway freight department was here today on a hurried mission of business.

W. F. Magill of Wamic is expected here this afternoon to begin threshing the Agency Plains wheat crop with his steam outfit.

AUREVOIR.

Vanora, Aug. 10.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by M. E. Snook.

Dissolution of Partnership

Notice is hereby given that I, N. C. Jansen, one of the partners of the Central Oregon Well Co. of Culver, Oregon, have sold my interest in said company to E. Wagoner, on the 7th day of August, 1911.

All bills against the firm will be paid by E. Wagoner, and all outstanding accounts collected by him.

Quarterly Meeting

The First District quarterly meeting for The Dalles district will commence, D. V., on Thursday night of this week at the Free Methodist church in Madras and hold over Sunday. A number are expected from other points in the district. We cordially invite the people of Madras to attend. The Rev. W. N. Coffee, our district elder, will have charge. We are earnestly praying for God's presence and power to be with us. Meetings at 8 p.m. every evening. E. D. Blackman, pastor.

A cave-in has stopped the drill in the well being drilled for the Deschutes railway north of town. The debris will be cleaned out and casing put in. The delay will be only temporary.

The themes of discourse at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening, August 20th, will be respectively, "A Good Church Member," and "The Betrayal of Christ." Charles A. Sias, minister.

The construction of the new freight and passenger depot for the Deschutes railway has been commenced on Agency Plain, near the temporary depot that has been in use. The new building will be one of the finest on that line.

Miss Clara Horney was pleasantly surprised at her home a few miles south of town last Tuesday evening, by a visitation of the M. E. Sunday school from this place. The evening was most enjoyably spent by all attending.
