A party of jack rabbit hunters, composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peterson, W. H. Miller and the writer, drove to Mud Springs country last Sunday and bagged 31 of the most pests. The animals are unusually plentiful this year, the hills and the grain fields being literally covered with them and affords excellent sport with a rifle.

After the team she was driving became unmanageable after running into a post in front of the postoffice Sunday morning, Mrs. Louis H. Weir, threw her six month's old child from the rig to save it from injury and the team start to run away. The child landed so abruptly on the highway, began to exercise its natural noise producing apparatus, and the father, who was in the postoffice at the time, appeared on the scene and loaded the baby in the rig again and drove out of town. Mr. and Mrs.
Weir are well known farmers living near Butte. Outside of being badly scared and shaken up the child was not hurt.

to Give Him a New Stomach.
After intensely after eating and no other treatment I tried seemed to do the trick. writes H. M. Young, editor of the Sun, Lakeview, Ohio. "The doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Bowel Remedy gave me surprising relief. The second bottle seemed to give my stomach and perfectly good Hamilton purchased the machine together.

J. S. McMeen of Lamonta, accompanied by his son Bruce, left Monday for Portland to receive medical treatment.
Mr. McMeen has a cancerous growth on his face, which has been giving him a great deal of trouble during the past few months.

A change in rural route No. 2 was inaugurated this week, giving patrons a much better service than before.
The new route as indicated on the chart commences at the Bramstetter school house, running east for one mile, thence two miles south, thence west two miles, one mile south, two miles east and one mile south, coming out again near the O. W. R. & N. depot. The change is made for the accommodation of people living at the south end of the big plain.

City Recorder J. H. Jackson is mourning the loss of a horse, burned to death last week in a fire that destroyed a barn and its contents on the ranch of Mrs. Julia E. Dean, five miles northeast of town. Jack, the name the horse was christened, was raised by Mr.
Jackson from a colt, and for almost twenty years had done his duty faithfully and without a murmur, being considered almost one of the family.
Sometime ago the horse was loaned to Mrs. Dean with the understanding that she was to bring him home every Saturday, to allow the owner to use him on his fishing excursions over Sunday.
Last Saturday the horse failed to come home, word being received that a sage brush fire caught the barn during the night destroying the horse.
