BUSINESS MEN'S EXCURSION COMING

Trains Will Leave Portland September 30—Stops to be Made at All Important Towns

Two important trade excursions have just been mapped out by Portland business men to interior points, which will bring the metropolis into closer touch with the state. The first is to Klamath Falls, where a special train will be run, and the other is to Burns. Each junket will be made up of prominent men, heads of firms in most cases, and will have for its object the bringing about of closer relations through getting better acquainted with the outside territory.

The special train to Klamath Falls will leave Portland September 26, returning September 29. Stops will be made at the following cities: Albany, Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, Klamath Falls, Eugene and Corvallis. It will be known as the Three-Day Oregon Excursion.

The trip to Burns will follow it, the excursionists leaving September 30, going as far as Redmond by rail, where they will take autos for Bend and on to Burns. At the latter place the Central Oregon Development league will be held October 2 and 3. The return trip will be made by auto to Prairie City, thence by rail to Baker and back to Portland.

LAND SHOW NOW AN ASSURED SUCCESS

Tide of Immigration Will be Turned Through Twin City Gateway to Northwestern States

That the high tide of immigration will be turned to the Northwest during the next few years is due to the enthusiasm of the farmers, commercial clubs, business men and railways of the great Northwest, who have made such careful advance preparations and plans, that the success of the Twin City land show is now assured. As the readers of this newspaper know, the Northwestern Land Products Show is for, by and with the seven confederated states of the Northwestern Development league—Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. Canada will not compete, nor will it be allowed to compete, nor will any state or community outside of the seven states which compose the Northwestern Development league be permitted to exhibit. The Territory of Alaska, which is part and parcel of the great Northwest—the outlet to our great Northern territory being through Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington—will undoubtedly have a strong exhibit. This is only right, for in general the American residents of Alaska are almost all Northwestern men and women. The farmers, business men, commercial clubs and railways who started the Northwestern Development league last summer knew that their idea was the right idea in having a land show for the Northwest. Here in St. Paul, in our own territory, managed by residents of the Northwest who are boosters, of course, for their own section, there will be no chance for unjust decisions or any discrimination against our products. Every state will have adequate representation and the best men, or rather the best farmers, who show their best products, will win the prizes.

No one is going to make any money on this show. It is a partnership enterprise. The farmers, the commercial clubs, the business men and the railways are all trying to help each other. They will meet on a mutual basis and will all hold up the progressive Northwestern farmer and show the world what the fertile soil of the seven confederated states can really produce. The truth is good enough. The newspapers not only of the Twin City but of Helena and other commonwealths are giving space to the news items and are in every way endeavoring to boost this show. But it is not only the newspapers of the larger cities, according to Mr. Campbell, the secretary, who are helping; the commercial clubs in the smaller towns, the farmers and the small country newspapers are all doing their part to help boost the Northwest. No one is lagging. Everywhere the enthusiasm shown is such that the officials know now that the Northwestern Land Products Show will be a great success.

In a few days a list of the valuable prizes will be prepared and while no prize is so valuable to a community as a few new, good settlers, yet at the same time many prizes will be given so that the farmers who take time to prepare the best exhibits will be properly rewarded. There is no doubt but what thousands of the better class of Americans of the Eastern and many thousands of the more industrious foreigners in the big cities will be brought to the Northwest next spring by the exhibits in our own show in St. Paul, December 12th to 28th.

Diarrhoea is always more or less prevalent during September. Be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is prompt and effectual. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by M. E. Snook.
