A crew of painters are at work this week on the Willow Creek street. It is being painted with a coat of very black tar and is quite preservative.

Miss Theresa Bundy and Mr. Livingston, well known people of Prineville, were here over Sunday at the home of A. C. Sanford. The girls returned Saturday afternoon by train, accompanied by Miss Eula Sanford, the latter a student in Crook county high school at Prineville. Saturday evening an informal dancing party in their honor was given at the Sanford home.

S. S. Smith, tonsorial artist, returned last Saturday afternoon on a two weeks' hunting trip to the headwaters of the McKenzie river. Others in the party were P. M. Smith and family of Prineville.

Mr. Smith says the party was not altogether as pleasant as they had hoped for, heavy rains forcing them to leave the mountains sooner than they expected. He says the woods are full of hunters and that deer and wild game didn't stop long enough in one place to get a shot.

He managed to get two shots of deer at long range. The most interesting part of the trip was getting honey from a bee tree, busy little animals attacking hunters from all sides. The party were successful in getting a good supply of berries.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by M. E. Snook.

Mrs. Jessie Harcrowe and children are visiting this week with relatives at Redmond.

George Cyrus and family of Sisters are visiting friends and relatives in this section this week.

Mrs. Charles Parker, a former resident of this section, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. M. McClintic.

Bert Loomis sold his ranch on Agency Plains last week to Frank Stangland. The consideration was $2500 cash.

Ralph Barton, employed in the barber shop of W. S. Smith, left Monday morning for Hood River for a visit with friends.

F. W. Wooley, a well known traveling salesman, was calling on the merchants of Madras the latter part of the week.

M. VanTassel and wife of Opal City passed through Madras Sunday on their way to Vanora to visit with the family of Ora VanTassel.

We have been informed that the Warm Springs ferry, which was recently moved to a point just west of the town of Vanora, is now in operation.

Mrs. Hattie E. Read purchased the A. C. Sanford residence Tuesday and expects to open a boarding house shortly. The consideration was $2000.

H. J. Douglass, a prominent real estate man and booster of Bend, was in the city last Sunday. He came here to meet his wife and little daughter who are returning from an eastern trip.

James P. Read and wife and Perry Read returned the latter part of last week from the Silver Lake and Christmas Lake country where they had been looking after lands to make desert entries on.

Only a small crowd attended the dance at Sanford's hall Friday night, but this was due perhaps to the disagreeable weather. Another dance is announced for Saturday night, to be given by Zell and Shugert.

Mrs. W. H. Hess and her sister, Mrs. V. Hobbs, of Metolius were passengers out Monday morning on their way to Pendleton, where they go to visit at the home of their mother, Mrs. Catching, and also take in the Round-Up.

The auction sale of livestock, farming implements and household goods at the ranch of J. M. Mayes last Saturday attracted a good sized crowd. The articles offered for sale were purchased at a bargain, young spring chickens selling for 16 cents apiece.

A patrol of 12 boy scouts, known as Boy Scouts of America, Troop No. 1, has been organized at Redmond. The commission for the troop has been received and uniforms ordered. They will take part in the big parade on "Railroad Day" at Redmond.

M. Putz, a former resident of Madras and partner of H. F. Dietzel in the flouring mill business, writes the latter that he expects to return here about the first of October to make his home. After disposing of his mill business a year ago, Mr. Putz has made his home at Novato, Cal., a small town on the coast just north of San Francisco. He states that the continual rains and foggy weather in that locality makes it a disagreeable place to live and that he is anxious to return to the superb climate of Central Oregon.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by M. E. Snook.

Recipe No. 1

Hamburger Steak

Chop one pound of lean beefsteak, two ounces of suet, and one medium sized onion in the "Universal" Food Chopper, using the medium adjustment; season with salt and pepper; form into four flattened meat balls and fry about one minute on each side until both sides are a nice brown. When the steaks are taken out add a little water to the sauce and thicken with a little flour; half a teaspoonful of beef extract will strengthen it. Pour the whole over the beefsteaks, which have been laid upon a hot platter—From the "Universal" Cook Book—one free with each machine.

"Universal" Food Chopper

This is the machine you need for chopping all sorts of meat or vegetables—raw or cooked—into fine or coarse pieces as wanted—rapidly and easily.

See Our Demonstration Display of the "Universal" All Week.
