

Personal and Local

Miss Lulu Thomas came up from Redmond Christmas for a visit with friends.

The Christmas dance at Sanford's hall last Monday night, given by the Dramatic Club, was one of the successes of the season, more than 40 couples being present besides a number of spectators. Next Monday night the club will give their first annual New Year's ball and a large crowd is expected.

L. F. Rice, formerly bookkeeper at the Central Oregon store, arrived in Madras Saturday on his return from a trip to Coos county, Oregon. Mr. Rice expects to return to Marshfield the middle of January to take a position offered him on this trip. He left Sunday for his home in the Lower Bridge country.

A crew of men is now at work concreting tunnels 6 and 7 on the Oregon Trunk road near Madras. There is about 1000 feet of concreting to be done at each tunnel and will require five or six months to complete the job. W. I. Barnard, in charge of the crew, will make his home here while the work is going on. The concrete work started several weeks ago at tunnel No. 1 and in order to rush the job as much as possible, Henry & McFee, the contractors, have scattered their gangs at different points along the line.

Earl Esselstyn who is attending the Walla Walla high school came home last week to spend the holidays with his parents.

Samuel L. Newell of Hayreek made final commutation proof on his homestead before the U. S. Commissioner at Madras Tuesday.

Mrs. J. G. Hardy and family left Tuesday for Portland and the Willamette valley to visit friends and relatives for a few weeks.

G. G. Groves of the vicinity of Terrebonne came to Madras Wednesday to attend to some land matters before Commissioner Turner.

James Rice, Jack Church, Roy Newell and Claude Shelton passed through Madras Monday evening on their way to Bend to attend the dance given Christmas night.

Mrs. Ben Jones of Prineville, Miss Neta Campbell who is attending school at The Dalles and her sister who is attending school at Prineville, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Campbell near Vanora.

Rev. M. W. Weaver, former pastor of the M. E. church here, came down from Bend morning where they are and, and are visiting at of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. s. Weaver expects to former home in Michigan altitude of Central ecting her health.

Thieves last Sunday ed G. V. Stanton of taking them from a ding just outside the ey were tracked to the ards where a gang is urfacing, the next day, stone plunder recovered. men who did the job were not to be found and it is supposed they "took to the hills."

Every family has need of a good reliable ment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by M. E. Spink.

On Christmas day the members of the M. E. church raided the parsonage with a lot of good things of considerable bulk and value with hearty greetings and good cheer. Our thanks and good wishes to all friends sending same. Rev. and Mrs. Pacey.
