Henry Ghault, a homesteader from the Opal City country, was a visitor in Madras several days the latter part of the week.

Jack Dee and Sam Compton were down from their homes at Grizzly Monday to attend the entertainment given by the Dramatic Club.

Mrs. Winnie Cubit of Grizzly came down Saturday and is spending a few days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Craig.

A. D. Anderson and family of the Agency Plains left Wednesday morning for Seattle where they will spend the holidays with Mr. Anderson's parents.

Attorney Bergland and family left for Portland Monday morning to spend the holidays with friends and relatives. They expect to return about January 3d.

W. C. Barber of Opal City was in Madras the latter part of the week attending to business affairs. Bill expects to spend the holidays in the Willamette valley.

The Madras public school will close tomorrow night and remain closed until after New Year's. On account of the program at the churches the children prepared no exercises for the school.

The friends of O. C. Dickerson, better known as "Shorty," will be pleased to know that he has secured the position of chauffeur for a party of tourists who left Seattle last week for a tour of China, Japan and many of the European countries. In this way he will have a chance to see a great deal of the world while getting pay for it, as well as getting his expenses paid.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by M. E. Snook.

Wm. Brownhill one of the old timers on the north end of Agency Plains has advertised a public sale at his ranch on Wednesday, January 3, 1912. The sale includes livestock, farm implements, etc. Mr. Brownhill will leave immediately after the sale for New Mexico for his wife's health.

James S. McMeen

James S. McMeen, a respected citizen and pioneer resident of Crook county, died today in the hospital at Prineville of cancer, after an illness of ten months, during which time he submitted to two operations.

Deceased was a native of Ohio, and came west in 1883, taking a homestead near Lamonta, where he resided continuously until his death. He was married at Salem the following year to Miss Emma Williams, who still survives. Three children were born to this union, all of whom are living. Their names are Charley, Loyd and Bruce.

Although never holding public office Mr. McMeen always took an active part in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the community where he lived. Besides the sorrowing family a long list of friends are left to mourn his death.

The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow. Interment at Gray Butte cemetery.
