FRED ZELL alias "SHARKEY"-I have never been married but once, girls, and as soon as I get a divorce, will consider almost any kind of a proposition pertaining to matrimony. I am just 29 years old by accurate count, have sorrel hair, and I wear a hat and laugh just like a human being. Besides being a society dub and drayman, I carry the U. S. mail and hope some day to be postmaster general. I have an electric dynamo ordered and as soon as it arrives. will manufacture electric belts and lights. My income from the dray business is $50,000 a month, about half of which goes to satisfy the candy appetite of my many girl friends. I expect to leave next week for San Francisco, New York, South Africa and Alaska, and if there are any girls, widows, old maids, or old ladies, who want to change their last name to one with only four letters let them send in their names and description as soon as convenient. This is a rare opportunity girls, but don't all speak at once,

LOUIE VOLRATH-Thirty-seven years ago in Central Oregon I came into this world under the same conditions that usually befell the pioneers of this section at that time. Here I grew to manhood, spent my boyhood days in the mountains with a band of sheep and finally after all these years settled down to a steady restaurant business in Madras If you are looking for a man who can make a flapjack do a triple somersault in the air from a frosty griddle, I am the candy kid. You'll have to hurry, girls, for I expect to leave in the next few days for greener fields.

TOMMY McCormack-Time is fleeting, girls, and an opportunity such as I offer will perhaps never happen again during your lonely existence. I am a poor Irish boy with a wonderful brogue, but I can't help it. I was born in a country where it was imperative that I speak as I do. I am very fond of music and have in my employ several "hoedown' violin artists. Until recently I maintained a large zoo of natural animals, having lost same through an overfeed of jackrabbits. I bought a new suit and an orercoat in The Dalles last week to be in readiness for any fairy who might have the courage to come out flat-footed and state her case. I am a member of the Amalgamated Association of Bachelors and was duly elected janitor of the Dramatic Club at the last regular meeting. I have a church of my own, which was recently dedicated, and since losing my pet wildcats, have been stricken with melancholia. P.S.following is the result of Kindly tell me when you write if you can do washing.

Joseph Jefferson and Wilton Lackaye were one season in the same company. It was the custom of Mr. Jefferson to take curtain calls and make a speech to the audience. He liked it, the audience liked it, and everybody but Luckaye liked it. Luckaye contended that no actor should step out of his part and make a curtain speech. One night Mr. Jefferson made his
