Married—Miss Lora Smith and Charles Miller were united in marriage Saturday Feb. 3, 1912, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, near Round Butte. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Sheehan, of Bend. The bride is a popular young lady and a successful school teacher, having taught in the Methodist Hill district the past year. The groom is an industrious young farmer recently arrived here from Nebraska, where the Smith family formerly lived. The newly married couple will take up their residence on a homestead near Round Butte. A large circle of friends join in extending congratulations.—Metolius Central Oregonian.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by M. E. Snook.

Gus Peret, well known exhibition shooter, was a visitor in Madras this week, representing the Peters Cartridge Co. Mr. Peret ranks high among the fancy shooting experts of the west, having shot for advertising purposes in all of the prominent cities of the northwest. He expects to cover this territory again in the early spring, at which time he will give an exhibition of fancy and accurate shooting.

Otto Alto, a Fin recently employed at the Crooked River bridge, was fined $10 and costs in the City Recorder's court Monday on a charge of assault and battery. Without apparent provocation, Alto walked up to the Shamrock bar, and struck Andrew Hill, another Fin, across the head with a bottle of beer, inflicting a severe cut across the cheek and ear. Hill is still in a dangerous condition, with chances however in favor of recovery.

For the convenience of those who intend to join in the rabbit drive Saturday, the promoters have asked the Pioneer to announce that all persons coming from the south and west meet at Boyce's place at 9 o'clock, and those coming from the north meet at the Woolridge place at the same hour, at which time the parties will leave the two starting places and drive toward the corral. It will be necessary for every one to bring their own lunch, as none will be provided.

Ranchers from all parts of northern Crook county are taking more than ordinary interest in the public sale to be held in Madras on the 7th day of March, the sale being conducted at the Madras Hotel barns. All who have stock or implements of any character which they will offer for sale, are requested to list the same with N. P. Poulsen or J. A. Coulter, in order that they may prepare a correct catalogue of the articles to be offered for sale, which catalogue will be published before the date of the sale.

W. J. Stebbins, Sec-Treas.

It has come to pass, and even worse than any of us had even thought. "Art" Shugert, minstrel man, concert artist, expert of the "Morse code," Terpsichorean artist par excellence, chief mourner at the festal board, guaranteed softener of the feminine hearts and last but not least general roustabout, "has went." He literally picked up his bed in the night, and betook himself over to Bend, for the purpose of tickling the telegraphic keys at that fledgeling railroad town.

Already we have missed him, more than we dare let him know. No more shall we hear those familiar words "Where'd you get her, Shugert?" which always called for an aria by the "High Ball Quartet," which aria always calls for another "one." But why these wailings? Cant we find another one like him? Nay, nay, I say. Sooner would I compare the feeble flickering of the tiniest star to the glorious effulgence of the noon-day sun, than to compare anyone else with our Shugert.

Notice of Contest
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, February 5, 1912.
TO GEORGE W. CLARK of Madras, Oregon.
You are hereby notified that James E. Taylor, who gives Madras, Oregon, as his post-office address, did on Dec. 27, 1911, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead, Entry No. Serial No. 06056, made February 9, 1910, for 1/4 sec. 27, T. 10 S., R. 14 E., and 1/4 sec. 35, T. 10 S., R. 14 E., Willamette Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that said George W. Clark has wholly abandoned said tract of land for the past eighteen months, that said abandonment still exists; that said George W. Clark left this tract of land during the spring of 1910 and has not been in this section of the country to my knowledge to this time.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be cancelled hereunder without your further right to be heard therein, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to the contestant in person, proof of such service must be either the said contestant's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the copy, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made stating when and where the copy was delivered. If made by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed stating when and the post office to which it was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.
