

Personal and Local

B. Radolph is installing the new furnace in the bank building.

J. H. Garrett of Lower Trout Creek, spent the early part of the week in Madras.

Warren Smith has the contract for the electric wiring for the new bank building.

J. T. Robinson and J. W. Robinson were down Thursday from their home in Culver.

Gus Loveland and family have moved to Grizzly, where they will reside this summer.

George Irwin and wife, of Vanora, were in Madras Monday attending to business matters.

Chas. E. Owen and family, left last week for a visit in Portland and Tacoma, their former home.

J. H. Doan of Culver, was transacting business before the United States Commissioner in Madras Monday.

John L. Campbell, the local butcher, has been in Portland the early part of the week with a shipment of cattle from this section.

George W. Wells, Fred A. Rice and H. M. Grimes, county road viewers, were in Madras Thursday, enroute to the Melton road, near Mecca.

Born to the wife of Barney Cummings, Tuesday, February 13th, a great big boy. Barney seems to be the proudest man around.

Dennis McCole, a former rancher from the section southeast of Madras, returned from Washington the early part of the week, and will remain in this locality for some time.

Henry W. Klages, Arthur Mitchell and Lewis B. Ackerman from across the Deschutes river were in Madras Thursday, attending to land matters before the United States Commissioner.

Dr. Haile left for The Dalles Wednesday morning, accompanying John Eisenreich, a rancher residing east of Madras, who will undergo an operation at The Dalles Hospital for cancer of the stomach.

Edward L. Vinton and Clarence W. Rutledge arrived Thursday from Roseburg and are visiting Mr. Vinton's sister, Mrs. M. E. Snook. Both are engaged in engineering work on the local railroads.

The Lamonta Telephone Company is preparing to make connections from their line, with the Oregon Trunk depot. This will give a large number of people the advantage of connections with the telegraph service at a nominal cost.

N. H. Elliott, J. Dietrich and Edwin A. Cleland of Terrebonne were in Madras Monday, Mr. Cleland having contested the Laura D. Barcraft desert claim, between the Crooked and Deschutes river. The testimony was taken before Howard W. Turner.

The mens class of the Men and Religion movement will meet next Sunday in the Harry Key building. Owing to the absence of our pastor, Brother Williams will give the address. All men are cordially invited to meet with us every Sunday at 3 P. M. Wm. W. Esselstyn, President.

For the benefit of those who cannot attend the rabbit drives during the week on account of their business, a drive has been arranged for Sunday. As at the last drive, parties will start from the Woolridge place on Willow Creek and the Boyce place at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, and drive to the corral on the Barney Cummings place. Every body is invited to come along and help in the good work, but be sure to bring your lunch along.

John McTaggart, we understand, has purchased the forty horse power Studebaker auto owned by J. J. Gaffey, and will place the machine on the road for commercial business as soon as the roads improve.

Dr. Harold Clark and wife, returned from Haycreek Tuesday evening on their way to Prineville, where they will visit for a couple of weeks. Then the doctor will return to Madras and be ready for business again.

The big "Basket party" Friday night. Dont forget it. The management is going to see that every body has a good time, and plenty to eat. All lunches that are brought and sold will be eaten in the hall, so there will be enough and to spare. After the basket auction and lunch, dancing and card playing will indulged in, giving all a good show. Good music has been arranged for, and if you dont go this time you will always be sorry.

While at work in the vault of the new bank building Monday afternoon, L. Pummill, employed by contractor Rhoads, was fortunate in receiving no injuries other than bruises, when the arched brick roof of the vault fell in on him, burying him beneath the debris. Pummill being on a ladder, sufficiently high to touch the roofing with his hands is all that prevented serious injuries. Replacing the damaged roof will take but a short time, and will not delay the completion of the building.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by M. E. Snook.

Notice of Contest
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, February 3, 1912.
To GEORGE W. CLARK of Madras, Oregon, Contestee:
You are hereby notified that James E. Taylor, who gives Madras, Oregon, as his post-office address, did on Dec. 27, 1911, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead, Entry No., Serial No. 06626, made February 9, 1910, for 32 1/2 ac., NW 1/4 Sec. 29, Township 9 S., Range 15 E., Willamette Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that said George W. Clark has wholly abandoned said tract of land for the past eighteen months, that said abandonment still exists; that said George W. Clark left this tract of land during the spring of 1910 and has not been in this section of the country to my knowledge to this date.
You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be cancelled hereunder without your further right to be heard therein, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer under oath, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file a copy of your answer on the said contest either in person or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to the contestant in person, proof of such service must be either the said contestant's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the copy, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made stating when and where the copy was delivered; if made by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed stating when and the post office to which it was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.
You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.
