

Personal and Local

A. G. Kibbee, of Haycreek, was a business visitor in Madras Tuesday of this week.

Tom Lewis, of Blizzard Ridge, was a business visitor in Madras Tuesday of this week.

Mr. J. Reynolds, of Portland, was in Madras the latter part of the week visiting friends in this section.

Thomas McCormack left Saturday morning for Portland and St Paul, Oregon, on a short business trip.

Gus Loveland is down from Grizzly, and is making preparations to take over and operate a blacksmith's shop at Culver.

Newt. E. Melton made final commutation proof on his homestead, which is located on Agency Plains, Monday before Commissioner Turner.

G. V. Stanton, and his brother who has been visiting him for several days, left Wednesday morning for Great Falls and other places in Montana.

Mrs. George Oneil, of Terrebonne, has been in Madras several days the past week visiting friends and having some dental work done by Dr. Clark.

Born to the wife of W. S. Smith, Friday March 15th, a son. Both Mrs. Smith and the baby are getting along fine, is the report of "Warney."

Thomas A. Graham, depot agent for the Oregon Trunk line at Metolius, was in Madras Saturday, and filed on a homestead in the Metolius country.

J. C. Robinson who has been at Antelope installing an irrigation plant for Thomas Brogan, expects to spend several days in the land before returning home.

A. H. Lippee who purchased the A. V. Warren place at Haycreek last fall, was in Madras the early part of the week trading.

It is understood that S. E. Gray is intending soon to commence the construction of a dwelling on his property on the hill south of town.

Henry Cersovsky, of Culver, was in town Tuesday, and made a filing on a homestead on the other side of the Deschutes River.

Mrs. S. E. Evens, of the Opal City country, was stricken Sunday afternoon with an attack of paralysis, and at present is under the care of Dr. Ramsey, of Metolius.

W. E. Van Allen of Redmond, one of the Republican candidates for the office of Assessor, in Madras and vicinity the early part of the week getting acquainted with the people.

A. J. Henneman, of Portland, who homesteaded a tract of land in the vicinity of Metolius, has been in this section the past week, looking after business interests here.

J. T. Smith, a former resident of Madras, joined his wife, who is a sister of Mrs. W. J. Cowherd, Saturday evening. They expect to spend several days visiting friends in this section.

C. Sam Smith, of Prineville, is in Madras today looking over the Democratic political situation, and circulating some petitions for Dr. Harry Lane, of Portland, candidate for the United States Senate.

Miss Elva J. Smith, who has been teaching in one of the departments of the Prineville public schools, returned to Madras Monday, having finished her term there, and is at the home of her sister, Mrs. B. S. Larkin.

Rev. Foskett, of Bend, Baptist missionary for Central Oregon, was in Madras and preached Saturday morning at the Christian Church, Sunday preaching at Metolius, where he expects to establish a church in the near future.

Contractor Echelberger has been in town several days this week making preparations for the repairing of the Christian Church, which was badly scorched by fire a couple of months ago. The church association was awarded $190.00 damages.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack White, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Stanton, Miss Henderson, Miss Hazel Barnett, Mrs. Pearl Osborn, John Campbell, Ben Ashley, Lex Long, Jack Church and Tom McCormack were among the Madras people who attended the dance at Metolius last Friday night. All report having had a big time.

Robert E. Jordon, an old time resident of the country on the south side of the Metolius River, was in Madras the early part of the week, making proof on his timber and stone claim.

Mr. Jordon says that his section of the county is settling up very fast during the past year, and that many permanent and beneficial improvements are being made in that section.

J. B. Neville, a partner of County Surveyor Rice, and himself deputy county surveyor, is in town today doing some work for the City in running some grades and sidewalk levels. This work has long been needed, and it is hoped that the City Council will compel the property owners to put their walks on a uniform level.

H. S. Crothers, vice-president of the Madras State Bank, who resides in Spokane, arrived in Madras Saturday evening and expects to remain until the new bank building is ready for occupancy.

Chris Henske of Nebraska, who is visiting at the home of his brother, Fred Henske, the pioneer Methodist Hill homesteader, is much pleased with this country. The brothers had not seen each other since the younger one came to this section ten years ago. Chris is a well to do farmer in Nebraska, but it is probable that he will sell his interests there, and locate here. The scenic wonders of this country and the delightful climate have so charmed him that he has already become a booster for Central Oregon.—Metolius Central Oregonian.

Cleaning Time

With the coming of the warm spring days that we have been having this week, we hear the lamentations of the gentle husbands, when their wives begin to talk about cleaning house. The men always know what to expect when the houses are all torn up and there are carpets top clean and stoves to take down and numerous other jobs that go with the housecleaning.

What we are really getting at is this, that there should be a movement started to have the property owners of the town clean up their yards, and the city officials have the streets cleaned, so that when a stranger comes to town, he may see that pride is being taken in the looks of the town.

A Safe Place.

It was at a dinner party. The bright young man sat next to the young woman with beautiful arms and neck. The fair companion suddenly exhibited signs of nervousness. Two of his best jokes passed unnoticed. Her face wore a look of alarm. "I am in misery," she said. "In misery?" echoed the man. "Yes. I was vaccinated the other day, and it has taken beautifully. I can almost scream, it hurts so." The young man looked at the beautiful arms. No sign there. "Why, where were you vaccinated?" he asked surprisedly. "In Boston," she said, the smile chasing away the look of pain.
