ISOLATED TRACTS

The Senate and House of Representatives have agreed on an amendment of the Isolated Tract Act that will be of interest and importance to many in Oregon, and other public-land states. The bill originated in the House and passed that body after brief debate. It was called up in the Senate on March 16, and after a pro forma amendment was passed by a unanimous vote. That the bill will bear the signature of the President and be a law within a few days is assured.

The new feature is that isolated tracts not wholly surrounded by lands that have been filed on or entered if the "greater part" of the same is "mountainous or too rough for cultivation" may be ordered on the market for sale on the application of the owner of adjoining lands, or by one who holds a valid entry adjoining the tract to be sold. In cases of this class only an owner of adjoining land or an adjoining entryman can make the application.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Crook County.

Guy R. Crawford, plaintiff,

vs

Marie A. Crawford, defendant.

To Marie A. Crawford, Defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action on or before the 10th day of May, 1912, and if you fail so to appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment against you for a decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as the court may deem just and equitable.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable H. C. Ellis, judge of County Court, of Crook County, State of Oregon, made this 21st day of March, 1912, and prescribed that this summons be published for six consecutive weeks in the Madras Pioneer, a weekly newspaper printed and published in Madras, Crook County, Oregon.

The date of the first publication of this summons is the 28th day of March, 1912.

Irving & Atkins, Attorneys for plaintiff.
