DANGER AHEAD.

-St. Louis Globe-Democrat, March 23, 1912

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS

CLAUDE C. COVEY WARMSRING, CROOK COUNTY

Candidate for Democratic Nomination for Representative in Congress—Second Oregon District

Looking Ahead. David A. Ball of Pike county, Mo., was once state senator and acted as lieutenant governor during the two years he presided over the senate. He had an ambition to be lieutenant governor in fact. One day he confided this ambition to his old family doctor. "The old man," Ball says in telling the story, "walked two blocks with me without making any comment. Then he turned and said: "That's all right, Dave, but look here: Suppose you were elected and the governor should die. Wouldn't that leave Missouri in a mighty bad fix?"—Saturday Evening Post.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Crook County.

Guy R. Crawford, plaintiff, vs Marie A. Crawford, defendant.

To Marie A. Crawford, Defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action on or before the 10th day of May, 1912, and if you fail so to appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment against you for a decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as the court may deem just and equitable.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable H. C. Ellis, judge of County Court, of Crook County, State of Oregon, made this 21st day of March, 1912, and prescribed that this summons be published for six consecutive weeks in the Madras Pioneer, a weekly newspaper printed and published in Madras, Crook County, Oregon. The date of the first publication of this summons is the 28th day of March, 1912.

Irving & Atkins, Attorneys for plaintiff.
