

Personal and Local

Born to the wife of B. S. Lark, Thursday, July 25, a son.

Mrs. M. E. Percival has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Brown, at Kaskella.

Jerry Schooling, of Haycreek, was a visitor in Madras Monday attending to business matters.

J. T. Robinson and sons, of Culver, were down Wednesday trading and visiting relatives.

Ralph Young and wife were in town Saturday from their home at Gateway.

R. T. Starr, traveling agent for the Great Northern Express Company, was in Madras Wednesday looking up business for his company.

L. G. Savage made commutation proof on his homestead so the east of Madras, before Commissioner Turner last Monday.

Frank Carey and family, of Salem, Oregon, are spending the week at the home of Mr. Carey's sister, Mrs. W. R. Cook.

John T. Monical, of Grandview on the west side of the Deschutes River, came over Monday on business before the U. S. Commissioner.

J. C. George, of Asotin, Washington, returned to his home, after spending several days in this vicinity looking after land holdings.

G. M. Elkins, John Baylis and D. M. Trolan, of Blizzard Ridge, were in Madras Friday and Saturday attending to business matters and trading.

Mansel Wheeler and M. R. Osborn, of Grizzly, were in town looking after land business Tuesday, and trading with the local merchants.

Albert Sims and James A. Garrett, of Blizzard Ridge, were over Tuesday as witnesses in the homestead proof of Frank Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hinkle, of Prineville, are spending some time at the home of Mr. Henry Wilson, Mrs. Hinkle's father, northeast of Madras.

Frank Barber, from the other side of Haycreek, made final five year proof on his homestead before Commissioner Turner Tuesday.

Misses Hazel and Ada Culp, who have been spending a few weeks at the home of their grand mother, Mrs. W. H. Culp, returned to their home at Burns the latter part of last week.

D. G. Gay, of the Blizzard Ridge country, was in Madras Tuesday looking after land matters. He expects to make proof on his homestead about September 1.

Porter Ashley has bought two lots just south of Mrs. W. H. Culp. He has not decided whether he will build, or move his house from its present location near the depot on Agency Plains.

"Red" Hobson, proprietor of the Merrimac Cafe, has closed his place of business and is looking for a new location. Here's hoping that he will find a place soon, for maybe he will engage in another bread war.

Saturday O. A. Pearce took Mrs. Pearce and son Glenn, Mrs. S. E. Gray and children and Mrs. Porter Ashley over to the head of the Metolius River, where they will spend a couple of months during the hot weather.

Tuesday of last week at the home of Anderson L. Williams, on the Little Plains, west of Madras, occurred the death of James W. Williams, at the age of 74 years. Mr. Williams was born in the state of Ohio, coming west soon after his service in the Civil War, residing in California and Oregon most of the time. While in California about a year ago, Mr. Williams was stricken with paralysis, from which he recovered, his death resulting from a second shock.

Notice of Contest

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon, July 15, 1912. To Glenn M. Barber, of Somers, Mead.

Contestee: You are hereby notified that William O. Rasmussen, who gives Metolius, Oregon, as his post-office address, did on June 19, 1912, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead, Serial No. 08893 made May 10, 1911, for s1/2 sec. 26, Range 14 East, Township 12 S., Range 14 East, Willamette Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that said Glenn M. Barber has failed to establish his residence on said land; that he has failed to build a house or make any other improvements on said land; that there is no house or other buildings on said land; that no improvements have been made on said land.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be cancelled thereunder without your further right to be heard therein, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifying meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to the contestant in person, proof of such service must be either the said contestant's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the copy, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made stating when and where the copy was delivered; if made by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed stating when and the post office to which it was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

While splitting wood Sunday, J. W. Bones, residing east of Madras, had the misfortune of having a clip of wood strike him in the eye, causing a very painful wound. The injured optic has been cared for by Dr. Snook, and nothing serious will result is the opinion of the doctor.

H. S. Crothers, of Spokane, one of the stockholders of the Madras State Bank, came in Friday evening and will remain some time looking after his interests in this section. He was accompanied by C. H. Kerbaugh, of Wisconsin, who will be assistant cashier, taking the place of J. L. Dehuff.

W. J. Rogers, a horse buyer from near St Paul, Minnesota, has been spending several weeks at the Warm Springs reservation, buying horses from the Indians. Mr. Rogers has 210 ready to load and as soon as they are passed on by the State Veterinary, they will be loaded at Mecca and shipped to Toppinish, Washington, where he has several cars more, and from there the entire consignment will be shipped to St Paul by special train.

A party of railroad officials, accompanied by Mr. Crozier, the official photographer of the Hill lines in Oregon, were in Madras and on the Agency Plains Wednesday, securing some views of the harvest fields and the many harvesting outfits now in operation. Mr. Schroeder, of the Great Northern R. R. stated that they had secured some very fine views, and that probably they would make arrangements to secure others before the season was over. The party were with Clyde Hobson and left about 5 o'clock for points south of Crooked River.

J. H. Garrett, one of the old-timers in Central Oregon and Northern Crook County, has sold his interests here and left Saturday morning for Portland and Vancouver, B. C. Mr. Garrett came to Central Oregon in October 1879 and has resided in the northern part of Crook County to the present time. He acquired land on Trout Creek, which he put under a high state of cultivation, selling his holdings to J. G. Bolter for $5500.
