NEWS FROM OUR NATIONAL CAPITAL

Regulars and Progressives in Senate Pass Republican Sugar Tariff Bill.

Washington.—A republican sugar tariff bill, the first purely republican revision measure of the present congress, was adopted in the senate. Deserting their democratic allies, the republican progressives, by an ironclad agreement with the regulars, succeeded in passing a tariff reduction bill which they believe President Taft will sign. The vote was 56 to 3.

The three lonesome negative votes were cast by Heyburn of Idaho and Foster and Thornton, both of Louisiana.

As enacted, the measure proposes a straight reduction in the duty on pure sugar from $1.82 to $1.50 per hundredweight. In effect there is also a further cut of 10 cents per hundred pounds in abolition of the present differential. The senate bill also does away with the Dutch standard of classifying sugars.

Senator Bristow, republican, Kansas, says that if the Lodge bill becomes a law there will be a loss of $5,500,000 in government revenue and that American consumers of sugar will save more than $22,000,000 a year.

The attitude of the senate democrats in finally supporting the republican bill is expected to have influence with the democrats of the house when the amended bill goes back there.

Republican Votes Pass Wool Bill.

Ten progressive republicans overthrew the regular republicans in the senate and joined the democrats in passing the La Follette woolen tariff revision bill as a substitute for the democratic measure framed by the house of representatives. The La Follette bill was adopted by a vote of 47 to 20.

Progressives who joined with the democrats in adopting the La Follette substitute were Borah, Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Gronna, Kenyon, La Follette, Poindexter and Works.

Senator Bourne voted against the La Follette bill as a substitute, but later voted for the amended measure on its final passage.

Bill Returned to House.

The amended bill goes back to the house of representatives and the resulting tariff situation is exactly that which followed the adoption of a woolen tariff in the special session of 1911. The La Follette bill is the same as passed then by the senate, with a raw wool duty of 30 per cent and an average duty of 55 per cent on manufactured goods.

The house bill is the same as then passed by the house with the raw wool duty of 20 per cent. Out of these two measures the conference committee last year evolved a compromise, which President Taft vetoed because the tariff board had not completed its woolen investigation. A conference committee will again take up the two bills and attempt to frame a substitute to send to the president.

Excise Tax Bill Passes Senate.

Democrats and progressives united again in the senate and by a vote of 36 to 18 passed the democratic excise tax bill, extending the present tax on corporations to the business of individuals, private firms and co-partnerships.

Attached to the measure also by the aid of republican votes, were amendments for the repeal of the Canadian reciprocity law and the fixing of a two dollar a ton tariff on print paper, and for the establishment of a permanent non-partisan tariff commission.

The excise measure would levy upon all persons, firms or co-partnerships, an annual tax equal to one per cent of net income in excess of $5000.

The senate changed the excise bill so that the tax would not apply to labor organizations, agricultural associations or fraternal insurance organizations.

National Capital Brevities.

Democrats in the house are divided over the naval plans. At a caucus Speaker Clark voted against the battleship program, while Leader Underwood voted in favor of battleships.

An investigation to determine whether any persons or organization in the United States have been engaged in fomenting rebellion in Cuba or Mexico was directed by the senate.

With still another session of the 62d congress to be held, the number of bills and resolutions already introduced at this congress has surpassed all previous records. By March 4, 1913, when the 62d congress ends, it is confidently expected a record will have been made which will stand for many years. There have been 25,934 bills introduced in the house thus far, and 7249 in the senate.

The senate has adopted an amendment to the sundry civil bill, proposed by Senator Borah, providing that homesteaders who made filings prior to June 6 to last may perfect title under the three year or five year homestead law, as they prefer.

OREGON BATTALION MUTINIES IN FIELD

Gate, Wash.—Mutiny broke out Sunday in the Third Oregon Infantry when the Second Battalion of four companies, commanded by Major Ryland Scott, refused to obey orders.

Directed to make a march of four miles from this point back to Oakville, whence they had just come, the battalion officers held a conference and decided not to obey. The order which was spurned was issued by Colonel John M. Poorman, commanding the Oregon regiment, at the instance of Brigadier-General Marion P. Maus, United States army.

As the outcome of the refusal to obey, four Oregon officers were placed under arrest at the direction of General Maus. The four are: Major Scott, Captain Harry T. Williams, Captain Walter L. Tooze, Jr., First Lieutenant Richard Deich.

To the charge of refusal to obey orders may be added a second charge of insubordination.
