MADRAS, OREGON
THE GATEWAY CITY

Situated at the Gateway to the vast Oregon interior, in the heart of the most fertile dry farming country in the Northwest, Northern Cook County, whose products have received prize after prize at the Dry Farming Shows Wherever Madras products have been exhibited they have taken the lion's share of prizes.

They have entered in competition with the best specimens that could be procured from the fields of the most productive dry farms in the West, from localities where dry farming is a much more mature industry than it is in Northern Oregon County. The transformation of this great territory from range to farm is a process that has occupied for less than a decade.

The prize-winning products of Northern Oregon County are not limited to grain alone. Under the methods of scientific cultivation practiced by the farmers of today, the Crockery eroded crops of the American farms are produced in precision and quality. Alfalfa, the rich grass hay, is an important factor in making the farmer's profits, and Corn, Fruit, Potatoes, and Vegetables of all kinds are sure and reliable. Poultry and Live Stock thrive, and animal health ranks high.
