A Willful Misrepresentation.

The Oregonian makes a terrible parade over a lying assumption of its own, that the Democracy established negro suffrage in Wisconsin. Now the facts are these, and the Oregonian must be vastly ignorant indeed, not to know them, that negro suffrage was not established in Wisconsin until recently, and was only accomplished then, at the expense of the India Rubber consciences of a venal and corrupt Black republican Bench.

In 1849 there was a vote taken in the State of Wisconsin to determine whether or not negroes should vote. The proposition was put at a general election, and only excited the ridicule of every one save a few crazy abolitionists, who voted affirmatively on the silly proposition. It received near four hundred votes in the entire State. Nobody was even silly enough to vote against it. The matter died away of its own accord; those voting for it not even being silly enough to claim that it had passed. Now near twenty years after this transaction, a Judicial Bench, composed of idiots and fanatics and imbeciles, discover that a vote had been taken on this question; and because, forsooth, no one had been fool enough to pay any attention to it, that negro suffrage had been established by default. The Judges themselves agreed in their decision of the question, that one affirmative vote, in absence of any negative ballots was sufficient to carry the proposition, and in virtue of the same it would become a law. Strange indeed! that twenty years ago a law was passed in the State of Wisconsin and no man in the whole Commonwealth found it out until the Supreme Court discovered the fact very lately. This lie is just in keeping with the Oregonian. We wonder that the editor's hand is not palsied in the act of penning such brazen faced falsehoods. It will be remembered that some time since this same lying sheet charged that the forger Ketchum was a delegate to the Chillicothe Convention that nominated McClellan. The editor is either a wilful liar or a contemptible ignoramus. He may take which ever horn of the dilemma he chooses.

Cheering News.

From all parts of the County comes the welcome news that the people are determined upon a change of the administration of affairs both in State and County. With anything approaching a proper effort, Yamhill County will poll from 75 to 100 majority for the Democratic ticket on the first Monday in June. It has been ascertained beyond question that there is a Democratic majority in the County. The republicans know it, and hence they will make a super-human effort to overcome it. By observing their movements Democrats will discover at once the tricks they are resorting to. Every "doubtful" voter is besought and besieged by them on every hand—every conceivable character of inducements is being held out to them to obtain their votes. There is no strategy to which they will not resort; threats and intimidation will not be the least prominent in their programme. If these prove impotent to their ends, money will be employed. They have a committee in each precinct to attend to what they call "apostate republicans." We have no such trouble on our hands. "Apostate" Democrats are among the things that were. The gains are all on our side, and we have only to turn them to account to win a glorious and lasting victory over the sworn enemies of honesty and equal laws.

Think of this, Thou canting Hypocrites.

Black republican Editors and Orators profess great veneration for the memory of Mr. Lincoln. They say that the Democratic party is a secession—a Jeff Davis, a disunion party. Now in 1864 there were cast for President of the United States, 4,160,850 votes. Of this number the Democratic candidate received near two million voters in the North and none in the South. Now if these two million votes were traitors, the north presented quite a formidable array of traitors—near half the voters of the States voting. What do you think of the figures, you embodiments of mendacity?

Why, if these voters had chosen for the South to succeed, they would have risen in their majesty, and with their superior fighting material, have stricken you from the face of the earth. But to our point. Abraham Lincoln, in his second inaugural says that he is satisfied that there is no considerable number of persons of any party north, who entertain sentiments inimical to the preservation of the Union. What say you to this, you admirers of Lincoln? O! you that sally forth with a lie in your mouths and without the shadow of consistency on your sides, ponder these things. Explain if you will how you manage to declare the departed Lincoln the perfect embodiment of every thing honest, truthful and good, and at the same time declare the Democratic party a treasonable organization. You are liars, and the truth is not in you.

Hi! Hi!!—The Sentinel has a good thing from Douglas County in the shape of a report that a Democrat is cohabiting with a wench. Now, to be consistent, Mr. Sentinel, all of your kind should make your bows and pay your most marked compliments to this fellow, for practicing precisely upon your theory. You say that the negro is in all respects the equal of the white man, then why deride a Democrat for doing and thinking just as you do?

Then there is Thad Stevens the patriarch of your principals and faith, who lives with a wench black as ebony, and by whom he has "fotch" up a tribe of younger Stevens' not quite so black, all of them. (He hails from the land you all expect to go to when you die—New England, and has ever practiced upon your favorite theory to the letter—that of miscegenation.)

TURN OUT AND HEAR THEM.—On Thursday (day after to-morrow) Col Kelley, Democratic candidate for Governor and his opponent, George L. Woods Esq., will speak at this place. We hope there will be a general turnout, of all classes of our citizens to hear them. Col. Kelly has everything to gain and nothing to lose by comparison of talents and fitness for the Governor of a great State, with Mr. Woods. Mr O'Meara is expected to accompany the above named gentlemen, and will also address the people of Yamhill County on that occasion.

Messrs. Hayden and Caton will also be on hands and speak. The 10th will be an interesting day.

WILL HE DO IT.—It is expected hereabout that "George L. the sneezer" will explain that little matter of cutting the halliards of the American flag at McMinnville, on Thursday next. A number of republicans are said to know all about that little feat of patriotism, and are also said to be ready to face George L. or any other man that denies the charge.

The Masons have organized a lodge at Helena with twenty eight members.

Glad To See It.

We have just received the Troy (Ohio) Times, of March 8, published near the place of our birth. Perusing the advertising columns of the Times, we recognize many familiar names. It is still conducted by our old friend, E. C. Harmon, and is as ever, well sustained by the local business community, in an advertising way. A merchant in that country who does not advertise in the local paper, is regarded by customers as being too parsimonious to give as good bargains as those that do.

The Times lets us down with the following notice, which is duly appreciated, but we cannot go over forty miles "further west," until the little brook known as the Pacific Ocean becomes fordable.

We have received the first number of the COURIER, published at Lafayette, Oregon, by our old friend J. H. Upton, formerly of Troy, associated with W. J. Bowman. The last we had previously heard of him, he was publishing a paper in Iowa, and then as now was hammering away to prove the infallibility and immutability of Democratic principles, according to the latest interpretation. Peculiarly we wish him the best of luck; and ultra as he is we cannot charge him with carrying his political principles too far—indeed we could not blame him if he should carry them a thousand miles further west and then "settle down."

Books.—Mr. Wm. Starkey is canvassing this and other Counties by subscribers to a book entitled "The Life and Public Services of Andrew Johnson," and also a history of Gen Grant, his Campaigns and Generals.

We examined sample copies of those works, and can say that they are well printed and neatly and substantially bound. Persons desiring to possess themselves of these works cannot do better than to take them of Mr. Starkey. They are reasonably cheap, and are sold only by subscription.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—Our excellent correspondent at Forest Grove whose communication will be found in this paper, assures us that there are strong hopes entertained in that County of the success of the Democratic ticket. The Democracy are alive up there, and if they do not carry that abolition strong hold it will not be for the want of well directed exertion. Dr. Bailey is a host of himself on the stump, and will make it warm for any speaker they can pit against him.

ONIONS, BEANS, &c &c.—Our farmers and gardeners the present Spring would do well to make a note of the fact, that Beans and Onions are much enquired after at this time, with none in the market. Beans have been imported from abroad and sold in Lafayette for 8 cents per lb. Onions command like high figures when any can be had. We can see no possible excuse for the necessity of importing products of the earth that grow so abundantly in our own soil. Onions and Beans are both profitable crops, considered in any view. An acre of land cannot be cultivated with so profitable a return as in Onions, and they are always in demand in any market. Beans, too, can be grown profitably, and are also in ready demand anywhere—are, like Onions one of the staples of the produce market.

AN ERROR.—Some weeks since we were handed a copy of the "Missouri Gazette," published in 1808, and made a note of the same in our columns as having been handed us by Esquire Ayers. This was a mistake. It was Mr. J. W. Burnett, instead of Mr. Ayers, from whom we obtained that interesting relic of by gone days.

WASHINGTON COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—On Saturday next the Democracy of Washington County meet by their Delegates, at Hillsboro, for the purpose of nominating Candidates to be voted for at the coming June election; and it is to be hoped that they are not only to be voted for, but elected. If the opposition should carry that County at all, (which is not recorded) it will be by a greatly reduced majority, so the Democracy will have achieved a decided victory. Washington County has abundance of Democratic material from which to select candidates who can conduct the canvass with ability and reflect honor upon the cause.

SMARTY AGAIN.—The cynic of the Oregonian has botaken himself again to the laudable business of picking cotemporaries up on little errors and misprints.

He knows that we could fill a column each week from the Oregonian with like blunders. In the same paper that "goes after us" he apologises for misprints—for the types making him say what he did not intend to say. Poor fellow! A rare specimen of the genus homo.

THE OLD GUARD.—The April number of this splendid Magazine is on our table. It is much improved in appearance and usefulness. The number before us contains number of masterly written articles, the "Editor's Table" (which is always interesting) and chap V & VI, of a highly interesting and exciting story entitled, "Bertha Seely heroine of the Old Dominion." Persons desiring the story complete which all will when they see it) can procure the same by sending for back numbers. It is still being continued.

WE CANT AFFORD IT.—The Sentinel accuses us of striking the Dailey Oregonian over our forms and sending it to him for an exchange, and says he will take it "that way all the time." We cant afford to supply your bus, as the Oregonian is of some value to us. We would, however, return you the Sentinel thus printed, but the little thing will not cover our forms, so we cant "work it off."

FAIR WHAT?

Can you not see how unjust you are toward the fair in harboring these unworthy suspicions?—Portland Cynic.

We are at a loss to determine what "fair" the Cynic has reference to in the extract quoted above. It may have been fair play, fair crop, fair average or fair swap! State Fair, County Fair, Sanitary Fair or the fair sex. Who knows?

REV. MERCER AGAIN.—Suits have been commenced in San Francisco by Mrs. Thorn and others against the puritan thief Mr. Mercer, for the recovery of monies advanced him, and damages for the nonperformance of his contract. He has filed answers denying each and every charge. Boyakin will probably join him in San Francisco and take an interest in his troubles. Par nobile fratum.

HON. J. D. FAY, Democratic nominee for Congress, addressed a large meeting at the Court House last evening on the political issues of the day. Mr. Fay is a good speaker, and promises to make a lively canvass. He was followed by Mr. Barnum, of Union County, who made a brief speech.—Mountaineer.

THE LAFAYETTE MAIL.—we are informed by private letter from Washington City, that the contract for carrying a semi-weekly mail between Portland, Hillsboro and Lafayette, has been awarded to Mr. D. M. Fields, of this city.—Oregonian.
