An Interesting Colloquy.

Yesterday a gentleman, Johnson republican, who has lately announced his determination to vote the Democratic ticket, was accosted by a radical who is making himself "useful" in that defunct cause, as follows:

Radical: "Well, ———, I am told you have joined the copperheads; is that so?"

Johnson man: "I do not know, about that: If my support of the only party that supports the constitution and the Country makes me a copperhead, I plead guilty, to the charge."

Rad: "If you do vote with the Democrats you will be sorry for it."

Johnson man; I am never sorry for, nor ashamed of, doing what my judgment tells me is right, and I think it is time all lovers of their Country were abandoning the so-called Union party; it is not what it professes to be, and what I used to think it was. Our leaders you know, always told us that as soon as the people of the South laid down their arms, and sent representatives to Congress, the union was restored—they have done this, and the union party say they are out of the union, and that the union is dissolved.

Rad: "Don't Geo. L. Woods support the President?"

Johnson man: "No. He supports Congress." Rad: Well, I know he does, but then he supports the President too."

Johnson man: Impossible! Mr. Johnson says: "The principles of my restoration policy are fundamental. No man can approve of my policy and that of Congress at the same time. That is impossible."

Radical: Mr. Mallory supports the President. Johnson man: "I did not hear Mr. Mallory speak, but have been told by no less than five republicans who with myself are going to vote for Mr. Fay, that Mallory ridiculed the President as being a drunken sot—said he was all the time drunk on Democratic whisky."

Radical: "I think you will change your notion before the election comes off, and vote as you always did, the strait 'union' ticket."

Johnson man: Never. I voted the union ticket, only because I was in favor of the restoration of the Union, and for this very reason I shall vote the Democratic ticket. My mind is made up on that point. I am convinced, as every person ought to be, that the union party is determined to destroy the government. Andrew Johnson, the President we elected says so. Wm. H. Seward says so, Frank Blair says so. The New York Times, the best republican paper in America, says so, and a host of other great and good men say so, and the present radical Congress is proving every day just what they all say.

Mr. Radical looks woe begone and decamps.

JUST LIKE THEM.—A radical paper suggests that Ex Governor Whiteaker was "let down by the Democracy when the conferred upon him the nomination for member of they House of Representatives. Tell that editor that John Quincy Adams was a member of the lower house of Congress subsequently to being President, he would write to the Post-Office Department immediately to know if it was not a copperhead lie.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—The Democracy of Lane County have nominated Gov. Whiteaker for a seat in the Legislature. The Governor is a pure minded honest man, and is very popular wherever known. A nomination in Lane County is equal to an election.

Senator Nesmith.

We are permitted to make an extract from a letter from Hon. J. W. Nesmith, dated at Washington City, April 16, 1866. Mr. Nesmith says:

"I am glad to hear that the people of Oregon sustain the Statesman like and conservative policy being pursued by President Johnson. If that policy fails, and the Radicals succeed in their unconstitutional designs, the Union will never be restored."

J. W. NESMITH.

Senator Nesmith having been all the time at the center of the scene of the commotion, since the disunion Radicals opened their batteries against the President and the Constitution, has ample opportunities of knowing and of realizing the exact situation.

Voters of Oregon! Will you support a man for Congress who is pledged in advance to go with the Radicals to any extreme—even to the annihilation of the Constitution that so much blood has been spilt to preserve? If so vote for Mallory.

If you desire the preservation of the government, vote for James D. Fay. Our Senator knows all about it, and he says if the radicals succeed, the country is ruined.

"We don't know the politics of Wells, the man who Baker saw cut the flag down."—Cynic.

If the testimony of Mr. S. C. Adams is good for anything with the Cynic, and if his vote in this county as regularly recorded and now on file, are evidence to the Cynic, he may rest assured that Wells was a regular disunion—Abolition republican of the "most straitest sect."

Democrats revere the flag of their country, and hence the fact of the Cynic and his confidants being so obnoxious to them. Democrats were never known to trail that flag in the dust—Black republicans have been known to do such things on divers occasions. For a stipulated sum paid by George L. Woods, the flag was wantonly insulted in McMinnville.

THE NEGROONIAN thinks that since John L. Baker "affiliated" on the subject, Geo. Woods, is clear of the crime of cutting by proxy, the halliards of the famous McMinnville Flag. Will any person vouch for the reliability of any statement "Cultus" John Baker makes? We have heard of no one who will. Morally he is regarded with loathing more profound than is a Digger Indian. Woods is guilty. The simple fact that they could procure the services of no respectable party in his behalf condemns him.

 GOOD SPEAKING.—On the 23 inst. The Hon. A. E. Wait and Judge Trimble of Portland, addressed a good crowd of ladies and gentlemen at the Court House in Lafayette. They are both able speakers. It was amusing for the Democrats, and heart rending to Radicals to listen to the manner in which Judge Wait annihilated the thing the radicals call their platform. Their speeches had a splendid effect.

SEE THAT THEY DONT VOTE HIM.

Some of the radicals are silly enough to suppose they can vote the black republican in jail in this place for stealing Mr. McSwain's horse. They argue that he has not been convicted, and is therefore not a felon.

BEGGING.—Mr. Sullivan in his speech on Friday eve, having been informed of the great number of former republican voters who were going to vote the Democratic ticket, conjured all such, that, if they could not consistently vote the radical ticket, to "scratch" the most objectionable candidates, when they were voting with the Democracy. It will be no go, Mr. Sullivan.

A Fact, to be Accounted For.

All republicans or radicals do not violate the peace and disturb political speakers, but all who have been guilty of ill bred and ungentlemanly conduct during the present campaign, have been republicans. Col. Kelly was wantonly insulted in Lafayette while he was speaking, and later, the lie was given to Mr. Fay while he was speaking here, though in so low a tone as for that gentleman not to hear it. He was similarly insulted in some of the northern Counties.

We learn that some loyal scavenger asserted that Mr. Fay lied whilst he was speaking lately in Salem, and was thankful afterwards for the privilege of getting away with a mashed mouth. We can account for this evidence of ill breeding among the radicals on no other hypothesis than that of the inexorable law of affinity. The radical party being a very filthy concern, the scum of society naturally drift into its blighting embrace.

Low, Vile and Contemptible.

The Statesman resorts to the Fish Market tactics characteristic of its party, and asserts that one 13th only of the convicts in the Oregon Penitentiary are "Union" men. With black republican Judges, Prosecuting Attorneys and Juries in every District save one in the State, and an intensely partizan and not a very scrupulous Governor to dispense pardons, it is only wonderful that a single republican boards at the institution.

We challenge the Statesman man or any other traitor to an investigation of the political antecedents of the culprits who have received pardons during the four years last past.

R. R. LAUGHLIN, was, prior to the late Presidential election, absent from Yamhill County for the space of 18 months, during which time he acquired a residence and had voted elsewhere, but returning on the eve of the election, is said to have sneaked up to the polls and voted early in the morning of election day, and absenting himself for the remainder of the day. A specimen of Radical honesty, you know.

Would not this Laughlin make an interesting legislator with a crime so black suspended like a pall over his conscience?

IT'S A FACT.—The more knowing ones of the radicals admit that George L. Woods is doomed to run far behind his ticket in this County.

CATALOGUE Laughlin was once appointed Administrator of the estate of a deceased man in this county who had left a Will. The widow of the deceased applied to the Administrator to know her duties in the premises, when she was instructed by Laughlin to go ahead and make any disposition of the property she chose that "I am Administrator and that is all the law requires." It turned out that the Will had never been proved as the law directed, and that the advice of this solon of Probate matters came very near getting things in a troublesome shape.

CITY ELECTIONS.—Elections are taking place in many of the Cities East, and the almost universal result is, Democratic Victories—often by very large majorities.

Abolitionism will be a defunct institution before two more years roll round. Mark the prediction.

DISTRIBUTE THEM.—We again send out packages to many persons in Yamhill and Washington Counties, of extra COURIERS and hope those to whom they are entrusted will deliver them promptly to readers.

J. LAMPSON is said to be extremely unpopular among his neighbors, owing to fatal and unpardonable delinquencies on his part in his business relations with them. This insures South Yamhill to Mr. Stanley.

CANDIDATES FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.—On last Friday eve, Messrs Johnson (Democrat,) and Sullivan (Radical) addressed a tolerable house in this place. Mr. Johnson lead off, and we are sure he made a decided good impression. Most of his hearers were much pleased with the manner and matter of his address. He is emphatically a good reasoner.

Mr. Sullivan followed in a speech of an hour and three quarters—devoted exclusively to the effort to disprove Mr. Johnson's propositions, but failed conclusively. Those gentlemen treat each other with commendable courtesy.

THAT ANTI-COERCION CHARGE.

Horace Greeley, the great radical luminary, from whom all lesser radicals receive their light and draw their inspiration, was also opposed to coercion. He said that he wanted to let her go in peace—that the government had no right to make war on her. Greeley still contends that he was right and correct in the opinions he expressed at that time. In a late number of the Tribune, March 13, Greeley says:

"But even this does not express the whole truth. Tens of thousands voted for Secession as a defiance to Northern threats of 'coercion.' They voted—not that they wished to leave the Union—but that they would not be held in it by force. * * * We did not wish any fighting."

Speaking of the position of the Journal of Commerce, The Tribune of the same date says: "Now it talks as though it had stood in the front rank for the coercionists. We, certainly, did not. We never proposed to force, nor buy, nor wheedle, nor beseech the South to remain in the Union: It was never necessary to do either. A simple proffer by the North that the South, faithfully canvassed and fairly polled, should decide, by a majority vote of her people, whether to stay in the Union or go out of it, would have saved the awful carnage and waste of the war."

State Oregon Personally appeared County of Yamhill, signed Justice of the Peace, in and for said County and State, Aaron Lynch, who deposes and says: That on or about the 3, day of May, 1866, at Eugene City, Lane Co., Oregon, L. Kenedy and myself were in a conversation about the cutting of the American Flag down at McMinnville, Yamhill Co., Oregon, when Geo. L. Woods came out of Underwood's Law Office and said: "What about that flag," and I stated to him that if I had been in his place I would have stood my ground yesterday when the cutting of the flag came up, and if I was clear of it, I would have made the man "hunt his hole." Then Woods said that he understood some one had stated that John L. Baker stated that he (Woods) had got said Baker to cut the flag down. Then Woods stated that Baker said, that the man who stated that told a—Then deponent stopped him (Woods) by laying his hand on his shoulder, saying stop. I will tell you what I know about it. In a conversation with Baker he said that he (Baker) was going to leave the Union party, that he would not stay with a party that would have the American flag cut down. Deponent said to Baker "Did they do it?" He said "they did," and deponent asked who did it, and Baker said George Woods got him and Wells to do it, and he (Baker and Wells) went by the flag pole and Wells cut the rope with his knife and let the flag fall. Deponent says further that Woods said that he would tell me all about the flag, and then Woods said that Wells voted the Union ticket and John L. Baker, (sp'd e'gle asw call him) also voted the Union ticket. They went and cut it down then he (Woods) said that Wells, Baker, Adams and some one else got together the morning before and concluded to have some sport' so Wells and Baker cut it down, that is, Wells and Baker went, and Wells did the cutting.
