

THE COURIER

TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1866.

GLEANNINGS.

From the Daily Oregonian of the 25th ult. we learn that Sheriff Berry, of Grant county, arrived on Saturday from east of the mountains, with Mc-Lewis, convicted of murdering his partner in a mine at Olive Creek, a few months since. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for the remainder of his term of life.

The Yreka Union of the 16th says: Last Saturday twelve freight teams arrived in this place, loaded with merchandise from Red Bluff.

From the same paper we learn that a Mr. N. Young was struck by the crank of a windlass on the head with such force as to fracture his skull.

It is said that Geo. L. the Sneezer expects to be called upon for a speech on the occasion of the celebration of the fourth at Salem. This is a wonderful display of cheek considering that he must be aware that the glorious old flag is usually flung in sight on such occasions.

We learn that Mr. Furnside, the Democratic candidate for Judge of Tillamook County, tied his competitor at the late election over there.

AN INTERESTING STORY.—Prof. Peck of Georgia, author of "Bertha Seely" is writing a story for the New York Day Book, the publication of which was commenced June 2, entitled "Beatrice, or a Tale of Sherman's march." Prof. Peck is an able and brilliant writer, and when the abundance of materials furnished by Sherman's march through the scene where this story is laid, is taken into the account, no one need doubt the thrilling and interesting character of the story. See terms of subscription of the Day Book in another column, and persons subscribing now and for some time yet would do well to have their subscriptions date back so as to include the first chapter of this charming story.

THE IDAHO Territorial Democratic Convention has nominated Hon. E. D. Holbrook for reelection to Congress from that Territory. A deserved compliment, and a befitting endorsement of a faithful Representative and a true Democrat. The people of Idaho will best subserve their interests by returning Mr. Holbrook to Congress.

DOWELL of the Sentinel, speaking of his Salt River destination says he has been kindly furnished with a "mool" by some democrat, to ride 'up there' on.

How is it?—The Statesman and kindred disunion sheets have time and again asserted that no Democrat could be a patriot. In the paper above named, of the 25 ult., we noticed a very truthful and becoming eulogy on the life and public services of the lamented Cass. The query comes in right here. General Cass never voted any other than the Democratic ticket in his life, so far as is known to any one now living. It involves the taking back of a thousand calumniations respecting Democrats for the Statesman to style General Lewis Cass a "patriot." Who knows how long it will be before Democrats will, sure enough have rights that Abolitionists will be under obligations to respect. Wonder if late elections in Oregon and elsewhere are without their fruits?

THANKS TO HON. J. W. NESMITH, our worthy Senator in Congress for valuable Pub. Documents franked to us recently.

The good people are requested to bring in a good supply of provisions, such as bread, cooked meats, vegetables, &c. &c.

A premium of $5.00 awarded to the lady contributing the best cake. By order of COMMITTEE.

TILLAMOOK MAIL.—Mr. Wm. Squires, contractor for carrying the mail from Lafayette to Tillamook and return once a week, started on his first trip to day. The want of this mail accommodation has long been seriously felt by the enterprising settlers of that rich, yet for the time being, isolated section of the country.

The Tillamookans will now be able to get the news inside of two days at farthest after it is received at this point. The people over there will doubtless be glad that their term as "outside barbarians" has expired.

THE STATESMAN learns that the P. T. Company intend putting a Steamer on the Tualatin River where there are about fifty miles of navigation through Washington County. We hope this enterprise will be pushed forward as it will be a decided auxiliary in the development of the superior agricultural resources of that County.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT.—Judge Boise will hold a special term at this place, for the trial of the two prisoners now in the County jail, charged with the crimes respectively of bigamy and larceny, commencing on next Monday. The trial of the Yamhill contested election cases will probably come before his honor at this place.

SIGNIFICANT—VERY.—Sangamon County Illinois never has gone Democratic, but the late Election in Springfield in that County and State, the home of Lincoln, and where the Lincoln monument is being reared, lately went Democratic by an overwhelming majority. Straws have their weight.

J. W. SULLIVAN, said to be the most extensive News Dealer in San Francisco, has laid us under obligations by sending us by mail a large package of late Eastern papers and magazines, among which is several numbers of Harper's and also Leslie's pictorial Weeklies.

Mr. Sullivan's Price List may be seen posted up in the COURIER Office. Persons desirous of purchasing any of the publications named on this list cannot do better than to patronize him. He fills orders for country dealers promptly and cheaply.

The 3rd Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church South, for Lafayette Circuit will be held in Chehalis Valley, commencing on the Saturday before the 2nd Sunday in July, 1866, at 11 o'clock P. M. A. E. Sears, P. E.

REV. JAMES KELSAY will conduct divine service in Lafayette, on 3rd Sabbath of each month, at 11. o'clock A. M.

A Campbellite Preacher shot Dead for the Seduction of a Young Girl.

In a late number of the Chicago Times is reported in detail the proceedings of a trial lately had in New Albany, Ind., of one Newland for the killing of a Campbellite preacher named Evans, for seducing and ruining his daughter Helen, whom he entrusted to his guardianship as her teacher. From the tenor of the testimony of the ruined girl, it would appear that the man Evans was a most artful scoundrel.

CORRESPONDENCE.—It is our desire to chronicle from week to week in the columns of the COURIER all items of interest in Yamhill County; and to the end that we may be able to do this, invite our friends to post us on accidents, discoveries, marriages, deaths &c &c which may transpire in their respective localities.

UNDERTOOK TO PLAY EVEN.—A day or two since, a Darkey was employed to do some whitewashing about the premises of the Oregonian Office, and his bill not being paid on presentation, the aforesaid American citizen of African scent, proceeded by virtue of the authority vested in him under the civil rights bill, to steal about ten pounds of printer's ink from Mr. A. G. Walling's Job Office, with which he soon reversed the color of the walls just made white by the strokes of his brush. Strange as it may seem, the Oregonian man, complains editorially of this treatment and has his darkeyship arrested and locked up for thirty days. Had the poor negro been paid for his work there would have been no trouble. Is he not a man and brother?

OF COURSE.—Ever since it has been known that the two defeated candidates for Representative in Polk County were going to contest the seats of their successful competitors they have been counted by the blacks, with as much confidence as if they had received a hundred majority for the office. This betrays a shocking state of morals in that party. Indeed we have heard it said by the knowing ones in this place, with reference to our contested cases, "it does not matter how good your cause is, it will be decided by a strict party vote." According to this logic, and it is the settled policy of the black party, if it were necessary to give them a working majority in the House and senate, the Representatives elect in Linn County could be ousted from their seats by this nest of Jacobins.

EARLY ARRIVAL OF OVERLAND EMIGRANTS.—The Portland Herald of the 27 says:

The first arrival of prairie schooners appeared in town yesterday. They crossed the plains this season, and are bound for the Umpqua valley. We have satisfactory evidence that they have never been in Price's army; but add, however, for the consolation of certain parties, that they have never voted the Republican ticket. The young ladies accompanying the party, were rejoiced to reach a land of civilization, and to find themselves so near their journey's end.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—The Rev. Mr. McCarty, a Campbellite preacher was arraigned during the week past in Polk County, before a tribunal of the Church, charged with criminal intimacy with a certain female of supposed easy virtue. The proof against him is said to have been very positive, but what the verdict of the court was, we have not learned. If his partner in iniquity had been a victim nothing with all the proofs apparent, would probably have been said about the affair. Such is the degeneracy of the times.

WE REGRET IT.—The unusually hot days with which this country has been visited for the last few days, melted our ink roller, which we discovered but a short time before we were ready to go to press, which rendered it necessary for us to make a new one; hence we did not get this issue out in time for the mails to day.

FATAL AFFRAY IN PORTLAND.—From the local column of the Daily Herald we learn that on the night of June the 26, at the house of a Mrs. Lambert, two men, named respectively Mitchell and Williams, got into a fight using weapons, whereupon Williams was stabbed so severely that he died not long afterwards. The fatal altercation grew out of a remark made by one of the men touching the character of a certain female attache of the house. Mitchell, Mrs. Lambert and the female of supposed doubtful virtue were all arrested and conveyed to the lockup to await a hearing before Recorder Hoffman.

READ our Portland advertisements, and when you want anything in the line advertised, call on the gentleman whose business you will find represented in our columns. They are clever dealers and will sell you bargains.

SEMI-WEEKLY MAIL FROM PORTLAND.—Mr. Fields, contractor for the semi-weekly mail from Portland to Lafayette, via Hillsboro and Forest Grove, will probably be here today to commence that service. For this improvement in our mail accommodations we are highly indebted to Hon. J. W. Nesmith. It was his wish to secure for us a tri-weekly on this route, but the semi-weekly service was the most he could get for us at present. We will bide our time. The day is not far distant, when, if the people of this section do justice to themselves, Lafayette will be favored with a daily mail.

Since the above was in type, Mr. Fields has arrived from Portland, fully prepared for the execution of the semi-weekly service. He will run a hack for the accommodation of passengers, and will take pleasure in doing any business in Portland for our citizens they desire; he is prepared to carry small packages of freight on reasonable terms. Mr. F. is an old resident of Portland, knows all the business men there, and can therefore purchase packages of goods, such as papers, &c. may want him to carry, advantageously.

A Black Republican in Maine, who had served out his term of thirty days in the Augusta jail, was asked when he came out how he liked it. "I had a bully time," said he; "there were seventy of us in jail, and not a d—d Copperhead among us."

DRUNKENNESS IN THE SENATE.—The Radicals, says the Chicago Times, are demanding the expulsion of Mr. McDougall, of California, from the Senate, on the ground that his intemperate habits unfit him to discharge the duties of Senator. Will they also ask, for the same reason, that Chandler, Wade, Howard, Nye, Jim Lane, Yates and Sprague be expelled? Will the newspapers, which are vehemently indignant over the alleged misconduct of McDougall, spare their own Senators? We make no defence of drunkenness in Democratic Senators, but we want Abolitionists to clean their own doorsteps before making a clamor over what is unsightly in others. Will they rebuke their own whiskey-bloated partisan leaders? Will they not only insist upon the expulsion of the habitual drunkards of their own party? Nye, Yates, Wade, and Sprague are not only confirmed sots but blackguards and libertines in the bargain.

THE HONORABLE County Court, Judge Cowles presiding, is in Session this week.

THE POLK COUNTY contested election cases being tried at Dallas to day.

M. ISELEY

The Augusta (Georgia) papers announce the advent to that city of Miss Ann Eliza Lenk, who was born in that State without arms. She is represented as exceedingly attractive in person al appearance, and as exhibiting the most wonderful dexterity in the use of her feet. She writes with her toes much better than most people do with their hands, besides knitting, sewing, embroidering, crocheting, and doing all kinds of kneedlework, with astonishing ease and rapidity.

PROFITS OF ADVERTISING.

Horace Greeley having been written to by a Boston Druggist touching the amount certain parties in New York were paying him for advertising, answers as follows:

It is a matter that concerns a "Boston Druggist" and all business men, and we may as well state that Helmbold is paying the Tribune over $10,000 this year. He paid us $1,800 for one insert on one page in the Weekly Tribune, besides his column in the Daily Tribune. Bonner once paid us $5,00 for one insertion of an advertisement of the Ledger. He knew that by judiciously advertising he could insure a fortune. The old prejudice among druggists and physicians against advertising is dying out, and they as well as others see the cheapest mode whereby they can make themselves and their medicines known to the public, is by a wise and liberal system of advertising. Helmbold discovered this fact, and takes advantage of it.
