AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—It will be seen by notice published in another col., that a meeting of the Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society will be held at Salem on the 15th inst. Business of much importance to the interests of the Society will be transacted. We hope the meeting will be well attended, especially from Yamhill County.

BLOODY AFFRAY.—A lot of roughs entered a house in Douglas County not many days since where a dance was going on, and proceeded to assault any and every person within their reach. Some were killed during the maul, while others were badly wounded.

OFFICIAL ORGAN.—The Oregon Herald has been designated by President Johnson as the official organ of this department. All Government advertisements will hereafter appear in the columns of that paper. We congratulate the Herald on this success over his ranting and raving contemporaries. The services of papers that support the Government are beginning to be recognized and properly rewarded.

WORMER'S STEREOGRAPHIC.—This fine exhibition performed in Lafayette, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings last, the latter evening in the Church. This exhibition is different from anything of a similar character that has been through the country. The views disclosed by the aid of the powerful magnifying lights are truly wonderful. It is spoken of in the highest terms by all who witness it.

PROF. CARY'S SCHOOL.—This school, from one of humble and unostentatious pretensions, has arisen to a rank second to that of no school in our knowing. The excellent order and discipline enforced at accounts in a great measure for the unprecedented and increasing popularity of this school.

The Oregonian man advertises for information as to the meaning of the word "decalogue." By reference to Vol. 1, page 969, of "Webster on a Bridge," it will be seen it don't mean anything else.

There are 7 Post Offices in Yamhill County.

The Blacks hereabout are in great glee over the assumed espousal by the Chicago Times of negro suffrage. Here is what the Times says on the subject:

It would be the means of destroying the worst party that ever disgraced the earth.

The New Year's Ball at Mr. Oakes' in West Chehalis was in every respect the success of the season. Fifty one numbers were sold, and so pleasantly did every thing pass off that it was with apparent regrets that the festive assemblage contemplated the approach of the hour which should insinuate the propriety of a period to their hilarity.

No MORE.—As we some weeks since predicted the Oregon Statesman has "sold out," and for the reason predicted by us.

The proprietors of the Unionist were the purchasers.
