THE DYING WIFE'S APPEAL.

The following beautiful lines were placed in a scrap book of a now deceased wife about a week before her demise. How beautiful and touching they are under the circumstance, she expecting at the time to live but a short

"Come near me let me lay my hand Once more upon thy brow, And let me whisper in thine ear, Love's last and fondest vow. The lips that breathe these trembling words.

Will soon be cold in death, And thy dear cheek can feel no more Their warm and loving breath.

I go from thee: God only knows How I have longed to stay-How I have shuddered thus to tread The lone and shadowed way. Faith tells me that I soon must know The joys the blessed find. And yet I falter, while I cast A lingering look behind.

I see thee bowed before me here. In bitterness and tears: But I can leave thee something still, To light thy weary years: Young tender forms will cling to thee, Perhaps will miss my tone. And though they may not share thy grief, noitf Thou wilt not feel alone.

Fold them closer to thy breast, And soothe their childish woe, And cheer their many lonely hours The motherless must know. The world, with all its hopes and joys. Will sometimes make thee glad; But they must linger 'round the hearth Still desolate and sad.

And O, when time shall calm thy grief, Perchance the hour may come When thou wilt win another form To share thy heart and home-When thou wilt welcome to thy board A youger, fairer face,

And bid thy children smile on her, Who takes their mother's place. But think not, could I speak to thee,

That I would frown or blame. Though they should love the stranger one, And call her by my name : For they will speak to thee of me, My memory is their trust : A word, a smile, a look like mine

Will call me from the dust. Yet make my grave no place of tears, But let the dear ones bring, To cheer their mother's lonely home, The blossoms of the spring; And there thou too may'st kneel,

And softly press the earth That covers her, whose face once gave A brightness to thy hearth. Then will the forms of early years

Steal softly to thy side, And for an hour thou can'st forget Thou hast another bride. She may be all thy Leart can ask, So dear, so true to thee : But O, the spring time of thy love, Its freshness was for me.

May she be blest, who comforts thee, And with a gentle hand, Still guide our little trembling ones, Who make our household band. She cannot know the tenderness That fills their mother's heart, But she can love them for thy sake, And make thee more than blest.

Yet keep one place-one little place. From all the rest apart-One spot which I will call a home, Within thy faithful heart. And in the holy hour of dreams, When spirits fill the air, With tender eye and folded wing, I'll softly rest me there.

May God forgive this erring love, That is to mortals given; It always woos my spirit back From happiness and heaven. And yet I feel it will not die, When this frail life is o'er. But watch, till all my loved ones come,

When, we shall part no more,"

TAKENEXTERNALLY CURES: Boils, Felons, eld sores, Severe Burns and scalds, Cuts, Bruises and sprains, Swelling! of the Joints, Ringworm and Tetter, Broken Breasts, Frosted Feet and Chablains, Tooth ache, Neuralga and Rheumatism.

The PAIN HILLER is by anniversal consent allowed to have won for itself, a fame unsu rpasseed in the history of medical preparaeradication and extinction of PAIN in all its varoius forms incidental to the human family, and the unsolicited written and verbal testimony of the masses in its favor have been, and are, its own best advertisement

The ingredients which enter into the PAIN KILLER, being purely VEGESABLE' render it a perfectly safe and effications remedy taken in-ternally as well as for external applications, when useed according to deections. The slight stain upon linen from its use in exters nal applications, as readily removed by washs ing in a little alcohol.

Washington, Pa, June 2, 1866.

Messrs. Perry Davis & Son.

Dear Sirs During a residence of some ten years as missionary in Siam and China, I ning, connecting at Canemah with the Boats found your Vegetable PAIN KILLER a most val unble remedy for that fearful scourge—the cisco.

In administering the medicine, I found most effecual to give a tenspoonful of PAIN KILLER in a gill of hot water sweetened with sugar. Thes after about 15 minutes, begin to give a table spoonful of the same mixture, every minute until relief is obtained. Apply hot applications to the extremities. Bathe the bowels and stomach with the PAIN KILLER, clear, and rub the limbs briskly.

Of those who took the medicine faithfully in the way stated, about eight out of ten recovered. Traly yours.
