

THE COURIER.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1867.

THE NEWS.

We do not pretend to publish the telegraphic despatches in full, as two-thirds of them taken in detail are of no interest or importance to any one. We have decided to simply write up, collate and collate the news from the telegraphic columns of the Portland dailies. Under this heading will be found in the future, such news gleanings as we think of most importance to the general reader.

Bills have passed both Houses of Congress, providing that whenever Nebraska and Colorado shall consent through their Legislatures to confer the voting franchise upon their nigger populations, they shall be admitted into the Union by proclamation of the President. The Governors of these Territories are required by said act to convene their respective Legislatures in extra session to pass upon the terms imposed by Congress within thirty days from the passage of the same. So it will be seen that the people of the States and Territories may frame their local governments, provided, they do the same precisely as Congress shall dictate. What a superlative force!

Lyman Trumbull has been re-elected United States Senator from Illinois.

Chas. D. Drake has been elected to the U. S. Senate from Missouri, in place of B. Gratz Brown whose term is expired.

It was proposed by the radical destructionists to so manage the impeachment of the President as to work a suspension of that functionary from office during the remainder of his term, and to put Wade, the pale-faced nigger, in the chair of State, meanwhile. The eastern press as late as January 18th, admit the formidable power of the impeachment party which the late Supreme Court decision materially strengthens. The Times says the inauguration of the project are serious and zealous for impeachment. It is absolutely essential to their political purposes, their failure being the President's success; while the Republican party follow moderate Congressmen are already in the current, (?) the chances are two to one that the House sustains the impeachment, but scarcely possible that two-thirds of the Senate will agree to the removal, but they may suspend him. It is possible that the President will resist by all the means in his power, using the army and navy. The Times thinks Congress hesitates at extreme measures for fear of public sentiment. A strenuous struggle may be expected, disturbing the peace, business and credit of the country. The Tribune's Washington special says sufficient evidence is already before the committee to justify Ashley's action. The Herald says no pre-ordained event is more certain than the impeachment or removal of the President. The World says that well informed sources confirm our opinion that the radicals are bent upon impeachment. The European press discusses the subject with deep seriousness and in an alarming manner.

In the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, a resolution was introduced expressing indignation at the promotion of Edgar Cowan as Minister to Austria, charging the President with contemplating an insult to the people of Pennsylvania, and calling upon Republican Senators to reject the nomination. The liquor dealers' associations are reported to be raising half a million of dollars to secure the repeal of the excise law. Senator Cameron made a speech lately at Harrisburg in which he went for negro suffrage. He said he hoped to live to see the word "white" stricken from the Constitution, and denounced Andrew Johnson as a traitor to his country and even to humanity. Severe snow storms have prevailed in New York, Boston and other eastern cities. Boston was said to be almost literally snowed under. There has occurred lately a frightful succession of bank failures on Wall street. John Morrisey is reported among the "failed."

Gov. Morton, the garrulous old victim of loathsome disease, has been elected to the U. S. Senate from Indiana. Truly the Senate of the United States is become the sanctuary of the scum of the earth.

A SUPERANATED SCOLD.—The milk and water fossil of the Albany Democrat, realizing the fact that his rapid and wishy-washy ebullitions neither create consternation nor excite remark, and seeing that the COURIER is universally accredited as being one of the live institutions of the times, makes the remarks we made sometime since touching the very un-called for controversy he provoked between himself and the editor of the Oregon Herald, an excuse for assailing us in a manner in all respects in keeping with his fish market style.

This man courts martyrdom—is a restless, roving, inveterate seeker after fame, and is endowed with about as much intellectual vigor and vitality as a frost-bitten gourd; at least the general remark concerning his qualifications is in support of the theory of this comparison.

You shallow-pated nincompoop—the incarnation of vanity! You pompous, garrulous simpleton! You lately perpetrated a slashing, slashing, viperous and reeking two column leader against the Oregon Herald, and its able, gentlemanly and courteous editor, personally, who, by a few well digested blows, sent you reeling back, a salient object of the ebulliments of mankind. Of course the "late editor-in-chief," i. e. the whilom "butt of all good natured fun" about Portland, was in consequence somewhat humbled, and you were wont to vent your innoxious spleen upon some one, and so you lit down upon the COURIER. A presumptuous booby from an obscure quarter in the west, you supposed when you came to Oregon your towering intellect (?) would necessarily be the object of homage, remark and wonder. But alas! for human miscalculations! Your "gait" was soon understood even by the most obtuse "web foot." Your imbecility being constitutional, you need never again attempt to conceal it. A swaggering ninny, you are a reproach to the craft and a detriment to any cause you chance to espouse.

IT MAY BE SO.—The Advocate says that Senator Nye of Nevada, is an upright honorable, christian gentleman, and that the young State of Nevada will best subserve its honor and interest by returning him to the U. S. Senate. Those who are personally acquainted with "Jim Nye," as he is called where he is known, will regard the information that he is a christian with some degree of distrust, unless indeed it can be made to appear that Christianity qualifies a man for drinking more bad whisky than any other man in the county where he ("Jim") resides.

ADIEU TO THAT TRAGEDY.—Since the publication by us last week of the strictures upon the party upon whom the evidence we had, fixed the responsibility of the matter treated of, circumstances have transpired which convince us that there are two sides to the unfortunate affair, and that the subject of our remarks upon that occasion is entitled at least to the benefit of a doubt as to any definite complicity in the guilty transaction imputed to him in the premises.

REQUESTED TO RESIGN HIS SEAT.—The frantic conclave styled the Wisconsin Legislature has passed resolutions instructing Senator Doolittle to resign his seat in the Senate of the United States. This was to be expected at the hands of a body composed of negro-monomanics. We presume, however, that Mr. Doolittle will regard this instruction much as did the man whom the jackass had kicked. A similar resolution was passed by the California Legislature concerning Senator McDougal in 1864.

TO BE ENLARGED.—The Oregon City Enterprise is to be enlarged. This new journal is among the best filled papers that comes to us. Unlike many papers that have existed in Oregon, the Enterprise never proposed to be a "national" paper, hence it does not disdain to give its readers the local news items, etc. The Enterprise has a liberal advertising patronage which speaks well for the enterprise and local pride of the citizens of Oregon City. All branches of the local business of the place are represented in its columns. The people seem proud of their paper and determined to give it a liberal and living support.

THAT'S THE LOGIC.

The Democratic (Cal.) Standard, speaking of the attempted impeachment of the President and probable abandonment of the scheme, says:

"As evidencing the true spirit of Radicalism, however, it leaves us in no doubt as to their ultimate intention—rule or ruin is their motto. Let it be ours, also. If right and justice are to be trampled under foot—if the Constitution and law are to be entirely ignored—if all power is to be concentrated in a fanatical Congress who know nothing else, and care for nothing else, but their own political aggrandisement; then let us have death, but like men, die nobly, and die fighting."

We have but little fear as to the result of the contest. "There is a God who presides over the destinies of the nation," and he is a just God. We have but to act as the means, and with a firm reliance in the justice of our cause, success is already ours. Yankee government like Yankee nutmegs, Yankee hams and all other Yankee humbugs—is of few days and full of trouble. It has about gone the length of its tether now, and we have only to give it rope enough and it will hang itself. We expect confidently to witness its execution and burial, and as far as our humble means will admit, will contribute to that most glorious end. Unity of action and a determined will, are the only requisites to our success. Let us use them, and at least have the consciousness of having done our duty.

COMING DIRECTLY TO THE POINT.—The Senate and House of Representatives of Maine have repealed the law forbidding the intermarriage of the whites with negroes, Indians and mulattoes. This is a move in the direction of consistency. If the people of any State urge a measure or a policy upon any other State they are in consistency bound to set the example themselves. This the State of Maine has done. Moral: If the republicans of Maine did not desire to intermarry with niggers, whence the necessity for repealing said law?

HEARD ON THE NATIVES.—By reason of the continued high stage of the waters, no boats have reached this point since Monday, a week ago. The Yamhill has been considerably higher the present winter than it has been for some years.

NEW BOOT AND SHOE ESTABLISHMENT.—A gentleman of Portland, so soon as the boats can run, will bring a stock of Boots and Shoes to this place, where it is his intention to engage extensively in the manufacture of such goods.

MOTHERS ATTENTION.—A case of death from fright is given in the Milwaukee Wisconsin, which occurred at Evansville, in that State, as follows:

A child, five years of age, when playing on the steps, was threatened to be shut up in a dark room if he did not go in and stay in the house. The child, frightened, ran in, and fell in paroxysm on the floor. He begged his mother not to let the man shut him up, and he would never go on the steps again. He sickened from this fright, and never recovered. When conscious, he begged his mother to keep the man away, and he never would go on the steps again. And when the little fellow was dying, he said, "Papa, don't let me die; I never will go on the steps again." Is it not possible that this one more melancholy case may do something to induce the breaking-up of the shameful habit of frightening children, whose whole future is often periled by one moment of terror.

ENIGMATIC, TO SOME.—The following notices were published in the Oregon Statesman of December 17:

MARRIED.—At Independence, Polk county, Dec. 9, Andrew H. Hixson, aged 62 years. At the same place Dec. 12, Elizabeth Hixson, aged 55 years, widow of Andrew H. Hixson, late deceased. Missouri papers please copy.

Explanation: Through an error of the printer, death notices were placed under the marriage head.

CORNS.—We give herewith what is said to be a certain cure for these troublesome customers: Scrape a piece of common chalk, put a small portion of it upon the corn and bind it with a linen rag. Repeat the application for a few days, and you will find the corn come off like a shell and perfectly cured. The cure is simple and efficacious.

The Louisville Journal says of the editor of the Oregonian:

"The editor of the Radical paper at Portland, Oregon, thinks that we are anxious to be the tail of the fire-eating party. We can't call him the Radical party's tail. He is something under that."

Maryland has repealed the law requiring niggers to be sold into slavery for crime.

PORTLAND Jobbing Prices Current and Market Review, by McCRAKEN, MERRILL & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANTS, NOS. 14 AND 16, North Front Street.

Since our last under date of December 29th, we have little to advise.

The complete cessation of trade with the Upper Columbia, added to decline in price of produce in San Francisco, has caused our market to present a very dull appearance, and prices for all kinds of produce are merely nominal, no sales being made worthy of note. A very large amount of produce is now in the hands of merchants awaiting sale and shipment.

The receipts and shipment of produce for the month of December, amounted to the following: Flour, qr. sacks, 39,709; apples, boxes, 16,831; butter, half barrels, 477; lard, cans and half barrels, 298; wooden goods, bales and cases, 66; fruit trees, bundles, 14; feed, sacks, 3,222; wheat, do, 4,924; chickens, coops, 50 t eggs, boxes, 258; cider, kegs, 14; barley, sacks, 399; oats, do, 295; dressed hogs, 57; corn meal, sacks, 73; sourknot, barrels, 13; apple butter, kegs, 6; hides, 276; furs, bales, 13; leather, rolls, 12; grapes, bxs, 14; turkeys, coops, 7; geese, do, 4; table legs, packages, 12; salt beef, barrels, 104; bran, sacks, 202; middlings, do, 124; wool socks, bales, 7; potatoes, sacks, 64; horses, 5.

To San Francisco during the month of December, foot up as follows: Flour, 19,660 sks; apples, 14,562 boxes; wheat, 1,872 sks; butter, 83 lb barrels; eggs, 4 bxs; drugs, 88 do; leather, 24 rolls; hides, 326; bear skins, 1 bale; sheep pelts, 8 bales; merchandise, 185 packages; shingles, 30 M; cider, 6 kegs.

During the same period there left this port for San Francisco, 308 cabin and 220 steerage passengers.

The treasure shipped during the period under review, amounted to but $350,000, the smallest shipment during any month of the year but two.

EXPORTS TO VICTORIA.

During December the exports to Victoria footed up as follows: Flour, 3,920 qr. sacks; apples, 2,290 bxs; bacon, 264 gunnies; eggs, 38 boxes; butter, 43 packages; cider, 5 kegs; wheat, 262 sacks; plants, 2 pkgs; sal soda, 3 do; beer, 2 kegs; merchandise, 28 pkgs.

The opposition between this port and San Francisco still continues—the rate of freight per MONTANA $3 00 and per OREGON $5 00.

The decline in the wheat and flour market at San Francisco may have a tendency to check shipments, but with the prospects of a limited local demand we cannot advise the holding for higher rates. Our last quotations from there are—Flour, $4 75 to $5 00; wheat, $1 75 to $1 85.

Our home quotations are as follows:

WHEAT—60 cents, with limited demand.
FLOUR—$4 75 to $5 50. Sales exceedingly limited.
OATS—37 1/2 to 40 cents per bushel.
BACON—Sides, $14@15c; Hams, 15@16c; Shoulders, 8@9c.
LARD—In tins, 14@15c; bulk, 13@14c.
BUTTER—Solid, 25@30c; brine, 35c.
DRIED FRUIT—Apples, 10@11c. in kegs; Cal. Peaches, 16@18c; Plums, 16@20c.
EGGS—30@32c.
SALMON—Bble, $13; half bbls, $7.
SUGARS—Island, 8 1/2@10 1/2c; San Fran. 11 1/2@12; Crushed, 13; lb bbls do 13 1/2@14.
SYRUP—S. F. Golden, 72 1/2c; Island, 35c.
COFFEE—25@28c.
RICE—China, No. 1, 8c; Hawaiian, 10c.
SALT—100 lb sks $25; Dairy, $30; 10 lb. sks. 18c; 5 lb sks 10c; 3 lb sks 8c.
KEROSENE—70@75c.
Green Apples—Last sales reported in San Francisco $1 25@1 50 per box.
